

Contents

Notes on Contributors	xix
Foreword	xxiii
Preface	xxv
List of Abbreviations	xxvii

PART I INTRODUCTION

Section I Steps in History

1	The Establishment of the System of International Criminal Justice	5
	Roberto Bellelli
	1. International Crimes as a Threat to International Peace and Security	5
	2. Shared Responsibilities in the Suppression of Crimes of International Concern	6
	A. The Primary Responsibility of States	6
	B. Lessons Learnt throughout History	6
	C. The Responsibility to Protect	7
	D. Protection through International Justice	10
	3. The Foundations of International Criminal Justice	11
	A. Early Experiences: Nuremberg and Tokyo Trials	11
	B. The UN Ad Hoc Tribunals	12
	C. The Hybrid Courts	14
	D. Other International Assistance in Criminal Justice	15
	E. Common Features of UN Lead Efforts in International Criminal Justice	16
	4. The International Criminal Court	17
	A. The Rome Statute's System	17
	B. The Subject Matter Jurisdiction	24
	C. Individual Criminal Responsibility	31
	D. The Trigger Mechanism	39
	E. Distinctive Principles of the Court	42
	F. Cooperation	59
	G. The Review of the Statute	60
	5. Conclusion	62

Section II The Experience of the UN Tribunals and their Completion Strategies

2	The International Criminal Tribunal for the Former Yugoslavia	67
	Fausto Pocar
	1. Introduction	67

2.	Establishment and Landmark Developments	67
	A. Significance of the Tribunal	67
	B. Issues Related to the Statute and the Rules of Procedure and Evidence	68
	C. The Blending of Different Legal Traditions	68
3.	ICTY Core Achievements	69
	A. Continued Challenge to Impunity	69
	B. Fair Trials before the ICTY	69
	C. International Criminal Law Developments through ICTY Jurisprudence	70
	D. The ICTY as Catalyst for Other Criminal Jurisdictions	72
5.	Completion Strategy and Legacy	72
	A. Completion Strategy	73
	B. Upholding Due Process and Avoiding Lengthy Trials	76
	C. Developing Local Capacity	77
	D. Cooperation of States	77
6.	Conclusion	77
3	The International Criminal Tribunal for Rwanda	79
	Erik Møse
	1. Introduction	79
	2. Establishment and Development	79
	A. First Mandate (1995 to 1999)	79
	B. Second Mandate (1999 to 2003)	81
	C. Third Mandate (2003 to 2007)	82
	D. The Final Period (from June 2007)	83
	3. Lessons Learnt	84
	A. Insufficient Number of Judges	85
	B. Separate Prosecutor	86
	C. Amendments of the Rules	86
	D. Interpretation and Translation	87
	E. Other Measures	88
	F. Reduced Trial Time	89
	4. Other Achievements	89
	A. Accountability for Leaders	89
	B. Fair Trial by Impartial Tribunal	90
	C. Creating Jurisprudence	91
	D. Victims and Witnesses	92
	E. Reconciliation	93
	5. Completion Strategy	94
	A. Introduction	94
	B. Completion of Trials	95
	C. Indictees at Large	96
	D. Transfer of Cases	96
	6. Residual Issues	98
	7. Conclusion	99

4	The Special Court for Sierra Leone	101
	Renate Winter
	1. Introduction	101
	A. The Contribution of the Court	101
	B. Background	101
	2. Bilateral Treaty Establishing a ‘Hybrid’ Tribunal	103
	A. Established Pursuant to a Bilateral Treaty	103
	B. A ‘Hybrid’ Tribunal	103
	3. Fundraising and the Management Committee	104
	4. A Streamlined Court for ‘Persons who Bear the Greatest Responsibility’	106
	A. Those Bearing the Greatest Responsibility	106
	B. Notice Pleading and Use of a ‘Case Summary’	107
	5. Legality and Constitutionality of the Special Court	108
	A. Background	108
	B. Competence and Jurisdiction of the Special Court to Decide the Legality of its Creation	108
	C. Constitutionality of the Special Court	109
	6. Amnesty Agreement	110
	A. Background	110
	B. Status of the Lomé Agreement	111
	C. Validity of Article 10 of the Statute	112
	7. Head of State Immunity	112
	8. Witness Protection	113
	9. Legacy	114
	10. Completion Strategy	116
	11. Residual Mechanism	117
	A. The ‘Residual Functions’	117
	B. Ongoing and Ad Hoc Functions	120
	12. Conclusion	121

