

Contents

Acknowledgements	vii
List of illustrations and table	xi
Abbreviations	xiii
Introduction	1
I. Congregants' everyday practices
1 Experiencing the service	29
2 Seating the religious public: church pews and society	53
II. The producers
3 The clergy, the city council, and Leipzig inhabitants	77
4 Elites in and beyond Leipzig: the Dresden court and the consistories	99
5 Leipzig's cantors: status, politics and the adiaphora	123
III. The Pietist alternative
6 Sociability and religious protest: the collegia pietatis of 1689–1690	147
7 The Pietist shadow network	169
IV. The construction boom and beyond
8 Social change and religious life	195
Conclusion	219
Bibliography	223
Index	245