

Index

Tables are indicated by italic page numbers, figures by bold

- Abdi, Safia Yusuf, 238–9
Abdulahi, Liban Abdulkadir, 238 affirmative action and liberal model of integration, 61 African-European encounters, early, 43–4 age and political participation, 168
Alibhai-Brown, Jasmin, 31
allochtones, 145–6 Alvesson, M., 94
ambivalence of strangers, 233–4
Anderson, B., 165
Ang, I., 79
Angel-Ajani, Asale, 230
anti-discrimination legislation, UK, 22–3 anti-racist norm in Europe, 41–2
Appel, R., 212
assessment of immigrant pupils in Norway, 120–5 assimilation and collective model of integration, 64
    concept of, 21
    and liberal model of integration, 60 theory and US migrants, 78 authenticity, claim of, 2
autochtones, 145–6
- Banting, K., 26
Barth, Fredrik, 7
Bauböck, R., 29
Bauman, Zygmunt, 1, 8, 157, 233, 286
Beauvais, C., 21
Behad, A., 78
Benhabib, S., 112
Bergh, J., 166, 169, 174
Bijlmer, Amsterdam
    cultural traditions and language, 208–10 importance of education, 213–14 migrant integration in, 201–2 mothers as role models, 208
    religion in, 213
    street language, 212
    super-diversity in, 202–4, 205–7 switching and crossing of identity in, 207–10 trust and reciprocity in networks, 211–14
- Birkebeinerne (reality TV series), 219–20
Bjørklund, T., 166, 169, 174
Black Pete, 42
black politicians in Netherlands, 56 blindness, cultural, 124, 138
Blom, H., 83
Blommaert, J., 145
Borchgrevink, T., 118
Bourdieu, Pierre, 235
Bowling Alone (Putnam), 168–9
Brassé, P., 93
Britain, inclusion policies in, 22–4
Bulcaen, C., 145
bureaucratic labour control, 94
- Canada, multiculturalism policy, 30–1 care work, paternalism in, 46 categorization of cultures, 8
    as effects/effects of, 134–5 purpose of, 134
    Swedish/immigrant children, 136–8, 140–1
    Swedishness seen as norm, 138–40
Cheong, P.H., 24 Christianity
    in Norwegian education, 114–15, 115n5 opposition to role in Norwegian education, 115–18
    separation from the state in Norway, 127

- church and the state in Norway, 118–19, 127
- citizenship and relational model of integration, 69
and tolerance, 8
- clan and political participation, 168, 170–2
- classification. see categorization
- cohesion, concept of, 21
- Colapietro, V., 188
- collective model of integration, 63–8
- colour differences, terminology in the Netherlands, 45–6
- colour in Netherlands, research on, 48–52
- commercialization of debate programmes, 275–7
- Commission for Integration and Cohesion* Report, 24
- community and liberal model of integration, 62–3
- complexity, cultural, 1
- coping strategies in the Netherlands, 52–3
- creolization, 203, 203n2
- cultural blindness, 124, 138, 139
- cultural recognition and mutual accommodation, 29
as principle of multiculturalism, 21–2
- cultural traditions and language in Bijlmer, Amsterdam, 208–10
- culturalism
ethnic minorities marked by alleged culture, 2
Netherlands, 4
as new racism, 2
Norway, 5
Swedish/immigrant categorization, 138–41
- culturalization, 3–5
- culture and converging/diverging social work solutions, 152–5, 157 of migrants seen as problem, 3–4 seen as a difficulty, 148–50 seen as central to migrant issue, 145–6
- cultures categorisation of, 8 and multiculturalism, 27–8
- De Koning, M., 202
- de Tocqueville, A., 8
- debate programmes in Norway approach to migrant issue, 275 as clichés, 273–4 criminality of migrants as theme, 268–73, 279–81
defined, 265–7
immigration focus in, 266 migrants seen as problem in, 273–4, 275 popularisation of, 275–7
sample researched, 267
- democracy
and liberal model of integration, 62–3 shaping a culture of, 8–10
and tolerance, 8
and transnationalism, 160–2
- dialogues in social relations, 187–8
- difference acceptance of, 70–1
democracy as recognition of, 8–9
as a good thing, 292–3
- Dijk, R. van, 146
- discourses, public, 25–8
- discrimination
evaluation of immigrant pupils in Norway, 120–5
in the labour market, 92–3 Netherlands province, 99 and performance standards, 93–4, 104–6 research on, 92–3
research settings and approach, 94–6
- diversity
Bijlmer, Amsterdam, 202–3
democracy as recognition of, 8–9
as undermining social cohesion, 25
United States, 203
- doxa, 235
- duration of residence, 167
- Dutchness as national identity, 84–5. see also Netherlands
- education
in Bijlmer, Amsterdam, 213–14
Christianity in Norwegian, 114–15, 115n5

