Index

References to tables are shown in bold and those for figures are in italics.

Ashburn Clinic, New Zealand
- background 31
- built environment of 46
- facilities and recreational activities 46, 47
- financial crisis and responses 37
- marketing literature 44–7
- ownership of 36–8, 53, 161
- policy, mental health care provision 52–3
- policy and private/public provision 34–5, 36
- Te Whare Mahana o nga hau e wha (the warm house of the four winds) 46, 47
- as therapeutic community 46, 48, 50–1
- therapeutic landscapes and 45–6
- asylum sites, difficulties in locating 59, 73

Australia
- Challinor Hospital/Ipswich Campus, University of Queensland 102–3, 104
- Miller’s Point, Sydney 89

Bethlem Royal Hospital, London 62
- boundary flexing
- housing-related boundary changes 66–8, 84–5
- for integration with the local community 66
- landscapes 21
- Ontario Shores, Canada 73
- St James’ Hospital, Portsmouth 66–8, 67, 84–5

Broadmoor Hospital, UK 77
- brownfield sites 24, 110

Canada
- deinstitutionalisation policies 15–16, 35, 55
- implementation of universal health care 35
- residential redevelopment of sites 109
- state-provision of mental health care 7, 8
- Toronto situation, 1970–80s 4–5,
  see also Provincial Asylum System, Ontario; individual sites

Cane Hill, UK
- as derelict site 136, 158
- as iconic construction 138
- risk of entry and physical dangers 145, 149
- spectral manifestations 152
- spectral moments 150
- tunnel system 141
- water tower 140
- care in the community
  - contrasted with asylum care 22, 34
  - costs of 58
  - local opposition to 4, 57–8
  - move towards 3, 57
  - surveillance of patients 16
  - urban setting of 22, 33,
  see also deinstitutionalisation

Carrington and Oakley Hospitals/Unitec, New Zealand
- acquisition for educational use 92–3, 100, 163
- architecturally-motivated preservation 95–8, 98
- as derelict site 136
- former asylum cell converted into a design studio 98
- image of 93
- Marae (Māori meeting house) 97, 102
- marketing literature 96–7
- Mason Clinic, shared site with 78, 79, 99
- memorialisation at 97, 99
The Afterlives of the Psychiatric Asylum origin 91

policy behind 90
remembrance and overlapping use 99, 100 spectral manifestations 101, 152
spectral moments 150, 165 strategic forgetting and 97 tunnel systems 142
website 158

Challinor Hospital/Ipswich Campus, Australia 102–3, 104

closure narratives
lengthy processes of closure 17–18, 26, 55, 58–9 local context of 18, 26, 56
neoliberalism and funding cuts 16, 161 retention of mental health care services 18
in the UK 1–2

collective memory
in the built environment 88–9 Marae (Māori meeting house), Unitec campus 97, 102 sites of 24–5

Colney Hatch Hospital, UK 2, 122 conservation and heritage, New Zealand 125–6, 163–4 and heritage, UK 125–6, 163 and residential redevelopment 23, 110 stigma and reduced conservation 24

County Asylum System (England and Wales) online sources about 62 retained sites 62–3, 63 system of 60–1

Danvers State Hospital, USA closure narrative 18
demolition 141
as derelict site 136
front elevation 140
as iconic construction 138
lobotomisation procedures at 143 protracted closure process 18
risk of entry and physical dangers 146
spectral moments 150
deinstitutionalisation
binary coding and 114
in Canada 15–16, 35, 55
and continuing need for residential care 57 cost containment and 15–16, 58 in Europe 56–7
institution-focussed challenges of 4, 5–6 lack of public protests over 156 and long-stay service users 57 move towards care in the community 3 in New Zealand, weak government policy of 7–8, 35, 55, 58, 99 patient-focussed challenges of 4–5 policies of 14–17, 99–100, 161
research, lack of 4
UK policy of, “Water Tower” speech 1, 61, 139, see also care in the community; closure narratives derelict asylums
chapels 150–1, 150
electro convulsive therapy (ECT) 142, 143, 144–5
field visits 135–6
front elevation 138, 140
iconic constructions 137–42, 138 internet accounts of 135–6, 155 literature on 133
morgues 142, 143, 144
pharmacies 144
psychiatric signifiers 142–5, 143
research methodology 155 research on 132–3
risk of entry and physical dangers 145–9, 148
roofscapes 138, 140–1
security at 145–7
sites researched 136
as spectral destinations 149, 150–2 and spectral manifestations 149, 152–4 stigma of 154–5
temporal/spatial factors 151–2, 153–4 tunnel systems 138, 141–2, 142
visual imagery 135
water towers 138, 139–40, 139, see also urban exploration deterioration of buildings 3, 17–18, 21, 61, 147 education, sites of Carrington Hospital/Unitec, New Zealand 92–3, 100, 163