PART II INVESTIGATION AND PROSECUTION

5	Reflections Based on the ICTY’s Experience	125
	Carla Del Ponte
	1. Introduction	125
	2. The Complexity of International Investigations	126
	3. Engaging Experienced and Qualified Personnel	126
	4. Collecting Evidence	127
	5. The Protection of Threatened Witnesses	127
	6. The Selection of Suspects	128
	7. Cooperation with the ICTY	128
	8. Conclusion	129

6	Challenges Related to Investigation and Prosecution at the International Criminal Court	131
	Fatou Bensouda
	1. Introduction	131
	2. Structure of the Court	131
	3. Principles that Guide the Work of the Office of the Prosecutor	131
	A. Independence	132
	B. Objectivity	133
	C. Complementarity	133
	4. Principal Challenges	134
	A. Investigating Situations of Ongoing Conflict	134
	B. Distance between the Court and the Situations Under Investigation	138
	C. Operating in Diverse Cultural Contexts	139
	D. Unprecedented Legal Challenges	139
	E. Cooperation	140
	F. The Interplay between Investigations/Prosecutions and Conflict Resolution Initiatives	141
	5. Conclusion	142
7	The Early Experience of the Extraordinary Chambers in the Courts of Cambodia	143
	Chea Leang and William Smith
	1. Introduction	143
	2. Overview of the ECCC Goals	143
	3. Current State of Affairs	144
	4. The Cambodian Context	144
	5. Establishment, Structure and Process	145
	A. Establishment	145
	B. Hybrid Structure	145
	C. Civil Law Model with Alterations	146
	D. Chambers	147
	6. Distinctive Features	147
	7. Jurisdiction	147
	8. Case Selection and Charging Policy	148
	A. Responsibility and Challenges	148
	B. Case Selection Policy	149
	C. Charging Policy	150
	9. Character of the Crimes	151
	A. General Features	151
	B. Categories of Crimes	151
	C. Criminal Conduct	152
	10. The Perpetrators	153
	11. Procedure and Evidence	154
	A. Challenges	154
	B. Preliminary Investigations	154
	C. Documentary Evidence	155

12. Early Practices	156
A. Human Resources	156
B. Consensus and Capacity Building Issues	157
13. Victims and Witnesses	158
A. Relevance	158
B. Legal Provisions	158
C. The Witnesses/Experts Support Unit	159
14. Cooperation with States, International Organizations and NGOs	161
A. The Government of Cambodia	161
B. Other States	162
C. International and National Non-Governmental Organizations	163
15. Conclusion	163
A. ECCC's Unique Contribution	163
B. Evaluating Results or Improving Output	163
C. Influence from Other National or International Jurisdictions	164
D. Seeking Outside Experience	164
E. Importance of Transferring Lessons Learned	164

PART III JURISDICTION AND CASE-LAW

Section I Jurisdiction Over International Crimes

8	The History and the Evolution of the Notion of International Crimes	169
	Paola Gaeta
	1. The Emergence of Prohibitions of Conducts Amounting to International Crimes	169
	2. The Notion of International Crimes Proper	171
	3. The Uncertain Status of the Crimes of Aggression, Torture and Terrorism	174
	4. The Relevance of the Notion of International Crimes	175
	A. International Crimes Proper and Treaty-Based Crimes	175
	B. What the International Criminalization of Individuals' Conduct Entails for States in the Area of Criminal Law	176
	C. The Inconsistency of Some Traditional Legal Constructs with the International Criminalization of Individuals' Conduct	179
	5. Conclusion	180
9	Concurrent Jurisdictions between Primacy and Complementarity	181
	Flavia Lattanzi
	1. Introduction	181
	2. Concurrence and Primacy of UN Ad Hoc Tribunals	186
	3. Complementarity in Preparatory Works of the ICC Statute	188
	4. Complementarity in the Preamble to the ICC Statute	189
	5. Conditions of Admissibility	190
	A. Unwillingness	191
	B. Inability	193
	C. Sufficient Gravity of the Crime	196

