

Index

- 4x4s, see SUVs
- airbags 6, 111
 - and auto manufacturers 47n8, 98, 99, 115–7
 - and seat belts 114–6
 - as supplemental restraint system 117–8, 120, 121
 - and US government 116–7, 118–9
- anti-car movements 13, 159, 225–6
 - anti-SUV movement 69–70
- anti-urban ethos, see cities, images of
- Atlanta, Georgia 9, 145–58
 - corporate elite 148–9, 154, 155–8
 - Georgia Regional Transportation Authority (GRTA) 148, 152, 154–6
 - highway-industrial complex in 148–9, 154
 - Metropolitan Atlanta Rapid Transit Authority (MARTA) 151, 152, 156
 - transit détente in 155–8
- Auckland, New Zealand 7, 129–39
- auto hegemony 10, 145–6, 179–80, 219
- auto dominance, see auto hegemony
- auto-industrial complex 10–11, 146–7, 179, 191
- auto-mobility 1–3, 8, 21, 33
 - appeal of 7, 10, 21
 - autonomy 8, 39, 44, 236
 - convenience, see flexibility
 - flexibility 8, 40, 44, 236, 247; see also compulsory flexibility
 - speed 21–2, 40, 46, 50
 - as economic trap, see status, social: and consumption, prestige/positional goods
 - as escape, see also automobility, secessionist
 - from civilization 39, 52–3, 64–7, 69
 - from social ties 8, 39, 52–3
 - and the automobility system 1, 188–9
- automobile advertising 11, 37–55, 59–73, 184
 - amount of 11, 37, 60
 - appeal to economy 43, 50
 - appeal to excitement 11, 38, 40–41, 44–8, 50–51, 64
 - appeal to luxury 45, 47–50, 59, 64, 67–8
 - appeal to performance 44–8, 50
 - combining magical and mundane 38, 42, 44–5, 51, 53–4, 67
 - fuel efficiency in 45–6
 - green 72
 - instrumental meanings in 37, 38, 42
 - people absent in 52–3, 63, 67
 - photographic techniques in 61–2
 - safety in 46–8, 66, 118, 121
 - status in, see status, social: in advertising
 - ing
 - symbolic meanings in 37, 38, 61
- automobile dependency 2, 7, 151, 185–92, 197, 202–3
 - and access to jobs 9, 155–6
- automobile-dominated transportation, see auto hegemony
- automobile manufacturers, see individual company names
- automobiles
 - cultural meaning of
 - magical vs mundane 30, 179, 185
 - ‘love affair’ with 145–7, 150, 184–5, 188
 - modification of 21, 25
- automobility 1–3
 - alternatives to 14, 38, 189, 239–46; see also cycling; public transport; walking
 - alternative fuels 239–41
 - benefits of

