

Index

- Abercrombie, Sir Patrick, Greater London Plan (1946) 9, 38–9, 42, 45–7, 56
- abrupt modernisation, form of social/ist-cum-scientific administration 105
- accountability, public service organisations 270–71
- Adams, Robert, Adelphi building 11–12
- administrative controls, over-centralising, creativity and flexible local responses stifled 263
- affordable housing 4
- problem of for key workers in service sectors 70–71
 - provision of 170, 176
 - reasons why proportion varied within one authority 179
 - types of 177–8
- Africa 10
- population 134–6
- Africans and African Caribbeans, head out across London for cheaper housing 147
- Agenda 21 of UN, adopted term ‘sustainable development’ 72
- Alexandra Palace 23
- Allen, J. 152, 154
- Al-Naib, S. 246–7
- Amin, A. 195–6, 283
- Amsterdam and Rotterdam, harbours and canals developed and constructed as public works 11
- ‘anti-statism’, right and left of politics, critique of social engineering in New East End 55
- architecture, designs by Zaha Hadid, AHMM, Bernard Tschumi and Colin Fournier 286
- armaments, long-term development in London 20
- Armitt, Judith, Gateway will be internationally attractive to global investors 86
- Asia 10
- Asian groups, cluster in particular boroughs in outer London 146
- Asian other, managers and professionals (SEGs 1–4) 136
- asylum-seekers or Kosovans in bedsit-land, come to represent symbols of cultural difference 217
- Auge, M. 202–3, 205, 244
- non-place 203, 257
- Avendano, S. 239, 251, 256–7
- ‘Aviopolis’ 249, 253
- Back, L. 151, 219
- racism in suburban housing estates in Birmingham 152
- ‘balanced community’ 179
- Baltimore’s Inner harbour 13
- Bangladeshis 137, 139
- middle-class concentrated in small numbers of boroughs especially Redbridge 139–40
 - smallest share of employers and managers 134–6
- Barber, Peter, low-rise medium-density housing development 48–9
- Barcelona 15
- Moll de la Fusta 13
- Barker
- housing review 59–61
 - and brownfield land within perimeter of M25 64
- Barker, Kate, review of planning system (2006) 291
- Barker, Paul, on the docks 43
- Barker report 56
- Barking and Dagenham
- attracted medium and heavy engineering firms 29
- Black African middle classes
- over-represented 137
- British National Party election gains 302
- clusters of traditional white working-class 147

- ethnic minority population rose from 9, 778 (1991) to 24, 277 (2001) 133–4
- issues about satisfaction of area 161
- people who moved to Eastside 154–5
- percentage change 1981–2001 130–31
- Barking Reach to Brightlingsea, migration seen as end of line for English working class 298–9
- Barking Riverside, Bellway Homes and English Partnership, Maxwan (Dutch planners) and density 48–9
- Barnet, Canon Samuel, demolition (1876) of courts and alleys 34
- Barnett, Samuel and Henrietta, working classes of Whitechapel and 36
- Barratt, Persimmon, re-directed most of their work to Dubai and Shanghai 289
- Bauman, Z. ‘mixophobia’ reaction to diversity and strangeness of cities 152, 161, 164
- Beadle brothers, coal wharves to supply fledgling engineering industry 22
- Beckton Gasworks employed 10,000 people 19
largest gas plant in the world 24
Williams and Son 28–9
- Becontree estate, east of Barking, built between 1919 and 1935 36, 48–9
- bedsit-land or mini-Bosnia, beset by array of structural disadvantages 222
- bedsit-land switch to mini-Bosnia, how racisms become normalised in space 217
- Being Here*, encouraged expressions of sense of place in Southend 223
- Bennett, J. 53, 152, 165, 169, 263n7 radical redefinition of culture part of revised mode of state intervention 95
- Bernstock, Penny, on housing 169–87
- Berzins, Karina 189–207, 300
- ‘bicameralism’ or ‘separation of powers’ 304
- Billboard Project (2006) 93
- Biota Centre, City East solution and 311
- Black African middle classes, over-represented in some East London boroughs 137
- Black groups, tend to be more evenly spread across and within boroughs 146–7
- Black and Minority Ethnic see BME
- Blackwall Shipyard (1588), taken over by East India Company 20
- Blake, Andrew 227–38
- Blokland, T. 203–4
- Bluewater, creaming off luxury trade at environmental cost of car travel 291
- BME
Black groups including Black Caribbean and Black African 137 differentiate between Commonwealth and post-Commonwealth migration 142 homeowners look to Newham for affordable family-size dwellings 145 middle-class ‘enclave’ surrounding best schools in multicultural East London 145 no longer concentrated in inner London 126, 133, 136 social class important source of differentiation within East London population 144 suburbanisation, desire to seek physical distance from co-ethnics of lower standing 140, 143
- Board of Ordnance’s Powderhouse, moved to remote site on Greenwich marsh (1694) 20
- Bolantanski, Luc and Eve Chiapello new spirit of capitalism 107–8 new spirit of capitalism in which art replaces religion 120–21
- Booth, Charles, Map Descriptive of London Poverty (1888–89) 32–3, 42
- ‘borrowing’ processes, threefold accumulation necessary for sustainability 76
- Boundary Road estate 34–5
- Bourdieu, P. habitus 152, 216
state bureaucracies great producers of social problems 221
- Bragg, Billy 116–17
- Bremer, Paul (head of Coalition Provisional Authority) 67

- Brent, 53 per cent of working population non-white 137
- British Asians and Blacks, Cockney vernacular, rap attack on adult authority 299
- British National Party, 2006 local government elections in Barking and Dagenham 63, 302, 307
- British suburbanisation, no longer white class seeking to separate from lower class whites 144
- British town planning, post-war development of 4
- Brown, Chris (property developer) 90–91
- brownfield sites, treatment of, do not appear on heritage maps 110, 115, 169
- Brown, George, culture can be traced to his National Plan 85
- Brown, Gordon (Chancellor of Exchequer), continuation of fuel duty escalator (1998) 231
- Brown, Gordon (PM 27th June 2007), appointed Hazel Blears as minister for Communities and Local Government 237
- Brundtland Report (1987), used sustainability with respect to 'sustainable development' 72
- Brunner Mond, chemical works in West Silvertown (1893) to manufacture caustic soda 28
- Buckinghamshire, fought off threat of urbanisation (1960), we got Milton Keynes 284
- 'Building Communities Through Culture and Sport'. www.wherewelive.org.uk 90
- Burrows, R., index of neighbourhood dissatisfaction 156
- Burt, Boulton and Haywood, largest tar distillers in the world by (1876) 25
- business community, actions of assumed to be pivotal to renaissance of cities 222
- Butler, T. 125–48, 152, 154, 195, 252 analysis of 2001 Census 297
- CABE
New Things Happen, example of nominalisation 85, 95, 116
- rational proposals about ways of designing the built environment 119
- report at behest of Yvette Cooper commissioned by Thames Gateway Strategic Partnership 115–18
- Calcutt, A. 83–97, 303
- Callender's Cable & Construction Co., services of Samuel Canning 27
- Callender's Cables 25 move to Erith, cheaper form of insulation for electric cables 27
- Canary Wharf
catering for financial services industry and high-value apartments 43, 55, 58
'office city' emerged to change London skyline and geography of employment 228, 310
- Canning, Samuel, chief engineer of Telegraph Construction Co. 27
- Canvey Island floods (1953), conspicuous by absence from CABE report 116–17
- capital is oxymoronic ontology key to sustainability for 72 social division to mobilise social labour behind priorities of accumulation 70
- capitalism
new spirit or business as usual 120–22 not static 75
- capitalist market ethical system ranking communities by what it values not what they value 80 sustains itself through life-/renewal-cycles 75
- Caribbean, population 134–6
- Carr, R. 250, 252
- Castell, Manuel, city as site of social reproduction and collective consumption 59
- CEN, integrated into the Safer and Stronger Communities Fund 265–6
- Census 2001, white ethnic identifiers made 97 per cent of population in Essex and Kent 150, 153
- centrality of community participation 263–5

