

Index

Page numbers in italics refer to tables.

Aarong, Bangladesh 58, 61, 70

activist campaigns

emergence and development of 19–20

for international regulation 130–2

transnational, and weakness of norm-creation 233–4

Adidas 355

advanced vs developing countries, regulatory controls in 10–11

advocacy role of Asia Fair Trade Forum (AFTF) 66–7

agricultural sector

Brazil 198

farmers market system, India 60–1 labour and fair trade certification 128 local level fairtrade strategies 43–7

multi-stakeholder initiatives 251–3

obstacles to development 39–41

see also Pacific Islands

Annan, K. 37

Appelbaum, R. and Lichtenstein, N. 231

Asia

domestic fair trade 58–62

fair trade networks 68–70

AFTF 64, 65–8

local level strategies 43–7

regional fair trade 62–5

see also garment sector, Asia; specific countries

Asia Fair Trade Forum (AFTF) 64, 65–8

Asia Fair Trade Pavilion 66–7

Asia Monitor Resource Centre (AMRC) 285, 286

Asia Wage Floor Alliance (AWFA) 254

Asian Development Bank (ADB) 224–5, 230, 300

Asian Transnational Corporation Monitoring Network (ATNC) 285, 286–7

auditing/social auditing 162, 173, 249–51

Auger, P.

and Devinney, T. 190, 193, 194, 197–8, 199

et al. 194, 195

Australia

ethical consumption 192, 193–4, 195, 201

government procurement as labour regulation 336–7, 339

Olympic Games campaign, Sydney 336–7, 343

and Pacific Islands 293, 296, 297, 298, 299, 300, 301, 303, 304, 307

Parliamentary Joint Committee on Corporations and Financial Services 153, 156–7 and Vietnam, trade union relations 219