  Challinor Hospital/Ipswich Campus, Australia 102–3, 104
  Lakeshore Hospital/Humber College, Canada 91–2, 100, 163
memorialisation at 94–5, 95, 97, 99, 101–2, 103, 104–6 remembrance at 99, 100, 101–2, 103, 104–6 transinstitutionalisation, policy of 99–100, 163

electro convulsive therapy (ECT) 142, 143, 144–5 emotional legacies, asylums as sites of 25, 156, 159 employment opportunities 3, 5, 8, 9

Epsom colony, UK 2, 58

Exe Vale Hospital/Devington Park, UK 111

forensic units
  Broadmoor Hospital, UK 77
  containment/care conflict 76 continuing need for 57, 62, 162 forensic health care, UK 75–6 governance procedures, UK 76
  Mason Clinic, New Zealand 77–9, 78, 99
  in Ontario, Canada 75
  France 56–7, 159

Germany 56–7, 160

Glenside Museum, Bristol, UK 81, 82–3, 83
governance procedures disposal of asylum sites, UK 109–10 forensic units, UK 76
for on-site survival, St James’ Hospital 68–71

Graylingwell Hospital/Park, UK growth background 116
charting change on the site 117
as derelict site 136

as iconic construction 138
marketing literature 124, 126 memorialisation of asylum cemetery 123 redevelopment process 118, 119 re-naming and local community 122–3 retained mental health care facilities 118, 126, 127
risk of entry and physical dangers 145, 146, 146, 147
sales office 120
selection as case study 111–12
selective remembrance 119, 122–3, 126, 127–8
spectral moments 150
strategic forgetting 126–7
water tower 139, 140
grounds, asylum, see landscapes health geography 21–2 heritage

  architecturally-motivated preservation 93–4, 94, 95–8, 101 built environment and cultural heritage 23, 27 chapels 64, 82, 83, 120, 123, 128, 150–1, 150 and development, Graylingwell 123 marketing literature, Priory Group 42–3, 44 and strategic forgetting/selective remembrance 129–30 time and changing notions of 26–7 traces, idea of 23,
  see also conservation

HMS Vernon/Gunwharf Quays, Portsmouth 129, 165
Hobsonville Airbase/Hobsonville Point, New Zealand 129, 165