- CFTTGNK 90, 93
 preface by Richard Caborn and Yvette Cooper 90
- Champion, T. 150, 162
 'flight from the city' 152
- 'change for change's sake', 'sustainability' of upper-level systems 75–6
- Channel Tunnel Rail Link, services from Kent running on tracks in 2007 285
- Chas and Dave, sound like end of pier concert party they always were 299
- Chatterton, P. 189–90, 193, 205
- Children's Fund services, planning, delivery and assessment of 270
- China, 90 per cent of industrial economy in coastal zones 10, 65
- Chinese, other Asians and Others have largest share of professionals among non-whites 134–6
- Church, A. 149, 152
- circular 6/98, stressed need for local flexibility in defining affordable housing 177
- Citigroup, Clifford Chance, Barclays and HSBC, located on CWG estate recently 58
- citizens' jury 308–9
- City Challenge and Single Regeneration Budget Fund, reviews to find out 'what works' 263
- city and port, interchange between should be part of regional and long-term strategy 15
- City, West End and Docklands, future growth depends on more commuting from Kent and Essex 285
- civic engagement, regenerating with Thames Gateway plan 4
- civil engineering 3
- Clapson, M. 150–52
- Clarke, Charles (Chancellor of Exchequer), 'escalator' on fuel duty 231
- class, more precursor for suburbanisation than ethnicity 144
- 'class evasion', Indians and Pakistanis distance themselves from co-ethnics of lower social class 138
- coal, transformation of London and 20–21
- Cockney credentials, no longer cultural resource they used to be 300
- 'Cockney Cyberia' 56, 110, 299
- Cohen, P. 99–122, 298, 300
- 'urban uncanny' become confused 217–18
- Coles Child, largest manufacturer of coke 22
- Commission for Architecture and the Built Environment see CABE
- communication networks 95
- communities interconnection, acquisitive and competitive 79 local 'empowerment and increased participation' 277 sustainability of one corresponds to some others 'disposability' 81
- communities in TV drama, motif of 'the local' 190
- community, whose? 91–5
- community empowerment, key component in how neighbourhoods should be renewed 264–5
- Community Empowerment Network Fund (CEN), LSP meetings and 265
- Community Empowerment Networks, funds from LSPs 264
- Community Empowerment Networks scheme 264
- 'community gain' variability in 82 agreements 184 what other types of were specified in agreements 171
- community participation difficult to achieve particularly in disadvantaged area 261 effect of in practice 263–4 increasing participation of those who are already active 267
- Sure Start and the Children's Fund 264
- those with disabilities and black and minority ethnic communities not included 266–7
- vary even within small geographical areas 262
- voluntary activity and coming together to enjoy oneself 276
- 'community' of producers, sustainability of depends on continuous release and renewal cycles 75

- ‘community’ regionalism and globalisations, not issues to be ducked 250
- competitiveness, part of sustainable community, based on enhancing London as financial centre 78
- Conservative administrations of 1980s and early 1990s, decline of London docks and 228
- Conservatives (1980s), identified a ‘Thames Corridor’ suitable for redevelopment 231
- container ports, use of Thames upriver of the estuary faded and docks closed 1980s 228
- continental port-cities, specialisation and autonomous development of port as independent entity 12
- convertors 308–9
- Cooke, William, electric cable across the Thames 25
- Cory & Son, built batteries of hydraulic cranes 22
- Costello, J. 158–9
- ‘cottages’ and ‘barracks’, perceptions of residents of accommodation 35
- County of London Plan (1943) 38, 56
- Cowlard, K. 247, 250
- Crayford, gun production 27–8
- ‘creative class’, people employed in local/global cultural services 120
- creative destruction 76, 105
- ‘creative industries, confined to West End, Camden and West Side of Greater
 London 87
- Creative London, people together in hubs, creative networks 87, 92
- crime, ‘logic of neighbourhoods and response to crime 275
- Crime and Disorder Reduction Partnerships 264
- Crossrail 285
 (funding not yet agreed) 295 re-directed into better network mesh of routes linking suburbs, using trains, trams and buses 289
- Crossrail or Docklands Light Railway
 (DLR) extensions fixed 62, 228
- Crowley’s iron manufacturers, moved to Greenwich (1704) 20
- Croydon
 BME population grew from 55, 114 to 98, 743 134 higher managerial and professional workers 130
- Cultural Framework and Toolkit for Thames Gateway see CFTTGKN
- cultural policy, more effective within middle-class circles than across wider population 94
- Cultural and Sustainable Communities Joint Agreement, steering group and task group 91–2
- cultural turn, urban regeneration and 99
- Cultural Value and the Crisis of Legitimacy*, Demos pamphlet 91
- culture 4, 84–6, 88 can sell the Gateway to international investors 89
 as community 89–91
 embedding into regeneration, way of life for urban policy professionals 84 as leverage 88–9 mobilisation of as means to transform once prosperous area is well-established in urban policy 220 once aligned to ‘socialism’, now juxtaposed to the market 89
- ‘culture change’, prescriptions of how to do it vague 305
- Culture and Sustainable Communities Joint Agreement 90
- Dagenham, construction of largest housing estate in the world (1920s) 127, 303
- Dagenham Dock Co., purchase of land by Williams & Son for nascent dock scheme (1887) 29
- Darling, Alistair (transport secretary), £5.5bn package of transport improvements (2003) 232
- Darwinian images of evolution, survival of the fittest 76
- Day, P. 270–71
- DCLG 86, 88–90, 169, 172
 Interim Thames Gateway Plan (2006) 53
- De Angelis, M., contradictions within concept of sustainability 67–82, 296 decline avoidance, sustainability and 73–4

- de-industrialisation
 Fords in Dagenham 55 role in reproducing dual urban economy in post industrial setting 293 under-utilisation of potential economic 'assets' 294 unequal impact of 4
- democratic deficit 4, 119, 304, 306
- Dench, G. 55, 151, 162, 263n6
New East End, The 301
- Department for Communities and Local Government see DCLG
- de-personalisation, regenspiel and 103–4
- Deputy Prime Minister, Sustainable Communities Plan 56
- developing countries, urbanisation will take place in coast and delta areas 10
- disposable communities 79–81
- Ditchburn and Mare (shipbuilders 1837), coal instrumental in establishment of 22
- 'diversity of asset', weak response because it avoids issue of moral responsibility 221
- DLR station, opened during period of research for London City Airport 254–5
- dock*, innovative invention which enabled mass ship-handling 12
- Docklands history 4, 303 should be transformed into a public feature for people of Thames Gateway region 15
 Thames Gateway and 1–2
- Docklands development (1980s)
 all valuable assets end in private hands 287
 'trickle down effect' 43
- Dun, Ros, director of Thames Gateway Strategy Division of DCLG 86
- Dutch port-cities 9 important centres of world trade in seventeenth century 11
- 'dynamic' and 'elastic types of water management 13–14
- dynamics of change; background to growth numbers 58 economic production and London 58–9 household demographics 59–60 social reproduction 59
- EastEnders*, no longer carries the same street cred 300
- Eastern Counties Railway, linking London to Norwich (1830s) 21
- East India Company 11
- East India Docks 18, 21
- East London 303
 2001 Census 125 apartments or houses 35 BME population increasing and white population declining 134 city form and building type 47–50 cultural diversity sold it to International Olympics Committee 89 dispersal of BME population also effect of gentrification of parts of East End 144
 docklands 1980s and 1990s: from clearance to Infill 42–5 effect of rapid residential change, buy-to-let housing and 142–3 employment was focused on shipping, the docks and ancillary services 228 ethnic change in 133–7 experiencing demographic transition which sets it apart from rest of London 146
 extended to River Lea, three miles from the City 32 four charges linked into single indictment 301–2 from Howard to 'the vertical garden city' 38–42
 garden suburbs 36–8 gentrification, ethnic change and education in 125 gone 'downhill' as result of increased crime and anti-social behaviour 164 host to complex pattern of social mobility 147
 'improvement 32–4
 inner remains relatively deprived 297 Jewish immigrants from Eastern Europe 1880s 298
 in late nineteenth century 32