see also garment sector, Australia; homeworkers–unions links, Australia

Australian Competition and Consumer Commission (ACCC) 129–30

Bangladesh 58, 59, 61, 62, 63, 64

ECOTA Fair Trade Forum 68–9, 70

Barenberg, M. 235, 236, 341, 342, 343

Barnard, C. et al. 331–2, 333

Barnett, C. et al. 196, 199

Barrientos, S. and Smith, S. 162, 163, 172, 174, 262, 263

Beautiful Store, South Korea 63, 65

Beijing Migrant Workers Legal Aid Office 358

‘benefit-based’ accounts 141

Benvenisti, E. and Downs, G.W. 226–7

Berndt, C. 129

boycotts and ‘buycotts’ 197–8

Brazilian rainforests 198

Brinkman, J. and Peattie, K. 199

business

awareness-raising 49

case for CSR 19, 20

and human rights impact assessment, UN 173

- strategy as disabling environment for CRS 174
- 'capacity-based' accounts 145
- capacity-building 42, 46
  - garment sector, Australia 161–2
  - role of Asia Fair Trade Forum (AFTF) 66–7
- capitalism, embedding and disembedding
  - concept of 7–8
  - dynamics of 8–10
    - and globalization 12–14
  - economic re-embedding 267–8, 369–74
  - political re-embedding 368, 374–8
  - in post-war period 10–11
- Cargills (international wholesalers) 198
- CCC see Clean Clothes Campaign
- certification see Fairtrade Labelling Organization (FLO) and certification
- Chang, D. 283
  - and Wong, M. 278, 281, 282
- China 63, 151, 157, 192, 249, 254
  - Disney 281
  - NGOs 215, 217, 218, 354, 358
  - Nike 281
  - Olympic Games campaign, Beijing 287
  - Reebok 214–15, 216–18, 220, 354–5
  - workers' wages 212–14, 215
  - working conditions 211–12
    - see also* labour standards, China; trade unions, China
- CHOICE study 193–4, 196
- citizen action see ethical consumption
- Clarke, D. and McKenzie, T. 305
- Clean Clothes Campaign (CCC) 162, 212, 250
  - G-Star, India 247–9
  - Play Fair at the Olympics 284, 285, 286–7
- Clothing Trades Award (CTA) 267–8
- Co-operative Bank 155, 192, 194, 197
- co-optation, limits of CSR 177
- codes of conduct 171–2, 179–80
  - and 'discretionary' nature of CSR 280–2
  - garment sector, Australia 158, 159–60, 160, 162, 267
  - multi-stakeholder initiatives and supply chains 249–51
  - violations, China 214
- Coffee Connections 297
- coffee, fair trade 3, 4, 44–5, 48, 51, 297
  - markets and networks, Asia 63, 64, 65, 77, 78, 81, 88
  - violation of voluntarist and free market principles 127, 128, 129, 130–2
- communication, producer–purchaser 108–9
- company reporting and disclosure, limitations of CRS 172–3
- complexity, consumer responses to 196
- confidence, consumer 195–6
- Consumer Federation of America 201
- 'consumer social responsibility' 200
- Consumer Union, US 201
- consumer(s)
  - awareness and understanding 49, 195
  - organizations 200–3
  - Western-based campaigns 282–8
    - see also* ethical consumption
- Consumers International (CI) 195, 201, 202
- 'cooperation-based' accounts 141
- Corporate Responsibility Coalition (CORE), UK 254–5
- corporate social responsibility (CSR)
  - criticism of 123, 128
  - emergence and development of 3–4, 17–19, 245–6
  - limits of 191–2, 211, 279–82, 316–17, 331–2
    - see also* policy incoherence of CSR
- corporations, public responsibilities of 144–6
- Costco 314–15
- country networks, Asia 68–70
- craft sector, Asia 59–60
- Crane, A. 193
- Crater Mountain Cooperative, Papua New Guinea 44–5
- decision-making, public and private responsibilities 139
- developing vs advanced countries, regulatory controls in 10–11
- Devinney, T. et al. 200
- disabling environment for CSR 173–9
- disembedding capitalism see capitalism, embedding and disembedding
- Disney, China 281
- dispute resolution
  - China 351, 357–8
  - Indonesia 252–3

- International Center for Settlement of Investment Disputes 175–6
- distribution channels, Asia 61
- Diviney, E. and Lillywhite, S. 149, 155, 157–8, 159, 162, 271
- Easterbrook, S. 3
- economic partnership agreements (EPAs), EU–Pacific Islands 299–300, 301, 306–7
- economics see capitalism, embedding and disembedding
- ECOTA Fair Trade Forum, Bangladesh 68–9, 70
- EFTA see European Fair Trade Association
- Elliot, K. and Freeman, R. 197–8
- embedding capitalism see capitalism, embedding and disembedding
- environment
  - and economics, relationship between 123–4
  - laws 176, 322–3
- equality/inequality 23–4, 38, 124
- Ethical Consumer Research Association, UK 202
- ethical consumption 193–200
  - actions and targets 197–8
  - alternatives to 188–92
  - attitudes to 193–4
  - barriers to 195–6
  - impact of 193
  - motivations 198–9, 200
  - statistics 192
- Ethical Trading Initiative (ETI), UK 162, 163, 164, 177
- European Commission 18, 152
- European Fair Trade Association (EFTA) 15, 17, 43
- European Union (EU)
  - labour regulation 337, 339
  - and Pacific Islands 296, 298, 299–300, 301–2, 304, 306–7
- Evans, M. et al. 305
- fair trade
  - emergence and development of 15–17
  - governance model at international level 50–2
  - mainstreaming 107, 109, 112, 114
  - promise and limits of mechanisms 313–17
  - response 41–50
  - vs* free trade 128, 300–2
  - see also* Asia; organizational legitimacy in fair trade; Pacific Islands
- Fair Trade Alliance in Kerala (FTAK), India 47
- Fair Trade Association of Australia and New Zealand (FTAANZ) 45, 46, 48–50, 297
- Fairtrade Labelling Australia and New Zealand (FLANZ) 44, 48–9
- Fairtrade Labelling Organization (FLO) and certification 15, 16, 17, 42–3, 44, 50–2, 57
- conflicts and limits of 93, 108, 113, 128, 129–30
- Japan 62
- Network of Asian Producers (NAP) 69
- statistics 192, 314
- and voluntarism 125, 126, 128, 129–30
- FAIRTRADE Mark 42–3, 48
- FairWear campaigns 263, 264–5, 266, 267–9, 270–1
- farming see agricultural sector
- Fiji see Pacific Islands
- FINE network 15–16, 102–3
- Finland–Vietnam trade union relations 219
- Fonteneau, G. 236, 237
- foreign trade unions, benefits of involvement 217–18, 219–20
- Foundation for Rural Integrated Enterprises N Development (FRIEND) 297
- free markets
  - value of 122–3
  - vs* fair trade 128, 300–2
  - see also under* voluntarism
- freedom of association 161
- Friedman, M. 18, 122, 123, 126, 128, 137
- G-Star, India 247–9
- garment sector, Asia
  - Asia Wage Floor Alliance 254
  - G-Star, India 247–9
  - New Wide Garment (NWG), Cambodia 341–2
  - Thai Gina Form, Bangkok 284
  - see also* Olympic Games campaigns