6.	Admissibility at the Stage of Investigations	197
	A. The Reasonable Basis	197
	B. Preliminary Ruling	198
7.	Inapplicability of Article 18 to Referrals by the Security Council	202
8.	Self-Referrals	204
9.	ICC's Direct Repressive Role	204
	A. Alternative Forms of Justice	204
	B. Proactive Complementarity	207
10.	Conclusion	208
10	Obligation to Cooperate and Duty to Implement	211
	Roberto Bellelli
	1. Responsibility to Protect and Complementarity	211
	2. Implementation	212
	A. A Mandatory Option	212
	B. The Scope of Criminality	215
	3. Cooperation	222
	A. International Cooperation Proper	223
	B. Cooperation at Large	228
	C. Challenges for Cooperation	230
	D. Indirect Cooperation	232
	E. Remedies for Incompliance	236
	4. Conclusion	240
11	Addressing the Impunity Gap through Cooperation	241
	Nicola Piacente
	1. Introduction	241
	2. The Complementary Jurisdiction of the ICC	241
	A. General Features	241
	B. Existing Lacunae Under the Principle of Complementarity	242
	C. Ensuring Complementarity through Universal Jurisdiction and International Cooperation	243
	D. Tribunals' Statutes and Serious Crimes Established Under the Relevant Conventions	244
	E. Jurisdiction of States Parties Under Existing Binding Instruments	245
	3. Jurisdiction of States Parties Under Some International Instruments	255
	4. Cooperation in Corporate Liability	257
	5. Confiscation and Seizure	261
	6. Conclusion	263
Section II Select Practice
12	Genocide Case Law at the ICTY	267
	Susanne Malmström
	1. Introduction	267
	A. The ICTY's Scope of Jurisdiction	267
	B. Outcome of Indictments	268

2.	Definition of the Crime of Genocide	271
	A. Actus Reus	271
	B. Mens Rea	277
3.	Conclusion	283
13	Crimes Against Humanity in the Former Yugoslavia	285
	B. Don Taylor III
	1. Introduction	285
	2. Crimes Against Humanity (Article 5 ICTYSt)	287
	A. Jurisdictional Prerequisite: Armed Conflict	287
	B. General Elements	288
	3. Conclusion	294
14	War Crimes at the ICTY: Jurisdictional and Substantive Issues	295
	Guido Acquaviva
	1. Introductory Remarks	295
	2. War Crimes in Historical Perspective	295
	3. War Crimes before the ICTY	296
	4. Armed Conflicts	297
	5. Jokić and Strugar : The Destruction of Cultural Property	302
	6. Galić : Attack Against Civilians and Terrorization of the Civilian Population	303
	A. Introductory Notes	303
	B. Jurisdictional Issues	305
	C. How to Prove the Crime of Terror	308
	7. Conclusion	310
15	Gender-Based Violence Offences and Crimes Against Children at the SCSL	311
	Renate Winter and Stephen Kostas
	1. Introduction	311
	2. Gender-Based Violence	313
	A. Provisions of the Statute and Rules that Address Gender-Based Violence	313
	B. Gender-Based Violence in the Cases of the Special Court	314
	3. Offences Involving Children	320
	A. Provisions of the Statute and Rules Regarding Juvenile Justice and Child Soldiers	320
	B. Case Law on Child Soldiers	322
	4. Conclusion	328
16	The War Crimes Chamber in the Court of Bosnia and Herzegovina	329
	Melika Murtezić
	1. Introduction	329
	2. Application of Substantive Law	330
	A. General Features	330
	B. The Principles of Legality and of Favor Rei	332
	C. Case Law	335