Homewood Health Centre, Canada
  background 31
  financial autonomy 37–8 the grounds 48
  horticultural therapy 49, 49 increasing corporate interests and 38, 162 interaction landscape and architecture 49 marketing literature 48–50
ownership of 53
pastoral therapy 49 publicly-funded services and outpatient care 34, 35–6, 52, 72, 161 as secure and safe 48–9
as therapeutic community 51
as traditional hospital setting 50 housing developments, see residential redevelopment Humber College, Canada, see Lakeshore Hospital/Humber College, Canada ill health, asylums as sites of 22–3, 39 institutionalisation 14, 21, 39, 57
Kalamazoo/Western Michigan University, USA 59, 102
Kingseat Hospital, New Zealand abandoned swimming pool 151
as derelict site 136
as iconic constructions 138
litigation over 18
re-use as ‘Spookers’ attraction 133–4, 133, 143–4, 152, 154, 159, 165 rugby field 66
spectral moments 150
Knowle Hospital/Village, UK
background 116
charting change on the site 117
cricket pitch 66, 123
as Knowle Village 119–22, 122
redevelopment process 118–19
retained mental health care facilities 118, 126, 127
selection as case study 111–12
as strategic forgetting 123–4, 127, 165
Lakeshore Hospital/Humber College, Canada
acquisition for educational use 91–2, 100, 163
architecturally-motivated preservation 93–4, 94 ‘Cottage 3’ 94
green spaces as community resources 91–2, 109 Humber Business School 92 original asylum site 90–1 remembrance in 95
specific memorialisation, Third Garden 94–5, 95, 101–2 Lakeshore Hospital/Mimico, Canada
as derelict site 136
as iconic constructions 138
physical dangers, derelict site 148
spectral manifestations 95, 152, 153
tunnel systems 142, 142
landscapes
green spaces as community resources 66–7, 85, 91–2, 100, 123 landscapes of despair 22 and memory 24–5
seclusion and separation 21, 22 therapeutic landscapes 20–2, 39–43, 45–6, see also boundary flexing lobotomy suites 142, 143
marketing
Ashburn Clinic, New Zealand 44–7
Carrington Hospital/Unitec, New Zealand 96–7
Graylingwell Hospital/Park, UK 124, 126
Homewood Health Centre, Canada 48–50
image making and commodification, private asylums 40, 52 Priory Group, UK 41–4
for residential redevelopment projects 111 use of therapeutic landscapes 39, 41–3
Mason Clinic, New Zealand 77–9, 78, 99
Maudsley Hospital, UK 62
memorialisation
architecturally-motivated preservation 93–4, 94, 95–8, 98, 101
at Carrington Hospital/Unitec 97, 99
within educational re-use sites 101–2, 103, 104–6 examples of 164–6
at Graylingwell, UK 123
at Lakeshore Hospital/Humber College 94–5, 95, 101–2
process of 25, 89
Index

in residential redevelopments 110–11, 124 at Sunnyside Hospital/Linden Grove 126 memory
as embodied within sites 24–5, see also museums, former asylums as mental health care acute mental health care 57
in Canada 7, 8
changing terminology of 1
County Asylum System (England and Wales) 60–3, 62, 63 neoliberal funding policies 16, 38 in New Zealand 7
and notions of survival 5 within private sector 2, 7, 16–17 psychiatric signifiers, derelict asylums 142–5, 143 risk factor assessments of patients 15
in the UK 8,
see also policies, mental health care provision; retention of mental health care services
The Mental Health Museum, UK 83–4 military bases, former 128–9 Miller’s Point, Sydney 89
mission movement, policy influence on 32–4 mistreatment of patients 3 moral therapeutic regimes 61
morgues 142, 143, 144
museums, former asylums as artefact preservation 80, 81–2 Glenside Museum, Bristol, UK 81, 82–3, 83
and images of psychiatric care 85 lack of research on 79–80
The Mental Health Museum, UK 83–4
Porirua Museum, New Zealand 80–2, 81 role of enthusiasts 80, 82, 84 Thackray Medical Museum, Leeds 80
in the UK 83–4
neoliberalism
closures and funding cuts 16, 161 and health care delivery, UK 38 policy adaptation to, Homewood 37–8 private/public funding and patient choice 14–15, 16–17, 33
New Zealand (NZ)
conservation of heritage buildings 125–6, 163–4 deinstitutionalisation and cost containment 7–8, 58, 99
derelict asylums 131
evolution of mental health care 7 forensic health care 77–9 former military base redevelopments 129, 165 Māori-European biculturalism 7, 46, 79, 97 Mason Clinic, Auckland 77–9, 78, 99 population size and research sampling 8 Porirua Museum, Wellington 80–2, 81
residential redevelopment of sites 107, 109, 116, 124–5
Seaview Hospital, Hokitika 18
Tokanui (Psychiatric Hospital) 5, 14–15 weak government policy and deinstitutionalisation process 7–8, 35, 55, 99,
see also individual asylums
Oakley Hospital, Auckland, see Carrington and Oakley Hospitals/Unitec, New Zealand
One Flew Over the Cuckoo’s Nest 19, 84, 143 on-site survival, see retention of mental health care services Oregon State Hospital 84
overcrowding 3, 17–18, 21, 61, 147 Patel, Chai 38–9, 43–4, 53 place imaginings of and cultural production 40 renaming and stigma 20, 59–60 site geography and retention of services 59 spectral moments, temporal/spatial factors 153–4