- garment sector, Australia
  - corporate responsibility
    - debate and practice 155–8
    - origins and uses 154–5
    - private mechanisms 160–2
    - process and trends 152–3
  - homeworkers 263–4
    - see also* homeworkers–unions links, Australia
  - multi-stakeholder initiative 163–4
  - overview 152
  - regulation of working conditions 158–9
  - research methodology 150–1
- Gilpin, R. 230
- Global Compact, UN 3–4, 152, 172, 173, 176–7
- Global Exchange 127
- Global Reporting Initiative 171, 172
- Goff, P. 299
- Gordon, K. and Miyake, M. 160, 161, 163
- government procurement 329–30
  - barriers and limitations 338–9
  - as labour regulation 333–5
    - transnational 336–8, 339
  - legitimate and effective promotion of better standards 340–4
  - as regulatory technique 330–3
    - see also* state regulation
- government vs individual responsibility 124–5
- Greenpeace International 198
- health concerns see under Pacific Islands
- Hemmati, M. 163
- Highlands Organic Agricultural Cooperative (HOAC), Papua New Guinea 45, 47
- homeworkers
  - garment sector, Australia 158, 159–60, 263–4
  - in global informal work context 260–1
- Homeworkers Code of Practice (HWCP), Australia 158, 159–60, 162, 267
- Homeworkers Worldwide (HWW) 260, 261, 271
- homeworkers–unions links, Australia
  - Clothing Trades Award (CTA) 267–8
  - ‘community-union collaboration’ 265–6, 269–71
- CSR vs CA 262–3
  - FairWear campaigns 263, 264–5, 266, 267–9, 270–1
    - and supply-chain regulation 266–7, 268
  - TCFUA 264, 265–6, 269, 270
- Hong Kong 62–3, 64, 69, 277–8
  - Fair Trade Forum 67
  - Thai Gina Form garment factory, Bangkok 284
- Hong Kong Declaration: ‘Aid for Trade’ initiatives 40
- human rights
  - as social justice norm 23
  - UN impact assessment 173
- human rights department, Reebok 214–15, 216
- hybrid regulation 181
- ICA see International Coffee Agreement
- ICRT see International Consumer Research and Testing
- IFAD see International Fund for Agricultural Development
- IFAT see International Fair Trade Association
- ILO see International Labour Organization
  - ‘impact-based’ account of corporations 141, 142–3, 145
- India 59, 60–1, 62, 64, 68
  - Fair Trade Alliance in Kerala (FTAK) 47
  - G–Star 247–9
  - PROFIT (Promoting Fair Trade in India) 59, 60, 70
  - Public Interest Litigation 182
- individual vs government responsibility 124–5
- Indonesia 234, 251, 252
  - palm oil industry 252–3
- inequality/equality 23–4, 38, 124
- informal networks and communities, Asia 69–70
- informal work
  - global context 260–1
  - ILO definition of 259
- information, consumer 195
- institution-building 47
- institutional capture 178
- institutions
  - liberal 142–3
  - roles in promotion of social justice 25–7
  - transformative potential of 380, 379–83