3. Procedural Connections with the ICTY	338
A. Acceptance of Facts Established by the ICTY	338
B. Use of Evidence Collected at ICTY	340
4. The Right of the Accused to Present his Own Defence	341
5. Cases when the Accused Refuses to Appear	343
6. Protection of Witnesses	346
7. Conclusion	349

PART IV THE ICC AND ITS FUTURE

Section I The Review Conference

17 The Object of Review Mechanisms: Statutes' Provisions, Elements of Crimes and Rules of Procedure and Evidence Otto Triffterer	355
1. Introduction: Scope, Present Importance and Starting Positions	355
2. Amendments Barred Under International Criminal Law	358
A. Penal Provisions as an Inherent Part of the Law of Nations	358
B. Sources	358
C. Addressees	359
D. Scope and Notion of Responsibility	360
E. Irrelevance of Official Capacity and the List of Crimes	362
3. Modalities for Reviewing and Objects of the Review Conferences	365
A. Possible Additional Scope of the Review Conference	365
B. Optional and Obligatory Issues to be Considered. Articles 5(2) and 124	366
C. The 'Settlement of Disputes' Under Article 119	367
D. Article 10 Open Doors to Developments of International Law	367
E. The (Limited) Law-Making Power of the Court	367
4. Common Guidelines on How to Proceed, and Examples Promising to be Effective	368
A. Reviewing the Relevant Documents and Proposing Amendments	368
B. Importance of the Final Act of the 1998 Rome Conference	368
C. The Ius Puniendi of the International Community and Enforcement Mechanisms	370
D. Superior Responsibility: An Extension of Article 25 or a Crime Sui Generis?	371
E. 'Collateral Damage' and 'Friendly Fire' under Article 8(2)(b)(iv)	372
F. Employing Weapons Listed in an Annex to the Statute. Article 8(2)(b)(xx)	375
G. Using Certain Protected Persons as Shields. Article 8(2)(b)(xxiii)	376
H. Supporting Impunity by Proposing Elements to Narrow the Definitions of Crimes?	376
I. Rules to be Amended?	377
5. Conclusion	380
A. Unpredictable Developments as a Challenge to the Court	380
B. International Criminal Law and Enforcement of Human Rights	381

18	Universality: Momentum and Consensus for the ICC	383
	Jürg Lindenmann
	1. The Road from the Rome Statute	383
	2. A Representative Court	384
	3. Toward a Universally Accepted Institution	384
	4. The Future of the Court: Conclusions	385
19	The Law of the Statute and its Practice Under Review	387
	Roberto Bellelli
	1. The Scope of the Review Conference	387
	A. The Preparatory Process	387
	B. The Integrity of the Rome Statute	391
	C. Transparency and Inclusiveness of the Process	393
	D. Nature of and Competence for Amendments	393
	2. Developments Since 1998	399
	A. Law and Practice	399
	B. Detection or Stocktaking	400
	3. The Scope for Amendments	401
	A. Issues Under Review	401
	B. The Weapons Provision	401
	C. The Opt-Out Clause	405
	D. Treaty Crimes	407
	E. Sentence Enforcement	409
	F. The Object of Other Possible Proposals	410
	4. Age Limit and Term of Office for Elected Officials (Article 36(3))	410
	A. Features and Interpretation of the Regime	411
	B. The ICC Practice	412
	C. Consequences of the Regime	413
	D. Towards an Age Limit	414
	5. Lists of Candidates (Article 36(3) and (5)) and the Composition of Divisions and Chambers (Article 39(2), (3)(b) and (4))	415
	A. Qualifications of Judges	415
	B. Issues and Criteria in the Composition of Divisions	416
	C. The Recent Practice	420
	D. Proposed Solutions	421
	6. Future Elections of Judges (Article 36(9))	424
	7. Term of Office for Judges and Composition of the Chambers (Article 36(10))	426
	A. The Legal Framework	426
	B. The Practice at the Court	426
	C. Management Powers of the Presidency	426
	D. Composition of the Court	428
	E. Meaning of 'Continuation in Office'	429
	8. Election of the Deputy Registrar (Article 43(4))	430
	A. The Deputies' Role Under the Statute	430
	B. The Choice of Deputies	431