© Copyrighted Material and time, implication for re-use 26–7 policies, mental health care provision and blurred boundaries, private/public asylum provision 32–9
of deinstitutionalisation 14–17, 99–100, 161 and mission movement 32–4 neoliberalism and 14–17, 33
residential redevelopment of sites 107, 108–9, 110
and retention of mental health care services 55
of transinstitutionalisation to educational use 90, 99–100, 163 weak government policy and deinstitutionalisation process, New Zealand 7–8, 35, 55, 58, 99
Porirua Museum, Wellington, New Zealand
80–2, 81
Powell, Enoch 1, 61, 139, 140
Priory Group, UK
architecture/history linkages 42–3, 44
background 31–2
celebrity clientele 50
changes in ownership 38–9 as exclusive 42, 50 financial model and public funding 53, 161–2 internal facilities and recreational activities 43–4
landscape as therapy 41–2
marketing literature 41–4
North London Priory Hospital, Southgate 45
ownership of 53
as secure and safe 41, 44
private psychiatric asylums adaptability of 33
historical provision 2, 7
increasing corporate interests and 54, 161–2 marketing 39, 40, 41–7, 48–50, 52 mission movement of facilities 33–4 neoliberal public/private funding and patient choice 14–15, 16–17, 33 private/public asylum provision 32–9, 51–4, 161
see also Ashburn Clinic, New Zealand;
Homewood Health Centre, Canada;
Priory Group, UK
Provincial Asylum System, Ontario
background 71–2
commitment to residential care 59, 74–5
forensic units 75
housing developments 73
Ontario Shores 73, 84
redevelopment policies 72–3
re-naming policies 73–4
St Joseph’s Hospital West 5th Campus, Ontario 73–4, 74
psychogeography 132–3
public support, asylum care 32–3, 51–2, 75 public-sector asylums, re-emergence of 51, 52, 53
remembrance
within the built environment 88–9
at Carrington Hospital/Unitec 99, 100
and derelict asylums 156
within educational re-use sites 99, 100, 101–2, 103, 104–6 imagery of gothic asylums 131 lack of, residential redevelopments 110–11
at Lakeshore Hospital/Humber College 95 and museum images of psychiatric care 85
process of 25
re-naming policies and negation of 73, 84, 162 role of internet accounts 165
at Sunnyside Hospital/Linden Grove 127
temporal factors and 164 and visual presentation, forensic units 76, see also selective remembrance; virtual
remembrance
re-naming policies
Graylingwell, UK 122–3
and negation of remembrance 73, 84, 162
Provincial Asylum System, Ontario 73–4
St Joseph’s Hospital West 5th Campus, Ontario 73
and stigma 20, 59–60
and strategic forgetting/selective remembrance 162
Sunnyside Hospital/Linden Grove 126, 162
research methodology
  case-focussed approach 157–8
  field visits 28, 158–9
  forensic approach 158
  future research directions 159–60 media reports and websites 28–9, 158 survey approach 157
residential redevelopment and boundary flexing, St James’ Hospital 66–8, 67, 84–5 elite housing estates 19 heritage conservation and 23, 110 as liminal sites 129
  limited memorialisation at 110–11, 124 luxury gated communities 6–7, 58 new confinement within 109, 110, 111, 129
Ontario Shores, Canada 73 parallels with military base redevelopments 128–9 policies of 107, 108–9, 110
  and reduction in spectral manifestations 154 selective remembrance 26, 111, 124, 127–8
  strategic forgetting 111, 124
  in the UK 107, 124
  in the USA 107,
  see also Graylingwell Hospital/Park, UK; Knowle Hospital/Village, UK; Sunnyside Hospital/Linden Grove
retention of mental health care services
  closure narratives 18
  current sites, UK 62–3
  in England, 2014 63
  at Graylingwell, UK 118, 126, 127
  at Knowle, UK 118, 126, 127
  for long-stay service users 57 for NHS administrative services 64 online sources, UK County and Borough Asylums 62 and policy 55
rebranding and renaming 59–60 and site geography 59
at St James’ Hospital, UK 69–71
at Sunnyside Hospital/Linden Grove 115–16, 127, 128, see also forensic units; Provincial Asylum System, Ontario re-use of psychiatric asylum sites dereliction 6
interplay of time and space 26–7, 163
Kalamazoo/Western Michigan University 59, 102
local context of 17
locational factors 27
the past and future uses 104–6 proximate communities and 27 residential use, conversion to 6–7 retention 6
and strategic forgetting 26
transinstitutionalisation 6, 7, see also education, sites of;
residential redevelopment;
transinstitutionalisation; individual sites
Royal Holloway Sanatorium, Surrey, UK 107, 111, 122 Seaview Hospital, Hokitika, New Zealand 18 seclusion and separation, recovery programmes and 2–3, 7, 21, 22
selective remembrance
  within corporate views 155
  and derelict asylums 132
  at Graylingwell, UK 119, 122–3, 126, 127–8
  and heritage 129–30
  in residential redevelopment sites 26, 111, 124, 127–8 spatial factors, see place spectral geographies 132–3, 149–54
St James’ Hospital, UK
  background 64
  boundary flexion 66–8, 67, 84–5 commercial horticulture (Green Fingers) 68