- International Center for Settlement of Investment Disputes 175–6
- International Coffee Agreement (ICA) 131–2
- International Consumer Research and Testing (ICRT) 201
- international debate on corporate responsibility 155–7
- international development and aid organizations 39–40
- International Fair Trade Association (IFAT) 15, 17, 43, 48, 50, 51
see also World Fair Trade Organization (WFTO)
- International Fund for Agricultural Development (IFAD) 38
- International Labour Organization (ILO) 4, 14, 189, 224
Declaration of the Fundamental Principles and Rights at Work (Core Labour Standards) 226–7, 246, 250 definition of informal work 259
government procurement 334, 335, 337, 340
homework categories 262
Vietnam 225, 232
- international law 181–2
- International Olympic Committee (IOC) 285, 287
- international system
failings of 38–41
fairtrade activities 47–50
obstacles to development of rural producers 39–40 potential to tackle global poverty 38
- International Union of Foodworkers (IUF) 253
- Jaffee, D. 16
- Japan 62–3
- Japan–Bangladesh Cultural Exchange Association 63
- Jenkins, R. 11, 14
et al. 11, 18, 154
- Jetschke, A. 234
- Johnstone, R. and Jones, J. 333
- kava export ban 302–4
- Kelsey, J. 294, 298
- Kerr, D. 293
- Kokonut Pacific 297, 298
- Kotler, P. and Lee, N. 280
- KPMG studies 153, 156
- labour standards
anti-discrimination strategies, US 321–2
see also government procurement
- labour standards, China
CSR initiatives, diffusion of 352–5
dispute resolution 351, 357–8
- labour law renewal 355–8
trade union law and transforming economy 350–2 private sector initiatives 352–4 trade union behaviour change 356–7
see also trade unions, China
- legal mechanisms 22–3 and voluntary mechanism 181
- legitimacy of fair trade see organizational legitimacy in fair trade
- Levy, D. 178, 181
- liberalism see public/private responsibilities, liberal perspective
- Liberation Foods CIC, UK 46, 47
- Lindsey, B. 316
- Lipschutz, R. and Rowe, J. 229, 236, 237, 239
- ‘Little Bird’ mediation service, Beijing 358
- Lloyd, R. 200–1
- loan schemes 46, 261
- Lobel, O. 314–15, 317, 318, 319, 322
- local level
fair trade strategies 43–7 and international fair trade, tensions between 64–5
obstacles to development of rural producers 39
- Locke, R. et al. 232
- McAuley, I. 191
- Macdonald, T. 20, 141, 142
- McDonalds 3, 127, 198
- mainstreaming fair trade 107, 109, 112, 114
- market access role of Asia Fair Trade Forum (AFTF) 66–7
- Marsh, I. 229
et al. 228–9
- microfinance initiatives/micro-credit schemes 46, 61, 70, 261

- migrant workers
  - China 220
  - Pacific Islands 296
  - Vietnam 230
- minimum wage levels see workers' wages
- Mises, L. von 122
- monitoring see auditing/social auditing
- motivations, consumer 198–9, 200
- Mountain Fruits, Pakistan 45–6
- Mui, Y.Q. 315
- multi-stakeholder initiatives
  - agricultural sector 251–3
  - codes of conduct, supply chains and 249–51
  - garment sector, Australia 163–4
  - potential for division 251–3
  - power imbalances 176–9
- multinational companies (MNCs) see
  - transnational/multinational corporations (TNCs/MNCs); specific companies
- Musim Mas, Indonesia 252–3