- 'mixophobia' reaction to city based
 - upon social disorder and physical dirt 164
- new matrix of class and ethnic positions sharper than in any other city region 126
- provenance that pre-dates the advent of the 'creative industry' 298
- questions about direction of development 46
- remains more deprived than other sub regions of London despite changes 132–3
- satisfaction with area 160
- sensitivity of race relations in 165
- social change in 129–33
- suburbanisation of BME population 140
- term East End was where London housed poor who worked in sweated and other trades 126, 129
- Thames Gateway 45–6
- East London and developing Thames Gateway, historic transport problem 227
- 'East London Green Grid' 47
- East London River Crossing road bridge see (ELRC)
- East London study area 128–9
- Eastside
 - dissatisfaction with infrastructure, local shopping and leisure facilities 163
 - findings emphasise notion Essex Thames Gateway has problem of poor image 165
 - located in Thurrock Thames Gateway Development Corporation area in South Essex 150, 152
 - many residents commute to London for work 153, 158–9
 - middle classes in have limited cultural capital in Bourdieu terms 154
 - neighbourhood satisfaction 162–5
 - new residents had moved eastwards along Thames Gateway 164
 - nine out of ten Eastsiders in survey have moved from east London 154–5
 - only partially satisfactory since it contained too many 'rough' people 165
 - residents not amongst most disadvantaged people with least choice in London housing 156
 - some residents expressed disquiet about rough Londoners moving to Eastside 163
- 'Eastside' project 149
- 'East Thames Corridor', then 'Thames Gateway' 83
- 'economic success' of finance and service industry, new servant classes 78
- Economist, The* 247
- e-democracy, experiment in 308
- education 3, 71, 78–9
 - access to is important motivation for dispersal from East London boroughs 145
 - awareness in promoting inter-generational upward mobility 133
 - continuing makes labour 'trained' for dissipation and reorganisation 75
 - critical in sorting perceptions of attainment opportunities, OFSTED and 147
 - role of in East London 125
 - satisfaction with Primary schools 145
- Edwards, M. 283–92, 288
 - sees opportunities and risks in development of Thames Gateway 303
- Eesteren, Cornelis van, Amsterdam Extension Plan (1934) 9
- efficiency, claims based on conditions of ceteris paribus 77
- Egan Review, need for planners to develop better communication skills 109
- ELRC 228–9, 233–4
- proposals and fears about areas of housing in Plumstead in South-East London 229
- ELRC/Oxleas Wood decision, many road schemes dropped and national roads programme reduced 230–31
- 'empowerment', through persuasion and getting decisions compatible with wishes of community 268
- Enderby's, coal tar in insulated rope, approached by William Cooke 25
- engineers, great came to London in nineteenth century 30

- England, satisfaction with area 160
- English Heritage 156
- English Partnerships and Housing Corporation, merger into Communities England (2007) 60
- Erith 25
- Chicago engineering firm Fraser & Chalmers Ltd (1891) 24
- Cory played role in industrial development of 22
- Escher, Lionel
- on slum clearance 34
- on Thames Gateway 46
- Estuary English, cockney guttural softened to Essex burr 299–300
- 'ethclass', upperly mobile ethnical minority groups 140, 142, 145
- ethnic gentrification 4
- ethnicities, distinguishing between 137–40
- ethnic minority groups, likely to gravitate into outer London boroughs, upward mobility 140
- Europe and Americas, Siemens laid over 12,000 miles of cable, 1873 submarine cable to US 26
- Evans, Robin, 'Rookeries and Model Dwellings' 32–3
- Evening Standard* (31 May 2006) 241
- ExCel Centre 204, 241, 311
- Explosive Supply Department, sought Brunner Mond to purify TNT 28
- Farrell, Terry 88, 115
- call for mega nature reserve 'lakes district of London' 198
- stands for urban renaissance in the inner Gateway 114
- 'fear of crime' 274–5
- resilience to intervention because poorly understood 276
- Federal State of Victoria (Australia 1999), change in public transport policy 256
- 'fictitious capital', investments in hope of capturing some imagined future profit 288
- flesh and stone: between lego builders and community heroes 54
- new compass for contemporary urbanism 54–7
- urban renaissance 57–8
- Flint, Caroline 83–4
- Fordism
- decline of and rise of global knowledge economy 2
- emphasis on manufacturing 70
- Ford's at Dagenham
- downsizing of 293
- employed 15,000 people around (1900s) 19, 29–30
- Foster, J. 246, 252
- Foucault, M. 257–8
- Frost, M. 149, 152
- fuel protests, farmers and truck drivers protested about price of petrol (2000) 232
- Fukuyama, F. 'end of history' 75
- Fuller, G. 239, 244, 249, 253, 257
- funding institutions, priority given to meeting requirements is about self-preservation 273
- Gambling Act (2005), casino licensing competition and 193
- Garden City movement 36
- Gas Light & Coke Company, expensive and inefficient by 1860s 24
- General Electric Co, diversified into machinery for iron and steel industry 24
- gentrification and residualisation, impact on those of middle incomes 151–2
- Germany
- 2005 funds began moving into social housing causing severe alarm 288
- Bauhaus and Werkbund's concerns over building 57
- GLA 172, 178, 192
- architects and urban planners centred on City East initiative 310
- commission to establish boundaries of the capital city 297
- equal opportunities agenda 'rights-based' approach 269
- research by 87
- Glancey, Jonathan
- Gateway as colonisation of the cockney Siberia 56
- London: Bread and Circuses* dedicated to work of Frank Pick 63–4

- Glass Elliott
 Atlantic cable begun (1856) and completed (1858) 25 merged with Gutta Percha Co to form Telegraph Construction and maintenance Co. 26
- GLC, abolished by Mrs. Thatcher (1986) 127
- GLC boroughs 128
- globalisation 4, 10, 65, 78 balance between and local communities 10 irresistible, technological-driven force against which local is immovable object 302
- global warming impact on London's flood protection systems 1 increased awareness of under designation "climate change" 233
- Godalming (1881, Siemens built first commercial generating station for electricity in homes 26
- Goldfinger, Ernö, Balfron Tower 39–41
- 'governance', neoliberal version of what Foucault called 'governmentality' 68
- government White Paper could make it more difficult for plans to gain effective scrutiny 291 Infrastructure Planning Commission and 290 location of services (especially retailing) are rather fluid in 291
- government White Paper on planning reform, aim to replace with system of managed consensus 305
- Graham, S.
 disintegration used as new forms of integration 258
 dual city argument 100–101
 'glocalisation' 239, 256 splintering Urbanism 241, 244–5, 302
 urban change 252
- Great Eastern Locomotive works at Stratford in West Ham, employed 7,000 people 19
- Greater London Authority Act (1999), changed transport in London 232
- Greater London Council (GLC), replaced LCC (1965) 127
- Greater London and counties beyond, social landscape very white 285
- Greater London Plan (1944) 38, 56
 'green belt' plan, replaced with 'finger' plans of Copenhagen and Stockholm 287
- Green, David, on Industrial Revolution and London 19
- Greenwich, high level of house building 172
- growth in all middle classes (SEGs 1–5) as proportion of all growth 135
- Hackney growth of middle middle class 131, 138
 high proportion of low-class African Caribbeans and Indians, small numbers of middle classes 147
 Index of Multiple Deprivation 147 large African Caribbean population but small middle-class one 137 residents who moved to Eastside 154–5 slogan on site in 284 white intermediate social groups 146
- Hall, Peter advocacy for improved transport in London 295 call for funding for infrastructure from casino regeneration 198, 200 on garden suburbs 48, 115 increasing housing densities not proven, not suitable for families 180 planning disaster 170 Thames Gateway is 'a discontinuous development corridor' 45
- Hamlet Court Road 219–21
- Hammersmith Bridge 23
- Hammond, J.L., Industrial Revolution a storm cloud that passed over London
- Hamnett, C. 131–2, 150–51, 155, 156n5
- Haringey, project to engage young people in Children's Fund programme 269–70
- Harley, R. 239, 244, 249, 257
- Harrow 130, 134
- Harvey, D. 211, 216, 288
- Havering
 Black African middle-classes over-represented in 137 clusters of traditional white working-class population 147