9.	Trials In Absentia (Article 63)	433
	A. Impossible Trials	433
	B. International Criminal Procedure	434
	C. Lessons Learned at the Ad Hoc International Tribunals	435
	D. Practice and Issues at the ICC	436
	E. Trials in Absentia Under Human Rights Law	437
	F. The Precedent of the Special Tribunal for Lebanon	442
	G. Contempt Cases in Absentia at the ICTY	443
	H. The Interests of Justice at the ICC	443
	I. Implications for the ICC	447
10.	Functions and Powers of the Trial Chamber. Subpoena Powers (Article 64)	448
	A. Only Willing Witnesses Appear at the ICC	448
	B. National Legislation and Practice	448
	C. International Practice	449
11.	Victims' Participation (Article 68)	451
12.	Written Testimony (Article 69(2))	453
	A. Implications of Witness Personal Appearance	453
	B. The Practice at ICTY	454
	C. The Limits of the ICC Legal Framework	455
	D. Enhancing the Preservation of Deposition	455
13.	From the PrepCom to the Subsidiary Bodies of the ASP (Article 112(2)(a))	456
14.	Review of the Statute after the First Review Conference (Article 123)	457
15.	Conclusion	458
20	Appearance of Witnesses and Unavailability of Subpoena Powers for the Court Göran Sluiter	459
	1. Introduction	459
	2. Dimensions of Subpoena Powers in International Criminal Justice	460
	3. The ICC Legislative History	461
	4. Is there a Right for Witnesses Not to Appear before the Court?	466
	5. Fairness and Proper Administration of Justice	468
	6. Conclusion and Recommendations	471
21	Implementing International Humanitarian Law through the Rome Statute Anne-Marie La Rosa and Gabriel Chavez Tafur	473
	1. Introduction	473
	2. Incorporating Serious Violations of IHL into Domestic Legislation	474
	3. Analysis of Article 8 of the Rome Statute	479
	A. Lacunae for International Armed Conflicts	480
	B. Lacunae for Non-International Armed Conflicts	481
	C. Limitations	482
	4. An Integrated Approach to Implementation of IHL	483
	5. The Role of the ICC and its First Review Conference	485
	6. Conclusion	487

22	The ‘Weapons Provisions’ and its Annex: The Belgian Proposals Roger S. Clark	489
	1. Introduction	489
	2. First Belgian Proposal, Addressing the ‘Annex to Article 8 paragraph 2, b) xx of the Rome Statute’	491
	3. Second Belgian Proposal: Draft Amendments to the Rome Statute	494
	4. Conclusion	495

Section II The Crime of Aggression

23	State Responsibility for Acts of Aggression Under the United Nations Charter: A Review of Cases Edoardo Greppi	499
	1. Aggression and Collective Security	499
	A. General Features	499
	B. Historical Bases for a Definition	500
	C. The 1974 General Assembly Definition of Aggression	502
	2. The Role of the Security Council	504
	3. A Review of Cases. The Security Council	507
	A. Southern Rhodesia	507
	B. South Africa	508
	C. Benin	510
	D. Tunisia	510
	E. Falkland Islands	510
	F. Iraq	510
	4. A Review of Cases. The General Assembly	511
	A. Korea	511
	B. Namibia	511
	C. South Africa	512
	D. The Middle East	512
	E. Bosnia and Herzegovina	513
	F. Afghanistan	514
	5. A Review of Cases. The International Court of Justice	514
	A. The Advisory Opinion on Certain Expenses of the United Nations	514
	B. The Contentious Case of the US Diplomatic and Consular Staff in Tehran	514
	C. The Provisional Measures in the Cases Concerning the Frontier Dispute (Burkina Faso/Mali) and the Land Maritime Boundary (Cameroon/Nigeria)	515
	D. Legal Disputes Concerning the Use of Force or Aggression (Nicaragua and Congo Cases)	515
	6. Conclusion	517
24	Individual Responsibility for the Crime of Aggression Muhammad Aziz Shukri	519
	1. Introduction	519