- Nair, C. 211
- 'naming and shaming' 127, 177, 282–3
- National Contact Point (NCP) 246–7, 248, 249
- Nawalowalo, R.J. 304
- neo-institutionalist perspective on fair trade 97
- Nepal 63, 64, 65, 68
- Nestlé 4, 93, 127
- Network of Asian Producers (NAP) 69
- Network of European Worldshops (NEWS) 15, 17, 43
- networks in Asia 68–70
- 'New Constitutionalism' 175
- new governance
  - emergence and evolution of 15–23
  - evaluating 23–8
  - private–public synergies 319–23
  - and regulatory crowding out 317–19
  - responses to evolving economic and political dynamics 366–7
  - targets and strategic dilemmas 367–9
  - transformative potential of 380, 379–83
- New Wide Garment (NWG), Cambodia 341–2
- New Zealand Agency for International Development (NZAID) 40
- New Zealand–Pacific Islands relations 293, 294, 297, 298, 299, 300, 305, 307
- NGOs see non-government organizations (NGOs)
- Nguyen, T.K.D. et al. 224–5, 230
- Nicaragua 175–6
- Nicholls, A. 93, 94, 99, 101, 111, 113 and Opal, C. 93
- Nike 20, 232
  - California law suit 22, 317–18
  - China 281
  - Taiwan 283
- Nolan, J. 161, 164
- non-government organizations (NGOs)
  - agricultural sector 251–2
  - Asia 61, 63, 65, 69, 70
  - China 215, 217, 218, 354, 358
  - labour standards 156, 161
  - limits of CSR 172, 177
  - lobbying activities 127
  - and trade unions 253
  - see also specific organizations*
- North Korea 63

- Occupational Safety and Health Administration (OSHA), US 320–1
- ODA see overseas development assistance
- Olympic Games campaigns
  - Athens 284–7
  - Beijing 287
  - Sydney 336–7, 343
- Organisation for Economic Cooperation and Development (OECD)
  - definition of codes of conduct 160
  - guidelines for multinational enterprises 4, 152, 191, 246–9, 340
  - study (Gordon, K. and Miyake, M.) 160, 161, 163
- organizational legitimacy in fair trade 96–104
  - current strategies 104–10
  - research findings 111–13
  - research methodology 95–6
  - research perspectives 97–8
  - tripartite model 96–7, 98, 104, 112–13
  - legitimizing competences 99–100, 105, 111

- legitimacy typology 101–4, 107–10, 111, 112
- systems of relationships 100–1, 106–7, 111
- outsourcing/vertical disintegration 13–14
- overseas development assistance (ODA) 41, 44
- Oxfam
  - Australia 129–30
  - International 130–1
  - New Zealand 297, 298, 305, 307
  - Play Fair at the Olympics Campaign (PFOC) 284, 285
  - and trade unions 252, 253
- Pacific Agreement on Closer Economic Relations (PACER) 299, 301, 304, 307
- Pacific Civil Society Organizations Forum 301
- Pacific Island Countries Trade Agreement (PICTA) 298, 300–1, 304, 305
- Pacific Islands
  - fair trade 295–6
  - initiatives 296–8
  - vs free trade 300–2
  - health concerns
    - imported foods 304–5
    - kava export ban 302–4
  - migrant workers 296
  - regional trade negotiations 298–300
    - EPA 299–300, 301, 306–7
    - PACER 299, 301, 304, 307
    - PICTA 298, 300–1, 304, 305
  - sustainable development outcomes 306–7
- Pacific Network on Globalisation (PANG) 300, 303, 304, 307
- palm oil industry 251–3
- Papua New Guinea see Pacific Islands
- Pareti, S. 301, 306–7
- Parker, M. 235
- Philippine Fair Trade Forum 67
- Philippines 59–60, 62, 64, 68
- Play Fair campaigns see Olympic Games campaigns
- Pogge, T. 23, 24, 141, 143
- policy incoherence of CSR 169–71
  - disabling environment 173–9
  - operational limits 171–3
  - overcoming 179–83
- political actors, public responsibilities of 140–4
- political institution-building 47
- political re-embedding 368, 374–8
- Polyani, K. 8, 9, 11, 15, 170, 180, 367
- post-war period, regulatory controls in 10–11
- poverty reduction 123
- power relations
  - disabling environment for CRS 176–9
  - labour relations 227–30
  - producer–purchaser 108, 110
- pricing, domestic market, Asia 60–1
- private regulation 160–2, 236–7, 352–4
- privatization 175
- producer networks 49–50
- PROFIT (Promoting Fair Trade in India) 59, 60, 70
- promotion, domestic market, Asia 62
- protectionism 40
- public/private collaboration networks, Asia 70
- public/private responsibilities, liberal perspective 138–9
  - corporations 144–6
  - political actors 140–4
- public/private synergies in new governance 319–23
- Rawls, J. 138, 140, 143
- Raworth, K. 151
- Reebok, China 214–15, 216–18, 220, 354–5
- regulation
  - advanced vs developing countries 10–11
  - disabling environment for CRS 174–5
  - hybrid 181
  - international 130–2, 336–8, 339
  - private 160–2, 236–7, 352–4
  - see also* government procurement; new governance; state regulation; specific countries and sectors
- Richter, J. 176, 178
- Risse, T. and Sikkink, K. 233
- Roberts, J. 260
- Robinson, W.I. 229, 234, 239
- Ross, R. 227
- Ruggie, J. 14, 22–3, 145, 170, 172, 180, 189
- rural producers see agricultural sector; Pacific Islands