- ethno-nationalism in Norwegian, 126–7
- evaluation of immigrant pupils in Norway, 120–5
- multicultural theory in, 111–12
- multiculturalism in, 289
- national identity in Norway, 287–8
- opposition to Christianity in Norwegian, 115–18
- pluralist universalism in, 291–2
- problems faced by, 292
- relational model of integration, 72
- relevant knowledge for, 285–7
- religion's role in, 286–7
- empowerment of social work clients, 152, 153, 155, 156–7
- equality as principle of multiculturalism, 21, 31–2
- Essed, Philomena, 47
- ethnic minorities
  - marked by alleged culture, 2
  - as placing strain on welfare system, 25–6
  - responsibilities of for integration, 26
- ethno-nationalism in Norwegian education, 126–7
- Europe, transformation of countries in, 1
- European Union (EU), citizen rights beyond nation-state, 112–13
- evaluation of immigrant pupils in Norway, 120–5
- extremes in media, focus on, 234

- family and political participation, 168, 170–2
- family backgrounds in the Netherlands, 52
- fear of difference, 230
- Finland, immigration in, 3
- Fitzgerald, D., 162
- fluidity, 1–2
- foreigners, fear of, 230
- Friedman, J., 182
- friendship networks in Bijlmer, Amsterdam, 211–14

- gender
  - in the Netherlands, 247
  - and voting behaviour, 172–3

- generosity of receiving countries, 26–7
- Ghorashi, H., 26, 40, 202, 204, 245–6
- Giddens, A., 8, 135
- gift, analysis of, 188
- Glick-Schiller, N., 162
- Goossens, Mary Lou, 207

- Haan, Francisca de, 46
- Habermas, J., 161
- Hartman, L., 207
- headscarves (as religious expression)
  - discrepancy between legal and political debate, 258–9
  - parliamentary discussions in Netherlands, 250–6
  - regulations and debate in Netherlands, 248–50
  - and victimization of women, 256–7
  - women as victims, 256–7
- Hernes, Gudmund, 115
- history, 286
- Hofland, H.J.A., 39
- homeland politics, 165–6, 166
- housing for immigrants in Sweden, 135–6
- Husband, Charles, 236
- hybridization, 181–2
  - experiential basis of, 186–91
  - expressions of in Rudenga, 184–6
  - identity shifts in of youth of Rudenga, Oslo, 191–5
  - survey in Rudenga, Oslo, 183–4
- hyper Norwegian-ness, 237–9

- identity
  - Dutchness as national identity, 84–5
  - ethnic/religious v. national, 19
  - politics in the US, 78–80
  - shifts in of youth of Rudenga, Oslo, 191–5
  - switching and crossing in Bijlmer, Amsterdam, 207–10
- IJsseling, Samuel, 8
- immigrants
  - as placing strain on welfare system, 25–6
  - responsibilities of for integration, 26
  - as threat to state sovereignty, 6
  - as victims, 224–5