- expanding contacts and opportunities 128–9
 - and capitalism 10, 155–8, 164, 175, 179–82, 191
 - contradictions of 1, 7, 14, 96, 184, 191
 - costs of
 - economic 5, 182, 188–9, 198, 207, 210–11
 - environmental 3–4, 70–2, 183, 201–2, 225
 - externalities 3–4, 7–9, 12
 - health 6, 183; see also death and injury
 - social, see inequity, social
 - cultural and economic power of 10–13, 147, 163–4, 182, 226, 247
 - cultural codes of 39–40, 42, 54, 60–61
 - dominance of, see auto hegemony
 - essentialized, see automobility, inevitability of
 - expansion of 3, 163–4, 217–28, 235–6
 - and globalization 99, 158–9, 163–4, 180–83, 217–28
 - harms of, see automobility, costs of
 - inevitability of 12, 39, 146, 234, 237
 - politics of 5–6, 148–58, 191–3, 210, 225–7
 - post-car development 12–14, 145, 233–48
 - secessionist 145–6, 150, 153–4, 156–8, 166, 174
 - social exclusion and 9, 173–4; see also inequity, social
 - and state policy 146–7, 164, 206–7, 211–12, 219, 227–8
 - system 1–4, 12, 163, 182, 237–8, 247–8
 - ‘locked-in’ 180, 186, 227, 234–6
 - automobilized society 11, 37, 132, 155, 175–6
- bicycling, see cycling
- British Columbia Custom Car Association (BCCA) 36–47
- built environment, see concrete; infrastructure
- buses, see public transport
- car culture 39, 247; see also automobiles, cultural meaning of
- cars, see automobiles
- Center for Auto Safety, see Nader, Ralph
- chaos theory, see complexity theory
- children 9
 - automobility and childhood 126–8, 134, 138
 - and gender 128, 134–5
 - blamed in collisions 126–7, 130
 - in urban spaces 126–7, 130
- Chile 8–10, 164–75
 - car ownership in 166–7
 - class inequality in 166–7, 169, 175–6
 - neoliberalism in 164–6, 169–73
 - pension funds and automobility 168–70
 - road privatization 170–74
- China
 - automobile production and consumption 9, 218–9
 - urban sprawl in 9, 14, 223–4
- cities, see also suburbs; urban sprawl
- fortified precursors of 85–7
- images of
 - dangerous 39, 67–8, 126, 153
 - immoral 39, 149, 153
 - setting for advertisements 52, 62, 64–9, 71
- citizenship
 - and non-car-owners 173, 221–2
 - SUV model of 59, 154
- civilization 8, 39, 52–3, 65–7
- climate change 4, 69, 71–3, 182–3, 201
- coercive flexibility 8, 40, 187–8, 237
- collective representations 11, 37–9
- communities
 - disrupted by automobiles 3, 129, 173, 183, 221–2
 - created through automobiles 7–8, 21, 24–8, 30
 - created through walking 132–3, 138
- commuting 136, 154, 157, 189–90
- complexity theory 233–4
 - tipping points 237–8, 247–8
 - post-car turning points 238–46
 - new fuels 239–41
 - new materials 241–2

- intelligent transportation systems (ITS) 243–4, 247–8
- deprivatized cars 244–5
- compulsory automobility 5, 10, 179–82, 185–91, 200–202
- compulsory consumption, see compulsory automobility
- concrete 7, 77–87, 188
- congestion charges, see road tolls
- consumers 11–13, 39, 60–61, 201–6, 208–13
 - consumer culture 179–80, 185–7
 - demand for safety features 95–6, 98–9, 102–3, 105
 - manipulated 3, 11, 39, 186–7
 - sovereign 39, 186, 201
- costs of automobility, see automobility, costs of
- critiques of automobility 3–9, 158–9, 125, 136–8, 179–85
- cultural ages of the automobile 96–8, 100–103
- cycling
 - as alternative to automobility 200–201, 203–5, 208, 210, 221
 - subordinated to automobility 127–8, 130, 146, 186–9, 202, 224–5
- death and injury on roads 6–7, 78–9, 90, 96–7, 183
 - effect of safety standards on 102–4
 - as psychosexual struggle 79–80
 - rates and incidence 78, 98, 100, 102, 121
 - risk of, by income 105–6
- death masks 82–3, 87
- developed countries
 - automobile consumption in 217–21, 235
 - automobile production in 217–18, 235
 - over-consumption in 180–82
- developing countries, see less developed countries
- dialectic of motion 95–6
- dialectic of speed and collision, see speed; safety
- Dole, Elizabeth 118–19
- drag racing 21–3, 26–33
- ecologies, social 217, 221
 - in less developed countries 222–7
 - Chile 164–75
 - in more developed countries 221–2, 225–6
- egoism 8, 53n10, 67, 150, 222; see also individualism
- emotions 1, 78, 90, 184, 247; see also automobile advertising: appeal to excitement
- environmentalism 3–5, 6, 69–72, 154–5
- EuroNCAP (New Car Assessment Programme) 101
- explanations
 - ‘cultural’ vs ‘materialist’ 10–12, 39, 54–5, 179–80, 186–7
- families 8, 9, 48, 59–60, 153
 - transportation and care of children 127, 129, 135–6, 138, 190
- femininity 9, 11, 40, 48, 50, 52, 64
- Ford, Henry 24, 235
- Ford Motor Company 43, 52, 116, 217
- Foucault, Michel 88–90
- gender 9, 40, 125, 128–9, 134–6
 - in automobile advertising 48, 52–3, 63–4, 73
 - differences in car usage 190
- General Motors 98, 115n7, 121, 248
- Haddon, William Jr. 99, 114
- Hadrian (Roman emperor) 81–3
- health, see automobility: costs of: health
- Hegel, G.W.F. 95–6, 100
- highways 188
 - in Atlanta 148
 - impact on poor neighbourhoods 169, 173–4
 - opposition to 9, 156–7, 173
 - private, in Chile 170–75
- Honda 102, 105
- Hot Rod* magazine 22–3, 25–30
- hot rodders 5–6, 8, 9, 11, 21–32
 - and police 22, 25
 - public image of 21, 22, 28
 - quest for respectability 6, 21–2, 24–8, 30, 33