- Sami, R. and Morgan, W. 306
- Samoa see Pacific Islands
- Sampson, G. 190
- Scott, C. 331
- self-help 45, 57, 231, 237–40
- Sen, A. 8, 37
- Senituli, L. 303
- services, ethical consumption of 197
- Shell Oil 175–6
- Shop for Change project 61, 62
- Sidwell, M. 129
- small island developing states (SIDS) 43–4
see also Pacific Islands
- Small Organic Farmers' Association (SOFA), Sri Lanka 47
- Smith, A. 122
- social auditing/auditing 162, 173, 249–51
- social governance see capitalism, embedding and disembedding; new governance
- social justice norms 23–4 collaboration/confrontation debate 27–8 role in evaluation of new governance initiatives 24–7
- social movements 4, 16
see also activist campaigns; non-government organizations (NGOs)
- 'soft law' mechanisms 20–2, 316
see also voluntarism
- Solomon Islands see Pacific Islands
- South Korea 62–3, 64, 65
- South–South fair trade 64, 67
- soya production 198
- Sri Lanka 47, 64, 68
- stakeholders
consultation, Australia 161–2 systems of relationships, legitimacy model 100–1, 106–7 see also multi-stakeholder initiatives
- Starbucks 83, 107, 127
- Starkey, K. and Tempest, S. 235
- state regulation
in post-war period 10–11
role and mechanisms of 20–3 weakness of 12–14
see also government procurement
- Steinrücken, T. and Jaenichen, S. 125–6
- strategic management of fair trade see organizational legitimacy in fair trade
- strikes, Vietnam 225–6, 232, 240
- subsidies 40, 41
- supply chains
codes of conduct, multi-stakeholder initiatives and 249–51 and international markets: fairtrade activities 47–50 regulation and homeworkers campaigns 266–7, 268
- Sweatfree Communities/Procurement Ordinance 337–8, 340–3
- Taiwan 62–3, 69, 277–8
Nike 283
- tariffs 40, 41
- Textile, Clothing and Footwear Union of Australia (TCFUA) 264, 265–6, 269, 270
- Thai Gina Form garment factory, Bangkok 284
- Thai Labour Campaign 284, 285, 286–7
- Thoresen, V. 202
- Tonga see Pacific Islands
- trade liberalization see free markets
- trade linkages 42, 50
- trade unions
China
ACFTU 212, 218–19, 351–2, 356–7
foreign trade union involvement 217–18
Reebok 214–15, 216–18, 220, 354–5
strengthening workers' representation 218–20 see also labour standards, China and codes of conduct 249 defensiveness of 175, 176
Indonesia 252–3
see also homeworkers–unions links, Australia
- Vietnam
foreign trade unions involvement 219–20
regulatory systems alternative 231
failings of 227–30
private 236–7
transnational activism and weakness of norm-creation 233–4