- contrast between those who moved from and other six London boroughs 159
- good educational facilities 133, 145
- less deprived than rest of East London and remains predominantly white 156
- people from who moved to Eastside 154–5
- reasons for leaving 157
- satisfaction with area 160–61
- some ex-Havering residents preferred Havering to Eastside 162
- white intermediate social groups 146–7
- health 3, 9, 95
- Heathrow Express, ‘excellent example of glocal bypass’ 256
- Henley, W.T. submarine cable and telegraph works at North Woolwich (1856) 22
- heritage industry, branding of Thames Gateway 4
- hermeneutics, hidden, centred on issue of civic disengagement and democratic deficit 119
- Heseltine, Michael
- intention to bring ‘barren areas of ‘East Thames Corridor’ into use 45, 84
 - joking about Bill Gates and finance for Gateway 88
- London Docklands Development Corporation (LDDC) 1981 228
- opened first part (1991), idea of ‘Thames Gateway’ was established 231
 - pro-European figure 247
- high density flatted accommodation for single people, lower for families 179–80
- Hills, Frank, moved to West Ham (1845) and developed new techniques for chemical processes 25
- Hitchen, Graham (head of Creative London) 87
- Hobbs, D. 189–90, 192–3
- Holland, city and water-management 12
- Holland, R. 189–90, 193, 205
- Hong Kong 15
- system which produced half income needed by colonial administration 288
- House of Commons Select Committee report, suitability of housing for families 180
- House completions: London Thames Gateway 172 (2000–2005) 173
- Essex Thames Gateway (2000–2005) 175, 183
 - Kent Gateway (2000–2005) 174, 183
- housing associations, have not made up for deficit in social rental housing provision 151
- Housing Corporation/English partnerships/Communities England, need to be linked together 64
- housing density 179–80
- housing provision 4, 95
- higher numbers and density imperative in Thames Gateway 64
 - meeting need and bedroom type 182–3
 - not sufficient to end relative deprivation of the region 297
 - problem of affordable for key workers in service sectors 70–71
 - scarcity especially for middle- and lower-income people 295
- housing targets and housing completions 171–2
- Kent TG region 172
- Howard, Ebenezer 38–9
- ‘Garden Cities to Tomorrow’ 36
- Human Rights Act (1998), aim to meet needs of service users 268–70
- human rights principles, stronger values to inform policymaking and complaints routes in law 277–8
- Hytner, Nicholas (National Theatre), rejects call to audit 94
- Imrie, R 221n10, 222
- Index of Local Deprivation (1998) 212
- Index of Multiple Deprivation (IMD) 147
- India, London and IT operations to, lower costs of reproduction of skilled labour 79
- Indian and Pakistani groups 137
- Indian population in London 134–6, 138, 146
- India Rubber, Gutta Perch and Telegraph Works 25–6

- Infrastructure Planning Commission 290
 Inside Prescottgrad 114 Institute for Public Policy Research see IPPR institutional architecture for delivery 63–4
 IPPR 91
 Gateway People, negative picture of popular perceptions 116 need mix of high quality social housing 169 think tank, suggested Thames Gateway story was neither understood or believed 53
 Isle of Dogs 303 balanced communities, difficulty in achieving in 179 campaign against plans of the LDDC 298 construction of West India Docks 18 financial and business services sector concentrated in eastern node in Canary Wharf 293
 ODPM (now DCLG) employment base on 58–9 polarisations of race and class 2 Jerram, Bruce 252 noted airport not linked to DLR 256
 Jessop, B. 191, 294
 John Penn & Son, engines for fast steamships built by Ditchburn and Mare 24
 Jowell, Tessa (DCMS secretary) 85, 91
 Kant, Immanuel, ‘dare to know’ 65
 Keillor, Patrick 43, 45
 Keith, M. 53–66, 216, 218–19 ‘redemptive potential’ in promotion of multiracial democracy 221 tension in ‘city thinking’ important in structuring moral compass for city 54–5 warns against ‘default model of low-quality economically suboptimal suburbanisation’ 303
 Kennard, Brassey, Peto and Bidder, railway line from Stratford to junction of River Lea 21
 Keynesianism, the housing crisis of postwar Britain tackled by social housing programmes 69–70
 Keynesian Welfare State, critique from liberalisms of left and right 63 key-worker housing, aimed at specific groups either for sale or part purchase 177–8
 Klein, P. 270–71 knowledge economy 2, 110, 115, 294, 299 LAAs 265
 mandatory targets for community empowerment in require changes in perception 268 reducing fear of crime one of its targets but it is complex 274
 Lampedusa, Guiseppe Tomasi di, Gattopardo 75
 Land Development Trusts new ‘fingers’ taken into 287 switch in Germany to 288 land use 4 Lansbury estate (Poplar), showcase for 1951 Festival of Britain 39 large-scale urban regeneration, involves dislocation which is traumatic on communities 112
 Latin-America 10
 Latour, Bruno 4, 307
 Politics of Nature 304
 LCC estate, Coate Street, Bethnal Green 35 LCC’s bomb damage maps 39–40
 LDDC 13, 228–9 operated by logic of ‘rigorous deregulation, infrastructure without public space’ 244
 Leamouth by Canning Town, Ballymore and cluster of towers for planning permission 47
 Lees, L., strategies for urban regeneration, programme for gentrification 220, 221n11, 223
 Lefebvre, H. 209, 216–18, 221, 223
 Leytonstone, views about changing life in 141–2
 life-planning classes, popularity of and what it is 108

- Lipton, Stuart, Ikea and John Lewis, dominates production of modular building components 289
- Liverpool garden festival 228
- Livingstone, Ken chaired November 2002 TfL meeting which proposed new Thames Gateway Bridge 2003–? 233 created Transport for London (TfL) 232 cultural strategy subtitled ‘realising potential of world class city’ 88 foreword to Cultural Capital: Realising the Potential of a World Class City 89 fostering finance and business services in centre of London 285 highlighted fact that tourism facilities too centralised in West of London 201
London Plan 56
London Plan cites airport as key nodal point linking London to Europe 248–9
Lord Rogers as advisor to 57 urges higher density building in London 51
- Local Area Agreements see LAAs
- local authorities, required to produce definitions of affordable housing in plans 177
- Local Strategic Partnerships see LSPs
- London
2012 Olympics 1 accumulation of natural resources at expense of other subsystems 76 administratively (1889) was organised into 28 metropolitan boroughs 126–7 armaments 27–9 attracted variety because it remained largest centre of consumption 18 cable and telegraphy 25–7 competitive in attracting resources ‘looted’ in variety of ways 78–9 demographic transformation, remarkable ethnic diversity 150 East End in need of regeneration since metropolitan government in (1888) 31 gas and chemicals 24–5 gas industry in nineteenth century 21 geography of moving from 154–7 growth as financial centre depends on growth of health and education services 79 historic turn to the east 4–5 history 4, 29
impact of Industrial Revolution difficult to assess 19 inner has been colonised by middle-class gentrifiers 151 labour shortages in key markets 59 luxury items to meet demands of metropolitan bourgeoisie 17–18 manufacturing dominated by small-scale workshops employing fewer than 25 persons 17 middle-class whites more concentrated in Inner than outer London 134 migrants from Bangladesh 42 more middle-class city with gentrification and deindustrialisation 131
moving away to homeowning suburbia proved respectability of working-and middle-class 165 neighbourhood satisfaction in 159–62 problem region and eastern part has special problems 283–4 projections around employment growth 2004–2007 58 reasons for leaving and moving to Eastside 157–8 reduction of population between 1961
and 1994 42
reductions in household size and increasing numbers of households generate demand for more houses 59 searching bureaucratically efficient method of delivering the future
city 64
shipbuilding and engineering 23–4 special companies played main role in development of port equipment 11 status as world class city is part of pitch for investment in East London 88 suburbanisation of population brought about by formation of new towns 149