2.	Individual Criminal Responsibility for Aggression Prior to the Rome Statute	521
	A. The Rules of Traditional International Law	522
	B. The Lesson of World War I	523
	C. The Practice of Trials Following World War II	526
3.	Individual Criminal Responsibility for Aggression Under the Rome Statute	531
	A. States in Favour of the ICC Jurisdiction Over the Crime of Aggression	533
	B. States with Reservations on the ICC Jurisdiction Over the Crime of Aggression	534
	C. Assessing the Different Positions of States	535
4.	The Rome Compromise on the Crime of Aggression	537
5.	Elements for a Regime	539
6.	The Efforts of the Preparatory Commission	539
7.	Searching for a Viable Option	541
8.	Conclusion	543
25	National Legislation on Individual Responsibility for Conduct Amounting to Aggression	547
	Astrid Reisinger Coracini
	1. Preliminary Considerations	547
	A. Indirect Enforcement of Crimes Under International Law and the Principle of Complementarity	547
	B. Method of Research	549
	2. Norms Implementing the Crime of Aggression Under International Law	551
	A. Leadership Element	553
	B. The Individual's Conduct	557
	C. Act of Aggression by a State	561
	D. Jurisdiction of Domestic Courts to Enforce the Crime of Aggression	564
	3. Norms Criminalizing Conduct, which Includes Elements of the Crime of Aggression	566
	A. Preparation of a War of Aggression	567
	B. Incitement to a War of Aggression and Propaganda of War	569
	C. Waging a War, Conspiracy and Other Treasonable Offences	570
	D. Hostile Acts	573
	4. Conclusion	576
26	The Crime of Aggression before the First Review of the ICC Statute	579
	Claus Kreß
	1. Introduction	579
	2. Building a Definition and a Procedure	582
	3. The Individual Responsibility	582
	4. The Act of Aggression	583
	5. The Role of the Security Council	585
	6. Conclusion	587
27	The Crime of Aggression and Complementarity	591
	Pål Wrangé
	1. Introduction	591

2. Complementarity	591
3. Scenario I: The ICC is Ready to Exercise Jurisdiction, but National Authorities are Seized of the Case	593
A. Conditions of Scenario I	593
B. Issues before National Jurisdictions	593
4. Scenario II: The ICC Cannot Exercise Jurisdiction In Casu	598
5. Scenario III: There is No Provision on the Crime of Aggression	604
6. Conclusion	605
28 A Pragmatic Approach to the Crime of Aggression	609
David Scheffer
1. Introduction	609
2. New Article 8 bis	610
3. Article 15 bis : Language Common to Both Options	611
A. Option I: Judicial Green Light	612
B. Option II: Soft Green Light	617
4. Conclusion	617
29 Against the Odds: The Results of the Special Working Group on the Crime of Aggression	621
Stefan Barriga
1. Introduction	621
2. The Princeton Process on the Crime of Aggression	621
A. Issues Remaining Open for Future Discussion	623
B. Factors Contributing to the Success of the Princeton Process	623
3. The Outcome of the SWGCA: A Watershed in the Negotiations on Aggression	625
A. The Definition of the Individual's Crime of Aggression	626
B. The Definition of the State 'Act' of Aggression	629
C. The Conditions for the Exercise of Jurisdiction: The Role of the Security Council	632
D. Entry into Force Procedures for the Amendment on Aggression	635
4. The Remaining Challenge: Jurisdiction Over Dissenting States	637
5. Conclusion	640
Index	645