- and state 26–7
- hybrid vehicles 72, 241
- hyperautomobility 7–9, 147–8, 219–22
- ideology 61, 70, 111–12, 147, 192
- IIHS, see Insurance Institute for Highway Safety
- individualism, see also egoism
 - and automobility 8–9, 71, 146, 153–4, 165, 247
 - and outdoors 59, 64, 65–7
- inequities, social 9, 13
 - age 9, 106, 128
 - class exclusion 9, 53, 173–4
 - income 13, 105–6, 128–9, 166–7, 223, 225–7
 - middle class 10, 150–2, 166, 169, 173, 225–7
 - the poor 9, 166–7, 169, 173–6, 221–6
 - working class 21, 24, 174, 225–7
- gender exclusion, see gender
- racial exclusion 9, 149–53, 156–8
- inevitability hypothesis, see automobility, inevitability of
- infrastructure 3, 5, 7–8, 164; see also concrete
- insurance industry
 - and airbags 114–5
 - and safety promotion 99, 112, 119
- Insurance Institute for Highway Safety (IIHS) 99, 120
- intelligent systems 104–6, 241, 243–4
- interpretative flexibility 11, 24–5, 27, 30
- interdisciplinarity 2, 78
- Jacobs, Jane 7–8
- land use 4, 155–6, 169–70, 187–8, 204–7, 224–5; see also urban sprawl
- less developed countries 3, 5, 11, 181
 - automobile production in 218
 - automobile consumption in 181, 217–19
 - urban sprawl 222–4
- masculinity 9
 - in automobile advertising 46, 48, 52–3, 62–5
 - and technical knowledge 24, 29, 40
- mass motorization, see automobility, expansion of
- mass production 24–5, 217, 235
- Mercedes-Benz 102, 104–5, 117–8
- militarism 68, 80
- Mills, C.W. 4, 44
- Mission Raceway Park 22, 31–3
- modernity
 - and automobility 14, 164–6, 170–3, 207, 234
 - and technologies of impression 78, 84, 87–8
- more developed countries, see developed countries
- motor vehicle collisions, see death and injury on roads; safety
- multidisciplinarity, see interdisciplinarity
- Mumford, Lewis 7, 238, 248
- Nader, Ralph 97, 98–9, 112
- National Highway Traffic Safety Administration (NHTSA) 99, 114–7, 119–21
- National Hot Rod Association (NHRA) 21–2, 27, 32
- nature
 - dominated by technology 39, 48, 52, 62–3, 65–6
 - images of 4, 39, 46, 49, 65–6
 - setting for advertisements 45, 52, 54, 62, 64–5, 73
 - neighbourhoods, see communities
- neoliberalism 7–8, 99, 164–6, 169–73, 175, 192
- NHTSA, see National Highway Traffic Safety Administration
- norms, social 3, 11, 40, 127, 147
- Pantheon (Rome) 81–3, 87
- path dependence 235–6
- pedestrians 3, 234, 245; see also safety policies: pedestrian; walking
 - child 125–39
 - risk of injury and death 129, 137