- welfare state workers cannot afford to live in 59
- world centre of commerce and finance 18
- would have to sort out its environmentally unsustainable sewage overflows 76–7
- London Analytical Report (2003) 60–61
- London Borough of Lewisham, neighbourhood policy within central government guidelines 271
- London City Airport cross rail development highly relevant for airport 257 described as valuable local asset 245 DLR and 255 employees felt like a community working there 254 environs and networks, constituent parts of Thames Gateway development 246
- Essex, Kent, Newham, Silvertown – places in past and present and 'future-speak' 250
- injunction to prevent publication of City East plan 311
- one of number of prominent regeneration projects in East London (1980s) 244
- online departures (June 2007) 246
- protest against building 242–3
- residents do not fly from 251–2
- should move downriver to mouth of the Estuary 310
- 'social impacts' in surrounding areas of Silvertown and North Woolwich 239–41
- STOLPORT (short take off and landing airport) 250
- transport hubs around 4, 242
- London County Council, Becontree estate (1920s) for 100,000 residents, labour for Ford 29
- London Cultural Consortium, established as 'restructured Cultural Strategy Group 92
- London Development Agency completion of 59,000 homes advance from 2016 to 2012 172 non-market mechanisms include public subsidy via 84
- London Docklands extensive and radical transformations 9 forerunner of comprehensive planning policy in large-scale delta areas 13 leftover land between docks as residential areas for poorest people of the city 12 possible to create new urban, regional and environmental complexity 15 role in development of larger Thames Gateway area 14 role as a 'trendsetter' 11
- London Docklands Development Corporation (1981) see LDDC
- London docks closure (1960s) 293
Dock Wall 294
first phase of modernisation (1790–1810) 21 redevelopment into major hub for knowledge, cultural and information economy 294
- London East End, Charles Dickens' novels and 12
- London East Research Institute (LERI) 2
- London Housing Board 64
- London Mayor, elected by people of London, reports to GLA 129
- London Plan, has put lid on further office development in and around centre of London 288–9
- London's physical geography, imbalance in 1
- Lower Lea Valley, will it become Britain's silicon valley? 300
- LSPs 264, 270 can work in way detrimental to establishing broader base for community participation 268 community representatives more 'in tune' with problems of residents 266 lack of clarity about accountability of identified as problematic 271–2 set out priorities for a local area 272–3 to promote community participation 265
- M25 orbital motorway (1970/80s), another boundary between London and surrounding exurbia 127

- McCarthy, Richard, Programmes, Policy and Implementation at DCLG 86
 'McJobs', tourist and retail sectors 295
- MacRury, I. 189–207, 239–60, 300, 310
- Madness and Ian Dury's Blockheads, blended ska and pub anthems with rock'n roll 299
- Mail on Sunday* (8 January 2006) 241
- Manchester, Ford Motor Co (1911) relocated to Dagenham 29
- Mandela, Nelson 67
- Manichean plot, urban renewal and decline decked out with portmanteau buzzwords and statistical tables 104
- Mann, William 31–51, 294
- Mare & Co, shipbuilding firm on Poplar side of Lea (1937) 23, 30
- market, sans state, cannot be trusted to protect public interest in reshaping cities 63
- Marriott, John 17–30, 293
- Marvin, S.
 disintegration used as new forms of integration 258
 dual city argument 100–101
 'glocalisation' 239, 256
Splintering Urbanism 241, 244–5, 302
 urban change 252
- Marx, Karl, you cannot have a bourgeoisie without a proletariat 122
- Maudslay Sons and Field, construction of marine engines 23, 30
- Maxim gun, Vickers gun 28
- Maxim Gun Co (1884), revolutionary machine gun, occupied site at Crayford 27
- Maxim Nordenfelt Gun Company 24, 28
- Maxwan, masterplan for Leidsche Rjin, extension of Utrecht 49
- Maxwan (Dutch master planners), proposals for Bellway Homes and English Partnership at Barking 48–9, 50
- metropolitan, contrasting ways of thinking about the moral order of the 54
- Meyer, H. 8–15, 244, 250, 252
- middle middle class, growth been big story in London as a whole 131
- Mile End park 42
- Millington, G. 209–225, 300
- Milton poorest ward in Southend, Essex and South East 212, 217 real community work has been left to the charitable sector 222 unchecked over-development during property boom of 1980s 221
- Milton Community Partnership (MCP) 222–3
- Milton Keynes, Watford, Reading and Gatwick, more jobs and more commuting 285
- Milton resident, asylum-seekers 221–2
- Minister for Local Government, regenspiel and 103
- Mintel, 2003 assessment of NTE markets acknowledge potential of recession to the domestic 197–8
- Mirza, M., Cultural Vultures: Is UK Arts policy Damaging the Arts? 91
- mission statements 121–2
- Mitchell, D. 222–3
- Mobile Information Units 308
- Mobile Observatory, function of Mass Observation and Mobile Information Unit 308
- 'model housing', unpopular for long time 33–4
- modernisation gradual evolutionary process of urban renovation, aim to recreate the 'polis' 105 port-cities role as laboratories of 10–11
- modernity both models of share some common assumptions of what has to be reformed 106–7 as violent break with the past 105
- modern ports, consist of specialised distribution hubs which make up a network 13
- Monk, S. affordable housing 170, 176
- Monopoly, seventieth anniversary edition, London City Airport on board 253–4
- MORI, suggested that the transformation lacked 'a narrative' to make sense of the change 53
- Morris, J. 53, 152, 165, 169, 263n7

- Mucking
 modern parish described as one of the most derelict on north shore of Thames 285 re-settled as busy town 289–90
- multicultural middle class, will NIMBY-ism join forces with Tory squirearchy against? 300–301
- Mumford, Lewis 9
- Muscovy and Levant Companies 20
- Napoleonic, Crimean wars and Indian revolt, boosted Woolwich Arsenal 27
- narrative and spatial form, no correlation or fixed principle of correspondence between 107
- narratives of urban decline, could take racist form 161
- narrative turn 109–113
- National Planning Commission 309
- Native American Iroquois Confederacy, sustainability and 72
- neighbourhood ecology 4
- Neighbourhood Renewal Funds 264
- Neighbourhood Renewal Unit (NRU) 264
- neoliberal structural adjustment, employment of nurses, doctors and teachers from poor areas 79
- neo-Ricardian facts, rental differences between Canada Square and the Royal Docks 56
- New Age business persons, reinvent themselves as artisans of the avant garde 120
- New East End* 301
- Newham
 58 per cent of population non-white 137
 Council UDP on London City Airport 248 Eastern Europeans moving in 141 growth of middle middle class 131, 138, 144–5 interview on NTE project 205 issues about satisfaction with area 161 local trend for economic growth 86–7
 NTE hampered by pull exerted by work location (dispersed) NTE spots 192
 NTE of useful exemplar for thinking about Thames Gateway NTE 196
 residents who moved to Eastside 154–5 roughly equal balance of middle- and working-class population 137 smaller properties despite demand for larger properties 183 whites regarded English as being minority ‘taken over’ by alien ‘others’ 162
- New Labour adopted Thames Gateway concept when they took office (1997) 231 commitment to cultural turn in urban regeneration 5 set up Greater London Assembly, Ken Livingstone as Mayor 127
- New Labourism, position of those left behind by knowledge economy trapped in welfare poverty 299
- new regionalism is the new localism 100–101
- new things happen 115–19
- ‘Newtown estates’ high crime rate according to resident 163 income levels lower than in Woodlands, more working-class Eastside estate 154 most residents satisfied with their housing 160, 162
- New York, debate around city post 9/11 63
- New York’s Battery Park City 13
- night* life, ‘liveability’ must include a sense of the quality of 189
- ‘night-time economy’ see (NTE)
- NIMBY/ism 104, 284, 300–301
- Nitin Sawhney and Dizzy Rascals, musically sophisticated but raw edge to diasporic groove 299
- No.10, Strategic Unit’s London Analytical Report 56
- nominalisation, medium and the message of syntax of governance 104, 111
- ‘non-place’ notion complex and elusive 203
- non-white population in London 134–7
- Nordenfelt Guns and Ammunition Co (1887), site near Erith, also manufactured machine guns 27–8
- Northumberland and Durham Coal Company 21

