

Contents

List of Illustrations	vii
Acknowledgements	ix
Introduction	1
The photo book Krieg dem Kriege!	1
Heroism alone	3
War and the individual	5
Who was the enemy?	7
The soldier as ‘Hero’	12
Victims and perpetrators	14
The dead of the Eastern Front and the civilian victims	16
Animal suffering	25
Atrocity propaganda	26
The war at sea and in the air	27
The misery was universal	28
1 Battle	31
Introduction	31
1914	41
1915	64
1916	70
1917	85
1918	97
1914–18: the casualties	104
2 Body	109
Conditions in the trenches	109
Disease	140
Wounds	166
3 Mind	205
Introduction	205
From health to neurosis	205
Neurosis	232
4 Aid	285
Introduction	285
From wounding to aid post	292

From first aid to hospital	306
The field hospital	312
The base hospital	322
Too many wounded, too little help	328
Complications	332
Is survival a blessing?	338
Medical experiments	340
Medical aid and military necessity	351
Military psychiatry	365
In summary: the character of military medicine	401
5 Death	407
Introduction	407
Death outside of battle	412
Death in battle	446
Meetings with Death	458
Burial in wartime	479
Afterword	493
Bibliography	499
Index	515