- immigration backlash against, 20
 changes in concept, 5
 Finland, 3
 Netherlands, 3
 Norway, 3
Improving Opportunity, Strengthening Society (Home Office 2005), 23
- inclusion models of, 20–2
 policies in Britain, 22–4
- individualization and democracy, 8–9
- individuals
 and liberal model of integration, 59–62
 and relational model of integration, 68–9
- inequality in the labour market, research on, 92–3
- infantilization of black people, 44
- informational society, 284–5
- Ingold, Tim, 196
- integration
 in Bijlmer, Amsterdam, 201–2 collective model, 63–8 and duration of residence, 167 liberal model, 59–63 newspaper survey in Norway, 227–8
 political, 163
 and political participation, 175–6 relational model, 68–73 responsibilities of immigrants, 26 as trust and interest, 164–6, 164–7 as two-way process, 23–4 use of term, 19n1, 21
- intelligence testing in Norway, 121–5
- interest, political, 164–5, 165
- Iran
 emigrants' identity in the US, 80–1 history of migration from, 75–7 individualist orientation of migrants in Netherlands, 82, 83–4
- Islam, assumption of threat of, 2
- Islamic identity as obstructing integration, 25
- iterations, democratic, 113
- Jenson, J., 21
- journalism, focus on extremes in, 234
- Kärreman, D., 94
- Kivisto, P., 162
- knowledge human, 195–6 importance of in today's society, 284–5 relevant for education, 285–7
- Koopmans, R., 26, 82, 160
- Kristeva, Julia, 230
- Kymlicka, W., 26, 112, 118
- labelling of migrants by social workers, 146. see also categorization
- labour control, 94
- labour market, discrimination in, 92–3
- Larsen, Tord, 235
- leniency of receiving countries, 26–7
- liberal model of integration, 59–63
- Maalouf, Amin, 73
- Mauss, Marcel, 188
- media. see also newspaper survey in Norway focus on extremes in, 234 and rights, 236–7
- Meerman, M., 93
- men, young, 72
- migrants culture of as source of problems, 3–4 integration in Bijlmer, Amsterdam, 201–2 interest in homeland politics, 165–6, 166 otherness of in Netherlands, 84–6 pillarization of in Netherlands, 4
 as threat to state sovereignty, 6
- migration and development of the nation-state, 5 studies in the Netherlands, 47–8
 as temporary, 84
- minorities, marked by alleged culture, 2
- mobility, as key issue in social theory, 1
- mobilization of ethnic minorities, 163 factors influencing, 167–8
 networks, 168–9
 role of mosques, 173–5
 strategies for, 166–7
 and trust and interest, 164–6, 164–7
- Modood, T., 26, 27–8, 30

- mosques, role in political mobilization, 173–5
- mothers as role models, 208
- multiculturalism
- additional principles, 29–31
  - backlash against, 20
  - and collective model of integration, 64–8
  - and culture, 27–8
  - defined, 288, 289
  - development of in the US, 289
  - in education, 111–12, 289
  - as including the whole society, 30–1
  - as nationalism writ small, 290
  - principles of, 21–2
  - retreat from, 19–20
  - strengthened principles, 31–2
  - as undermining social cohesion, 25
- Muslims, focus against in Netherlands, 54–5
- mutual accommodation, 29
- nation-states
- and the church in Norway, 118–19
  - and collective model of integration, 63–4
  - development of and migration, 5
  - and liberal model of integration, 60
  - and relational model of integration, 69–70
- national identity
- Dutchness, 84–5
  - in a multiethnic society, 30–1
  - in Norwegian schools, 287–8
- neger*, dictionary definition of in Netherlands, 42
- Negro Kiss (cookie), change of name, 42–3
- Nell, L.M., 162
- Netherlands
- anti-racist norm in, 41–2
  - approach to research on discrimination at work, 94–6
  - avoidance of talk about race, 40, 52, 56
  - black politicians in, 56
  - colour differences, terminology for, 45–6
  - compared to Scandinavian countries, 283–4
  - coping strategies for racism, 52–3
  - cultural traditions and language in Bijlmer, Amsterdam, 208–10
  - culturalism in, 4
  - culture change in the province researched, 96–9
  - dictionary definition of neger; 42
  - family backgrounds in, 52
  - gender and women, 247
  - headscarf regulations and debate, 248–50
  - history of pillarization, 244–6, 245n1
  - immigration in, 3
  - importance of education in Bijlmer, Amsterdam, 213–14
  - importance of skin colour in, research on, 48–52
  - individualist orientation of Iranians in, 82, 83–4
  - infantilization of black people, 44
  - Iranian migration to, 76–7
  - legal v. political debate on headscarves, 258–9
  - leniency of, 26–7
  - migrant integration in Bijlmer, Amsterdam, 201–2
  - mothers as role models in Bijlmer, Amsterdam, 208
  - move to anti-Muslim focus, 54–5
  - Negro Kiss (cookie), change of name, 42–3
  - non-belonging of Iranians, 86
  - organizations of migrants, 246–7
  - parliamentary discussions on headscarves, 250–6
  - paternalism towards black people, 44, 45, 46
  - pillarization of migrants, 4, 82–3
  - race and migration studies in, 47–8
  - racial and ethnic segregation in, 39
  - religion in, 244–5
  - religion in Bijlmer, Amsterdam, 213
  - report on racial discrimination in, 48
  - reporting of racial incidents, 48
  - street language of Bijlmer, Amsterdam, 212
  - super-diversity in Bijlmer, Amsterdam, 205–7

