

Contents

Introduction	Realizing the Human Experience: Vulnerability and Human Suffering	1
1	International Relations and Modern Institutional Design: Locating the Isolated Individual	19
	Introduction	19
	Enlightenment Political Philosophy	23
	International Political Thought	32
	Modern International Political Theory	40
	Conclusion	49
2	The Morality of Natural Law and International Relations: Establishing a Tradition of Influence	51
	Introduction	51
	A Natural Law History	52
	Thick and Thin Morality	61
	Thick and Thin Morality: The (Limited) Value of the New Natural Lawyers	74
3	Thomas Aquinas and the Morality of Natural Law	85
	Introduction	85
	On the Individual	86
	On Natural Law	92
	The Salamanca Theologians	101
4	A Relational Account of ‘the Political’ Agency, Community and Loving Reasonableness	111
	Introduction	111
	Natural Law Agency	113
	Relational Politics: Friendship, Love and Charity	120
	A Natural Law Community	127

5	The Morality of Natural Law and International Politics: Unbounded Moral Communities and Collective Moral Agency	137
	Introduction	137
	‘The International’	139
	A Casuistry of Well-being	149
	Establishing ‘the Personal’	162
	Epilogue	179
	Bibliography	183
	Index	201