- NTE
 'aspirations anxieties surrounding 198–9 based within sites demarcated for specialised kinds of consumption, production and social interaction 190–91 deprivation in Beckon, Canning Town or Barking 191 entertainments and activities continue to develop in traditional locations 195 important to sustainability for number of reasons 195
 main impetus to has come from local authorities' entrepreneurial competitiveness 193 provision charged with safeguarding the intimate and diverse in face of the 'super-' 205 quantitative results as indicative of locale needing revivification 196–7 should include localised instances of evening oriented third space in TG 193 super-brands cannot satisfy need for localised facilities for night-time leisure 204
 tourism and the post-industrial 200–202 NTE and tourism, commonalities but also differences between the two 200
- O'Brien, K. 210–211
 O'Connor, J. 189–90
 ODPM 170, 172, 174, 177–9, 222, 264 housing and 70–71, 77–9, 181 John Prescott published a Sustainable Communities Plan (2003) 69 large volume of new dwellings to be built in Thames Gateway 198 Office of the Deputy Prime Minister see
 ODPM
 Office of National Statistics see ONS 'Old Nichol' slum, replaced with tenements of Boundary Road estate 34–5 Olympic and Paralympic Games, should help Thames Gateway project 285–6 Olympics effect global festival on its never-ending tour 296 hope that London 2012 will put Thames Gateway on investment map 88, 290, 294
 Newham and 87
 ONS 125, 129, 131
 Overend-Gurney discount house, crash of
 in (1866) 18
 Oxford Brookes University 262n4, 264n10
 Oxleas Wood (SSSI) fears about proposals for ELRC and 229 Livingstone made it clear that new bridge would not go near 233–4 oxymoron, figure of speech in which apparently contradictory terms appear in conjunction 67
 'oxymoronic creatures', capitalist moralists lamenting state of the world 67, 81 oxymoronic creatures and neoliberal governance 67–9
- Pakistanis move for cheaper housing 147 population in London 134–6, 138–9 strategy of 'class evasion' 147
- Paris
 lid on office development in and around Paris 288
 Regional Express Railway network
 (RER) 295
- Parker, Barry and Raymond Unwin (architects) 36
- participation arose out of respect for and recognition of skills of service users 273–4 integrated into everyday activities positive experience for users and providers 273
 'Participation Crew', educated about rights and visited Children's Fund projects 269–70
 'peninsular' feel, Silvertown, North Woolwich and London City Airport 252–3
- Penn, John (resident of Southend) 99
- People Against the River Crossing (PARC), environmental NGOs and 229–30
- Pewsey, S. 210–211
 'place identity' 101

- ‘place images’, subjective meanings people hold about areas 150
- plan, symbolic function of is to conceptualise actions which cannot otherwise be configured 108
- planning become networky, interactive and user-friendly 109 discipline of rests on claim to know the good city 54 Millennium Dome in South-East London 228 propositions must clearly identify self-interest 309
- Planning Commission, will make all planning decisions about national infrastructure 306
- ‘planning gain’, may relate to mix of dwellings and provision of affordable housing 170
- planning permission granted or scheme completed (2000–2005) 171
- Planning Policy Guidance No.3, need to maximise land use 179
- Planning for a Sustainable Future*, government White Paper 290
- plan, the, not the script 106–9
- Platt, L. 134, 146
- Policy Exchange 91
- polluter pays*, could be mitigated by subsidies for development of brownfield sites 60
- Poplar
 HARCA housing association, separate access for private and social tenants 47 separated by the Docklands Light Railway and 43 undeveloped until mid-nineteenth century 21–2
- population, 100 per cent increase living in cities expected in next 35 years 10
- population density 4
- port activities, movement from riverbanks to docks, sharp separation between city and port 12
- port areas processes of economic growth, two important processes 10 question of regeneration of 9–10
- port-cities backbone of economic traffic and urban development 10 responsibility for new balance within the natural territory 14, 294
- port infrastructure, natural artefacts such as bays and creeks 11
- post-Barker housing subsidies, may be paid to property developers 60
- post-Fordism based on service economy, disappearance of social housing and 70 economic activity space that would one day be produced by 297
- post-war, the planner was a public hero 105
- Power, A., housing insufficient to regenerate London Thames Gateway 165
- power to the people, devolution of 4
- Prescott, John (deputy prime minister) made to represent technocratic crypto-Stalinist command structure planning 114
 Urban Task Force 57
 White Paper’s proposals 231–2
- pre-set targets, might not influence actions that provide solutions to local problems 276
- Prime Ministers Strategy Unit (PMSU), thinking spatially and the London of 60–61
- promoting participation 265–72
- Public Enquiry 309
- race, privileged metaphor through which confused text of city rendered comprehensible 218
- Raco, M. 221n10, 222
- Rainham, study of NTE provision, leisure in is inadequate 197 super-casino proposed for, way of figuring relationship between notional ‘non-place and place 203–4
- Random Regenerator Regenerator, how it works 102
- Reay, Debra, creative hubs and 92

- Redbridge
 affluent aspirational borough 146
 BME population grew from 48, 421 to 87,041 134
 good educational facilities 133, 138, 145
 Indians head for 147
 issues about satisfaction with area 161
 people who moved to Eastside 154–5 proportion of higher professional and managerial workers 128, 129–30, 132, 144 view about changes in 143–4 white intermediate social classes 147
- redemptive discourse, contrast to entrenched views of Milton residents 221
- regeneration 5, 9–10, 31, 55–6, 84–5 mytho-logics of present in battle between force of enlightenment and progress 118 plot no longer the river but road, rail and air transport which connect with Europe 100 three major types of story grand narratives 111 hermeneutic 111–12
 Urban folk tales 110
 two different kinds of narrative of 106
- regeneration network, absence of leading actors in 87
- regeneration professionals forming themselves into a community or series of communities 91 ideology of cultural regeneration and 93–4 questioning bureaucratic methods and language of their business 104
- 'regenspiel' 101 idiom of almost total opacity which declares itself medium of transparency 104 lexicon of portmanteau words that can be made to mean almost anything 102 syntax is extreme case of nominatisation 103
- regenspieler* 116
jouissance of 'living the good life 120
- region, definitions 306–7
- regional planning, democratic deficit in 4 regions, teams of curators and 307–8
- Registered Social Landlords (housing associations) developers in their own right 60, 286 houses completed by 175 larger than anticipated role for 176
- 'rights agenda, changes how statutory agencies engage with communities 269
- Right-to-Buy policy 156
- 'right-to-participate', raises expectations and encourages participation 277–8
- Rising East* 83, 91
- riverside sites, advantages of in London 29
- Rix, V. 150, 155, 252
- Robson, G. 131, 140, 152, 154, 195
- Rogers, Lord, Architecture and Urbanism Unit at Greater London Authority 56–7, 179
- 'ROSE' (Rest of the South-East excluding London) favoured destination for white ex-Londoners leaving the capital 150 house prices slightly lower 152 under-researched part of London 149
- Rothchild Buildings (1887), Jewish émigrés from Eastern Europe 34, 42, 50
- Rothschild and De Beers families, geographical links and 24
- Rotterdam built new port and industrial complexes further from the city 12 Kop van Zuid 13
- Royal Docks regeneration, corporate investors for Royal Business Park 247–8
- Royal Docks site better off without airplanes but with skyscrapers 310 City East proposal and 311 photographs (1952 and 2008) 8 sense of splintered spaces of through indicative statements about airport 239
- S106 agreements 169–70 affordable Housing in Thames Gateway 176–7, 185 community gain and 183–4 place conditions on developers linked to planning permission 170