- switching and crossing of identity in
  - Bijlmer, Amsterdam, 207–10
  - team control in the police, 99–103
  - trust and reciprocity in networks in
    - Bijlmer, Amsterdam, 211–14
  - unemployment among minority groups, 92
- networks
  - in Bijlmer, Amsterdam, 211–14
  - immigrant groups in London and Manchester, 203n3
  - need for and benefits of, 202
  - and political participation, 168–9, 170–1
- newspaper survey in Norway
  - fear of what is different, 230
  - focus on extremes in media, 234
  - hyper Norwegian-ness, 237–9
  - immigrants as victims, 224–5
  - integration, 227–8
  - minorities representation during century, 221, 222, 223
  - Muslims in the media, 229
  - new voices of immigrants, 228–9
  - research project, 220–1
  - Somalis in the media, 230–1, 237–9
  - Somalis seen as symbols of crime, 231–3
  - strangers and ambivalence, 233–4
  - ‘they’ as the problem, 225–7
  - ‘we’ as the problem, 224–5
- Nimako, Kwame, 47
- non-belonging of Iranians in Netherlands, 86
- Noon, M., 92–3
- normative universalism, 62
- Norway
  - Birkebeinerne (reality TV series), 219–20
  - Christianity in education, 114–15, 115n5
  - church and the state, 118–19
  - clichés in debate programmes, 273–4
  - criminality of migrants in debate programmes, 268–73, 279–81
  - culturalism in, 5
  - debate programmes approach to migrant issue, 275
  - education and national identity, 287–8
  - ethno-nationalism in education, 126–7
  - evaluation of immigrant pupils, 120–5
  - experiences of youths in Rudenga, Oslo, 186–91
  - focus on extremes in media, 234
  - hyper Norwegian-ness, 237–9
  - identity shifts in of youth of Rudenga, Oslo, 191–5
  - immigration focus in debate programmes, 266
  - immigration in, 3
  - influences on voting behaviour, 168–72
  - limited recognition of diversity, 119–20
  - migrants seen as problem in debate programmes, 273–4
  - mobilization strategies, 167
  - mosque influence on mobilization, 173–5
  - Muslims in the media, 229
  - new voices of immigrants, 228–9
  - newspaper survey, 220–1
  - opposition to Christianity in education, 115–18
  - performance levels of pupils, 125
  - pluralist universalism in education, 291–2
  - popularisation of debate programmes, 275–7
  - press representation of minorities during century, 221, 222, 223
  - sampled debate programmes, 267
  - separation of church and state, 127
  - Somalis in the media, 230–1, 237–9
  - State Church in, 117–18
  - strangers and ambivalence, 233–4
  - survey in Rudenga, Oslo, 183–4
  - survey on political participation, 163
  - ‘they’ as the problem, 225–7
  - trust/interest and political participation, 164–6, 164–6
  - TV channels, 274–5
  - ‘we’ as the problem, 224–5
- Okin, S.M., 27
- Orientalism, 3
- Orientalism* (Said), 3
- Ortner, S., 204