- subordinated to automobile traffic 7–8, 173, 175, 189
- Pinochet, Augusto 164–6
- popular culture 23–4, 27–8
- positional good, see status
- power, see auto hegemony; automobile advertising: appeals to: excitement; speed
- prestige good, see status
- private troubles / public issues 4
- privatism, see egoism; individualism
- progress, see modernity
- projectile economy 12, 68, 79, 84–7
- public health, see automobility: costs of: health
- public space
 - and automobility 8, 133, 150, 153–4, 167, 222
 - and children 126–8, 138–9
- public transit, see public transport
- public transport 7–8
 - as alternative to automobiles 13–14, 189–90, 212, 244–6
 - stigmatized 203–5, 209–210
 - in Atlanta, US 151–2, 155–8
 - in Auckland, NZ 129
 - in Chile 166–8, 175
- railways 84, 86, 236
- Reagan, Ronald 99, 116, 118
- responsibility, see safety: responsibility
- risk 3–4, 40, 66, 125, 221
 - vs safety 46–8
- road tolls 13, 164, 170–4
- Rocker, John 149–50
- sacrifice
 - and automobility 6, 79, 88–90
 - and Christianity 89–90
- safety 3–4, 6–7, 11, 26–7, 30, 33; see also
 - automobile advertising: safety
 - consciousness of 95
 - automakers. 97–8, 102–3, 121
 - consumers 98
 - governments 100
 - responsibility
 - auto manufacturers 99, 112, 115, 117
 - car owners and drivers 97, 112, 117
 - distribution of 6–7, 112–6, 122
 - governments 95–102, 105, 243
 - legal liabilities 112, 115
 - pedestrians 112n3, 127
- safety policies
 - drivers 97, 99
 - pedestrians 101, 126–7
 - technological fixes vs social fixes 6, 13, 111–14, 121–2, 242; see also vehicle design
 - vehicle design 13, 98–102, 106, 113; see also airbags, seat belts
 - Vision Zero (Sweden) 100–101
- safety technology 29, 33, 98, 103; see also airbags; seat belts
- affordability of 105
- competition between automakers 47n8, 99–100, 105
- crash avoidance 103–4
 - electronic stability control (ESC) 101, 104, 122
 - intelligent vehicle systems 104–5, 106, 246
- crash protection 98, 103
- pedestrian protection 101, 103–4, 127
- seat belts 98, 99
 - in American cars 98, 113
 - education and laws on 114, 117, 119–20
 - usage in US 114, 117, 120
- security, personal 66–9
- self, the 78, 88–9
- semiotic analysis 38, 60
- Seneca 88–9
- social fixes, see safety, technological vs social fixes
- social inequities, see inequities, social
- social welfare perspective 198–213
- space and time
 - fragmented by automobility 8, 126, 163, 236–7, 244, 248
 - transformed in projectile economy 84, 87–8
- speed 21–3, 25–7
 - in advertising, see automobile advertising, appeal to excitement

- and modernity 78–9, 84, 86, 90, 172–3, 236
- and safety 78–9, 96, 103, 136–7
- and technical innovation 22–3, 27, 33, 78
- status, social 3–5, 11, 14
 - in automobile advertising 38–9, 44–5, 47, 49–51, 61
 - and consumption 199, 202, 205–206, 208, 212
 - and positional/prestige goods 197–203, 211, 212–13
 - and luxury vehicles 201–3, 208
- street racers 22, 25, 27, 28, 29
- suburbs 9–10, 39, 59, 205–6, 226; see also
 - automobility, secessionist; urban sprawl
 - military precursors of 86–7
 - white flight to 9, 151–4
- sustainability 4–5, 182–3, 201, 213, 239–41, 246–7
- SUVs (sport utility vehicles) 189, 190, 203
 - advertising for 11, 52, 59–73
 - crossover vehicles 70–71
 - sales of 59–60
 - as ‘urban assault vehicles’ 67–8, 90
- technologies of impression 78, 80, 83–8, 90
- technologies of the self 78, 80, 90
- technology
 - as masculine 40, 46, 52
 - social construction of 24, 27
 - technological innovation 21, 24, 27, 30, 72
 - as fix, see safety: technological vs social fixes
- teenagers, see youth
- traffic collisions, see death and injury on roads; safety
- traffic congestion 69, 147–8, 157–8, 174, 220
- transnational corporations 164, 168–74
- transport policy 14, 146–59, 169–76, 188–9, 211–3, 245–6
- urban design 2, 13; see also urban sprawl; suburbs
- urban sprawl 6–7, 9–10, 188, 205; see also suburbs
 - in developed countries 129, 154, 156–8, 220–22, 225
 - in less-developed countries 169–70, 174, 222–4, 227
- Vancouver, British Columbia, 5, 11, 21–33, 77, 244
- Volvo 53, 98, 102
- walking, see also pedestrians
 - as alternative to automobility 6, 125, 132–3, 139, 208
 - subordinated to automobility 127–8, 130, 136–7, 188, 202
- walking school buses 130–8
 - benefits of 8, 131–3, 138
 - and critique of auto-dominance 136–8
 - and discipline 130, 133–5
- youth 21–3, 25–7, 33