- proportion of affordable housing stipulated on 100 plus units 176–7 specified range of benefits linked to community gain but practice varied 184–5
- Safer and Stronger Communities Fund (SSCF) 264
- Salet, W., on NTE 192
- Sampson, A. 261–81, 304
- Sassen, S. 78, 295
- satisfaction with area 160, 164
- Savage, M. 152, 154
- Schama, S. 117, 209
- Schumpeterian characterisation of capitalist innovation, ‘creative destruction’ 76
- Seattle 15
- SEC 125, 147 class 2 131 definition of 129n2
- SEGs 125
 1–4 as proportion of SEGs 1–15 (126 growth of 1–4 and 5 for whole of outer London 131
 growth in SEG5.1 (1991–2001) in six boroughs 132
- Seven Kings School, catchment area awash with signs of affluence 145
- Shanghai, Pudong expands exponentially 63
- Shields, R. 150, 211
- Sibley, D. 150, 152
- Siemens and Halske, established permanent staff in London 26
- Siemens in Woolwich, employed 7,000 people 19, 30
- Silvertown 22, 25
 airport as a living case study for transformative urban regeneration 239, 244
 resident on changes to ‘village’ 258 residents continue to register sense of disconnection from London 249 routing of DLR into in 2006 is exemplary 257
 Sergison Bates designing housing scheme for Barratts 47–9
- Sim City aspiration, risks economic illiteracy 56
- Simon, Ian, Rising East contributor 91
- Sinclair, I. rebranding service for Thames Gateway 299
 ‘white Cockney on the drift’ 149
- Site of Special Scientific Interest see SSSI
- Skegg’s spatial strategies, urban elite and class separation from urban ‘others’ 144
- small and medium sized enterprises see
 SMEs
- SMEs 196, 291, 293–4
- Smith, Chris, endorsed appraisal of culture’s established role 85, 91–2
- social movements, problems voiced by can be addressed through the market 68–9
- social welfare 3
- socio-economic classification see SEC
- socio-economic group see SEG
- Songbird, Canary Wharf and 58
- Sorrell, John (chair of CABE) 116
- South Africa 24
- Southend Borough Council and Thames Gateway, position to enable flourishing cultural life 223
- Southend-on-Sea
 1750–1850 210
 1850–1950 210–211
 1950–present 211–12 cultural hub 4, 115, 222 effect of laissez-faire planning regulations of 1980s on housing 214–16
 EU funding and ‘Hamlet Court Road Project’ 219–20
 incorporated into Thames Gateway 209
- Index of Local Deprivation (1998) 212
- Jewish community 218
- little Palestine/bedsit-land/Mini-Bosnai 212–20
- Mrs Sutton, watching over morning school run 118–19
- Punch* joke about 210
- rebirth as ‘cultural hub’ 219, 222–3
- resident describes friend’s flat 213
- University of Essex campus should bring long-term benefits to 222 unplanned cosmopolitanism becomes integral to the plan 220
- South Metropolitan Gas Company (1880s), last of metropolitan gas works 24–5

- spaces of intimacy, stuff of contemporary sustainability 204
- spatiality of suspicion, asylum-seekers and 218
- Splintering Urbanism* 100, 241, 244, 302
- splintering urbanism
- DLR contrasted positively of building local amenity and connectivity 256
 - effect of 4
- state, aspires to intervene in areas where previously it had no recognised role 95
- Stoke on Trent garden festival 228
- Stratford 4, 21
- City development, lower level of social housing 176
 - effect of Olympics on 300
 - identified as major transport hub in early 1990s 231, 296
- Stuckey, Martin (head of TGB delivery team)
- due to start work August 2007 237
 - letter from Hazel Blears informing him that TGB enquiry was to be reopened 237–8
- suburbanisation
- 'modern message of difference' with incompatibilities 144
 - two fairly distinct sets of eastward flows along the Thames, Havering and east London 164
 - 'white flight' connotation 151
- 'suburban moves', are often suburb-to-suburb rather than from inner city to suburb 156
- suburbia, 'trouble in paradise', issues of sustainability and inner-city problems 152
- Summerson, John, assessment of Lansbury estate 39
- 'super brand' chains 203–4
- superclub, definition 202n12
- supermodernity, we have to relearn to think about space 202
- 'super structure', important there is sufficient traffic between and world around it 203
- Sure Start 264, 267n15
- parents/carers moved from feelings of vulnerability to increased sense of control 273
 - teams, well attended events celebrating parents' achievements involved parents 276–7
- 'surplus population', overlooked within London 283
- Surrey and St Katherine's Docks 18
- Survey of English Housing 160
- sustainability
- debate on 4
 - depended on young people having viable future in the locale 203
 - discourse of urban communities may hide unsustainable accumulation of natural resources from other localities 77
 - notion as it related to system dynamics 72
 - oxymoron when we realise link between and 'competitiveness' 77
- sustainability of local systems, not necessarily compatible with that of the whole 73
- sustainable communities 4, 69–72
- can stand on own feet and adapt to changing demands of modern life 71
 - oxymoronic character of problematic posed by 72
 - as subsystems 76–9
 - three-point 'challenge' 77–8
 - unavoidably linked to 'disposable communities' 79
- Sustainable Communities Plan
- 2003 update and difficulties with population growth numbers 61–2
 - acquisitive and competitive and threatening sustainability of other 'communities' 79
 - defines 'sustainable communities' by means of 'shopping list' 80
 - as housing driven model the planning framework will dislocate economic drivers from transport infrastructure 62–3
 - long term lower aspiration could translate into low quality development 62
 - recognises need for housing but also of social cohesion 71
 - set out in, litmus test for plausibility of urban renaissance 65

- short term the overambitious targets for delivery exaggerate public sector investment bill 62
- system theorists, reminder from on sustainability 74–5
- Tamil community, arrival in London 1980s as result of turmoil in India 144
- Tate & Lyle 30, 251, 293
- Tate, Henry, sugar refinery at Silvertown 22
- team building, tax-funded to establish very little 94
- technical* framework of large-scale infrastructure, conflict with social domain of the city 13
- Telegraph Construction and Maintenance Co. 25–6
- manufactured Atlantic cables (1864 and 1866), laid by Brunel's Great Eastern 26
- temporality and the Gateway paradox 61–3
- tenement blocks, redevelopment of 'rookeries' and 32–3
- tensions
- between historicist and socio-technicist dreams of modernity 105–6
 - between how people dwell in city and realities of building homes 56–7
 - between notions of liberalism and notions of communitarianism, need to be taken seriously 55
 - identified with government policy to create thriving neighbourhoods 277
- 'terminal architecture' 101
- terraced 'cottages', built in eighteenth and nineteenth centuries 32
- TfL, struggling to find ways to get new workers in to the centre 285
- TGB 2003–?
- consultation process and local consensus 234–5
 - had been due to open in 2012 but this target now impossible 238
 - substantial opposition 234–7
- TGCTG, minutes of meeting (19 November 2004) 92
- TGLP 302
- promotes transport strategy, 'vital to support London's financial services' 78
- Thames Gateway
- aim to give identity, creating 'imagined community' to the region 310
 - all tourist groups should be catered for in NTE 201–2
 - an 'ism' for interim construction of society by cultural means 95–6
 - capacity to save much Green Belt 65
 - commitment to build 200,000 housing units over next 20 years 295
 - community gain in 184–5
 - confluence of socio-economic realities and regeneration stories 55–6
 - controversy over 3
 - culture can serve as appeal to capital 85
 - cultures of modernity and postmodernity 4
 - danger present in 50
 - develops more slowly than government plans of 2006 287
 - elderly Londoners have moved from big houses to 289
 - 'Gateway to Europe' 247
 - Hall and Ward characterisation of 46
 - housing built so far could have been of higher quality 169
 - housing density 180–81, 185
 - housing numbers will be developed by private sector 60, 169
 - housing types 180, 181, 185
 - innovation in configuration of street systems and shopping/service centres 288
 - interim report (2006) revised housing target from 120,000 to 160,000 169
 - interpretation of 'affordable housing' 177
 - justification set out in terms of two objectives 296
 - legislative structures not in place to coordinate NTE 192
 - levels of density being exceed in some areas 169–70
 - little to do with actual lives of people who live and work there 115
 - long-term perspective with conditions for urbanisation 14