cricket pitch 66

front elevation 65

future plans for 71

grounds as local green resource (Town Green) 66–7 hospital farm, disposal of 64–5, 66 housing and institutional uses 66–8 integration with local community 66 as a mental health care campus 69–71 mixed economy of site users 68–9 organisational changes in governance 68–71

St Joseph’s Hospital West 5th Campus, Ontario 73–4, 74

stigma

asylums as locations of 19–20, 25

of derelict asylums 154–5 disposal of asylum sites 109–10 facility-centred stigma 19, 166 of mental illness 9, 57–8 outdated treatment modality and 19–20

of people 18–19

and present-day marketing 40 pride and victimhood, reclamation of 19

and reduced heritage conservation 24 reduction over time 110

re-naming policies 20, 59–60

spatial separation and 21 and spectral manifestations, derelict asylums 152

and strategic forgetting 89

Sunnyside Hospital/Linden Grove 114, 124–5

tainted reputation of asylums 20, 39, 89, 156, 158–9

strategic forgetting

at Carrington and Oakley Hospitals/

Unitec, New Zealand 97

within corporate views 26, 155

and derelict asylums 132

at Graylingwell, UK 126–7

and heritage 129–30

at Knowle, UK 123–4, 127, 165

process of 25

and re-naming policies 162

at residential redevelopment sites 111, 124

and stigma 89

at Sunnyside Hospital/Linden Grove 126

Sunnyside Hospital/Linden Grove

background 112–13

de-listing of administration building

115, 125, 164

memorialisation 126

remembrance 127

re-naming policies 126, 162

residential redevelopment 113–15, 113

retention of mental health care services

115–16, 127, 128

selection as case study 111–12

site remodelling 126

stigma and 114, 124–5

strategic forgetting 126

Thackray Medical Museum, Leeds, UK 80

transinstitutionalisation

location and accessibility factors 100

the past and future uses 104–6

policies of 90

and retention of community resources 100 term 100,

see also Carrington and Oakley

Hospitals/Unitec, New Zealand;

Challinor Hospital/Ipswich

Campus, Australia; Lakeshore

Hospital/Humber College, Canada treatment programmes, new 3, 35

tunnel systems 138, 141–2, 142

Unitec, Auckland, New Zealand, see

Carrington and Oakley Hospitals/

Unitec, New Zealand

United Kingdom (UK)

conservation of heritage buildings 125

County Asylum System (England and Wales) 60–3, 62, 63

definstitutionalisation policies and cost containment effects 15, 58 differentiated closure programme 55 forensic health care system 75–6

Index

193

governance procedures, disposal of asylum sites 109–10 reorganization of health care system 38, 58
residential redevelopment of sites 23, 107, 110, 124 state building programme 2–3, 9
state-provision of mental health care 8 transinstitutionalisation policies 90
United States of America (USA)
future research directions 159–60
Kalamazoo/Western Michigan University 59, 102
Oregon State Hospital 84
residential redevelopment of sites 107,
see also Danvers State Hospital, USA

urban exploration and derelict sites 133
internet accounts 133, 135–6, 158, 165 stereotypes of mental health 154 unsentimentality of 155–6 value of stigmatised pasts 155, see also derelict asylums virtual remembrance memories of asylums 130 and urban explorers’ internet accounts 133, 135–6, 155, 158, 165 water towers 1, 138, 139–40, 139