- workers' rights
  - outcomes 231–3
  - self-help strategies and alliance 237–40
  - violations 224–7
- transnational governance see new governance
- transnational/multinational corporations (TNCS/MNCs) 3–4
- problems with CSR 280–3
- 'triangular' trade 277–9
- see also specific companies*
- transparency
  - CORE campaign, UK 255
  - garment sector, Australia 161
  - and organizational legitimacy 108, 109, 110
  - of public/private actors 138, 139, 140
  - 'triangular' patterns in global production and trade 277–9
- triangular solidarity 283–4
- tripartite model see under organizational legitimacy in fair trade
- Truss, W. 299
- trust
  - garment sector, Australia 162
  - see also* transparency
- Twose, N. and Rao, T. 225, 226, 232, 240
- United Kingdom (UK) 18, 19
  - Corporate Responsibility Coalition (CORE) 254–5
  - Ethical Consumer Research Association 202
  - ethical consumption 192, 193, 194, 197, 201
  - Ethical Trading Initiative (ETI) 162, 163, 164, 177
  - labour regulation 157, 164, 337
  - Liberation Foods CIC 46, 47
- United Nations (UN)
  - business and human rights impact assessment 173
  - Conference on Trade and Development (UNCTAD) 3–4, 172
  - Development Programme 40
  - Global Compact 3–4, 152, 172, 173, 176–7
  - International Coffee Agreement (ICA) 131
- United States (US)
  - Consumer Federation of America 201
  - Consumer Union 201
  - Fair Trade Federation 15
  - Global Exchange group 127
  - Government Accountability Office (GAO) 321
  - labour regulation 321–2, 337–8, 340–3
  - legislation and law suits 22, 157, 175–6, 182, 317–18
  - and Pacific Islands 305
  - private–public synergies 319–23
  - Workers Rights Consortium (WRC) 251, 341–2, 342
- Utting, P. 153, 163, 170, 175, 212, 260, 262
- and Zammit, A. 177
- Verité 220
- vertical disintegration 13–14
- Vietnam see trade unions, Vietnam
- voluntarism
  - Australia 155–6, 157–8
  - and free market system 121–5
  - legitimate roles of public/private actors 123–5
  - violation by fair trade 126–32
  - and legal mechanisms 181
  - organizational legitimacy in fair trade 97
  - potential of fair trade 125–6
  - 'soft law' mechanisms 20–2, 316
  - value of 122
- Waddock, S. 260
- Walmart 22, 314–15, 322
  - China 218–19
- 'Walmart effect' 214
- Walzer, M. 137, 138
- Weymouth, B. 129–30
- Wilson, T. 131, 132
- Wolf, M. 191
- Women in Business Development Inc. (WIBDI), Samoa 46, 297
- Workers Rights Consortium (WRC), US 251, 341–2, 342
- workers' rights and representation see trade unions
- workers' wages
  - China 212–14, 215
  - Vietnam 224–5, 226, 228, 230

working conditions

- China 211–12
    - garment sector, Australia 158–9
    - safety concerns of consumers 197
    - Vietnam 225–6, 228, 230, 232–3
  - World Bank 38, 40, 41, 57, 187, 300
    - International Center for Settlement of Investment Disputes 175–6
    - limitations of CSR 316–17
  - World Fair Trade Organization (WFTO) 17, 66
- see also* International Fair Trade Association (IFAT)
- World Health Organization (WHO) 303, 304–5
  - World Trade Organization (WTO) 190, 234, 247, 248–9
    - Government Procurement Agreement (GPA) 339
    - Hong Kong Declaration: ‘Aid for Trade’ initiatives 40
    - Pacific Islands 294, 298, 306