- need to have NTE amenity if they are to host SMEs and other businesses 196, 291
- negative view of manufacture and its legacy 115
- neither bound to succeed nor fail, hard to make it a great success 290
- new developments emerging unevenly concentrating around new transport links 169
- NIMBY forces less powerful out that way and East London needs more jobs 284
- NTE, central component of 'liveability' should be more central to 191, 193, 199
- planning application of 16 storeys or above not uncommon in London part 179
- poor public image in Essex and Kent sections, deprivation as much of ROSE 152
- population growth boosts property values in south, leaves north and west struggling 286
- problem of how to give real meaning and shared identity to 303
- projects* that can play role as 'generators' at local scale and 14–15
- proportion of houses and flats built in area 182
- prospectus 86–8
- public disenchantment with master planning and grand projects 107
- public sector attentions spread over area of unprecedented size 31
- question if we 'dare to plan' 65
- questions about housing in 186
- reassertion of the 'tentacular city' 46
- regenerating the process of civic engagement with 4
- scale and form challenge perceptions of London 45
- scale of 1
- shortfall in affordable housing for rent and purchasing 183, 185
- should it be written as picaresque adventure story for boys 110
- strides across many political boundaries 302
- supply chains connect downriver London to Continental Europe and world 100
- to be sustainable community 101, 264
- voluminous documentation 2
- want to make it into a 'values tournament' around notion of sustainable community 309
- we are supposed to be living in best of all possible worlds 114
- wide range of densities of building 289
- will be about a wish list 113–14
- worst case scenario, state and public bodies come to the rescue firefighting on service provision 286–7
- 'Thames Gateway brand', script becomes the plan 121
- Thames Gateway Bridge 4
- Thames Gateway Culture Task Group see TGCTG
- Thames Gateway Forum
Billboard Project 93
London Excel exhibition (2006) 83
- Thames Gateway Forum at Excel, attendance of 7239 in (2006) 94
- Thames Gateway Interim Plan delivery partners and cultural investment for development plans 88–9 requires private sector capital of £40 billion 53, 86
- Thames Gateway London Partnership see TGLP
- Thames Gateway plan for sustainable communities see Thames Gateway
- Thames Gateway project
2012 Olympics and threat to subsystemic components in London 79–80
- best case scenario 287–90
- bicameral regional assembly organised by Latoureaun principles 311–12
- pessimistic foresight for 285–7
- strategy to promote new form of deregulated regionalism 100
- tensions between central planning and local conditions/problems 274
- unique opportunity to develop practices for community participation 262–3, 277–8

- Thames Gateway Regeneration Agenda, needs to be alert to provision of physical and social linkages 259
- Thames Ironworks in Canning Town, employed 6,000 people 19
- Thames Ironworks and Shipbuilding Co., HMS Warrior (1860) and HMS Thunderer (1911) 23–4, 29
- Thameslink 2000, behind its construction schedule 295
- Thames shipbuilding, sixteenth century when royal dockyards constructed at Woolwich, Deptford and Erith 20
- Thatcher government anti-statism of 55 Development Corporation 42–3
 Docklands project in 1980s 287
 East London suffered catastrophic job losses 284 post-war new towns privatised just when profits were rolling in 288
- Thrift, N. 195–6, 258
- Time Out* poster 194
- Todorov, Tzvetan, formulaic ideas 110, 118
- tourism emerges as panacea in face of anxieties connected to post-industrial decline 200 principle of ‘dispersal’ 201
 UK industry’s annual turnover is £76 billion, 4 per cent of the GDP 201
- Tower Hamlets 129–31
 48 per cent of population non-white 137 financial contributions for off-site affordable housing 179
 Index of Multiple Deprivation 147 new housing completed as result of London Docklands Regeneration project 172 people put out by Bangladeshis are those with longest involvement in community 263 residents regarded English in minority in areas ‘taken over’ by alien ‘others’ 162
 residents who moved to Eastside 154–5
 smaller properties despite demand for larger properties 183
- Tower Hamlets and Hackney, still high on Index of Multiple Deprivation are being gentrified 147
- Traa, Cor van, plan for Rotterdam (1946) 9
- transport 3, 55, 95
 among keys to the regeneration strategy 231 if improved London would have larger and better-integrated labour market 294 overcrowded trains in Thames Gateway 286
- transport Bill (1999), allowed local authorities to introduce congestion charging 232
- Transport Strategy for London* (1995), revocation of ELRC orders (1996) 230
- Travers, A. 244, 247, 250n18
- Trayler, C. (journalism student from Dartford) 83–4
- ‘trickle down’ economics 222
- ‘trickle up’, effect of house prices in London 71
- UK government and London Assembly committed to continuing growth of London 232–3 migration from new EU member states 142 Mobile Information Units used to target public services at hard-to-reach communities 308 research and development remains low 87
- United Nations Convention on the Rights of the Child article 12 269
- University of East London, acts as channel between business and higher education 78
- University of West London 264n9, 266n12, 267n15
- urbanisation, relation between and natural conditions of territory 10
- urbanisms
 Marxian and post-structuralist appealed to exposure of city’s artifice as function 54

- notion susceptible to annexation by architecture 57
- urban modernity, two models of 105–6
- urban planning 4
- principles which inform 57–8
- problem of how to enable every citizen to participate in urban world 14
- urban planning today, pretty much demilitarised, operated in market-driven deregulation 109
- urban plans, master plans and site plans, ‘militarised’ 108
- urban regeneration, cultural turn and 99
- urban studies, Foucault’s work, understand problem of liberal government in political theory 55
- Urban Task Force, renewal characterised by high density accompanied by parks, shops 179–80
- urban water edges, situation of changing 13
- URS and Patel Taylor (Architects for Greater London Authority), densities of schemes and 47
- USA
- failure to sign Kyoto treaty September 2001 tempered by events of 11 September 233
- ‘Real Estate investment Trusts’ (REITs) 288
- Vickers, merged with Armstrong (1927)
- Victoria Docks (1855) 18, 21
- Victoria Wharf development 43–4
- Vienna, development of garden suburbs 37
- visionary Thurrock 93
- Voinov, Alexey, on sustainability 73, 75
- voluntary sector organisations involved in LAA strategic planning in Lewisham 271
- Wacquant, L., bedsit-land as neighbourhood of exile 212
- Waltham Forest
- Eastern European community now moved in 141
- percentage point change 1991–2001 130–31
- residents who moved to Eastside 154–5
- white intermediate social groups 146–7
- Wandsworth, ethnic minority of 13 per cent 133
- Wapping Docks 18
- water management
- challenge to find approach to transformation of urbanised delta landscape 14
- confronted with objective limits 13
- sustainable system with specific types of urbanisation and/or recreational facilities 15
- Watson, J. 169–70, 176
- Watt, P. 149–67, 150–51
- issues about satisfaction with area 160–63, 165
- racialised uses of public space by young people in Home Counties 152
- survey of residents of Eastside, mostly homeowning 153
- Weber, Max, bureaucracy ‘a discharge of business without regard for persons’ 64
- western world
- ‘daily urban systems’ exist on increasingly regional scale 14
- structural reorganisation, de-industrialisation and urbanisation 10
- West Ham, refuge for noxious industries expelled from London by restrictive bye-laws 25
- West India Company 11
- West India Docks 21
- W.H Henley Telegraph Works 25
- white flight 151, 162, 164, 298
- White, Jerry, oral history showing community could exist in the ‘model’ dwellings 34
- white population in London 134–7
- working-class people shifting as consequence of gentrification 297
- William Cory, steam colliers and 22
- William Kuper and Co (1850, wire rope maker, move from Camberwell to Greenwich (1952) 25
- Williams & Son
- created an industrial estate 29
- lucrative contract on construction of Thames Embankment 28–9
- Williams, R.
- on culture 84, 84–5n1, 89, 95

- mobile privatisation and 109
- Williams, Samuel, literacy business (1855)
 - specialising in timber and ice 28
- Willis, P., symbolic creativity 217
- Willmott, P. 149, 151, 211
 - The Evolution of a Community; A Study of Dagenham After Forty Years* 36
- Winter, John and Thomas Peyton, coke works at Greenwich and Deptford 21
- Wolfowitz, Paul (president of World Bank) 67–8
- ‘Woodlands’
 - large private prestigious estate detached from rest of Eastside 153–4, 162n9
 - majority of residents satisfied with their housing 160, 162
 - one woman wanted more upmarket residential area 164
 - some parents sent their children to school outside Eastside area 163, 165
- Woolwich 25
 - more responsibility for electrical equipment 27
- Woolwich Arsenal
 - armaments and 27
 - employed 70,000 people 19–20, 294
- Woolwich dockyard, flagship Henri Grace à Dieu 20
- World Bank 67, 72
- World Summit on Social Development (1995), defined sustainable development 72
- W.T. Henley, alliance with Silver’s rubber and waterproof works 25–6
- Wynne, D. 189–90
- Young, M. 149, 151, 211
- Young and Willmott
 - priorities in housing for East End 41
 - study of Bethnal Green (1957) 32, 48
- Zukin, S. 189, 220