- Oslo. see Rudenga, Oslo
 Østergaard-Nilsen, E., 161 otherness of migrants, 156, 187 focus on by media, 233–4, 275
   Netherlands, 84–6
 others, fear of, 230
- Pakistani community in Norway family influences on voting behaviour, 169–72 gender and voting behaviour, 172–3
   mosque influence on mobilization, 173–5
- paradoxes, rise of, 2
 Parekh, B., 25, 29, 34, 71 participation, 196–7 of ethnic minorities, 163
   factors influencing, 167–72
   and family, 170–2
   and gender, 172–3
   and integration, 175–6
   and networks, 168–9
   as principle of multiculturalism, 21, 31–2
   role of mosques, 173–5
   and trust and interest, 164–6, 164–6, 164–7
- paternalism, 44, 45, 46
 Paulle, Bowen, 206–7
 Pennings, P., 82
 performance standards, 93–4, 104–6
 phenomenological semiotics, 182–3, 186–91
 Phillips, T., 26
 Pierce, C.S., 182–3
 pillarization history of in Netherlands, 244–6, 245n1 of migrants in Netherlands, 4, 82–3 pluralist universalism, 290–2 poetics of dwelling, 196–7 police in the Netherlands, 99–103 political integration, 163, 164–6, 164–7.
   see also integration
 popularisation of debate programmes, 275–7
 Porta, Donatella delle, 161, 171
 Portes, A., 162
 post-bureaucratic labour control, 94, 106 post-national membership, 113 press. see newspaper survey in Norway Prins, B., 84, 245, 247
 psychometric testing in Norway, 121–5 public discourses, 25–8
 Putnam, R.D., 168–9, 202, 203–4
- race
   avoidance of talk about in Netherlands, 40, 52, 56 family backgrounds in the Netherlands, 52
   studies of in Netherlands, 39
 Race Relations Acts, UK, 22, 24 racism acknowledgement of effects, 32
   anti-racist norm in Europe, 41–2
   coping strategies in the Netherlands, 52–3 experienced by Rudenga youths, 189–90 move to anti-Muslim focus in Netherlands, 54–5 reporting of racial incidents in Netherlands, 48 skin colour in Netherlands, 48–52
   at work, research on, 92–3
 Rawls, J., 80
 reality TV series Birkebeinerne, 219–20 receiving countries, leniency and generosity of, 26–7 reciprocity in networks in Bijlmer, Amsterdam, 211–14 Rehman, Shabana, 234
 relational model of integration, 68–73
 religion
   in Bijlmer, Amsterdam, 213
   Christianity in Norwegian education, 114–15, 115n5
   Netherlands, 244–5
   opposition to Christianity in Norwegian education, 115–18 role in education, 286–7
   separation from the state in Norway, 127
 report on racial discrimination in Netherlands, 48

- representation, relational model of integration, 72–3
- rights and the media, 236–7
- risk society, 8
- Rothstein, B., 164
- Rudenga, Oslo
 experiences of youths in, 186–91 expressions of hybridization in, 184–6 hybridization survey in, 183–4 identity shifts in youth of, 191–5 racist incidents encountered, 189–90
- Ryg, Eli, 219
- Saharso, S., 245, 247
- Said, Edward, 3
- Sarangi, S., 145
- Scandinavian countries compared to Netherlands, 283–4. see also Netherlands; Norway; Sweden
- Scheffer, Paul, 26, 201
- Schiller, Glick, 5
- second modernity, 8
- segregation as chosen in Netherlands, 39
- Sikking, E., 93
- Sivanandan, A., 32
- skin colour in Netherlands, research on, 48–52
- social capital, 202, 213
- social cohesion
 concept of, 21
 diversity as undermining, 25
- social networks, 202, 203n3, 211–14
- social recognition for cultural differences, 7–8
- social work
 converging/diverging solutions, 152–5, 157
 as cultural framework, 152 culture and migrant clients, 146 culture seen as a difficulty, 148–50 dealing with diversity in practice, 150–2
 difficulties with cultural diversity, 147–8
 individual approach to clients, 147 paternalism in, 46
 socio-ideological labour control, 94, 104–5
- Solomos, J., 22–3
- Somalis
 in Norway, 230–1
 seen as symbols of crime, 231–3
- sovereignty of the state, migrants as threat to, 6
- Soysal, Y., 113
- states
 and the church in Norway, 118–19
 and collective model of integration, 63–4
 development of and migration, 5
 and liberal model of integration, 61–2 migrants as threat to sovereignty, 6
 and relational model of integration, 69–70
 separation from the church in Norway, 127
- Stolcke, Verena, 3, 85
- strangers as ambivalent, 233–4
- Stratton, J., 79
- street language of Bijlmer, Amsterdam,
 212
- Strength in Diversity - Towards a Community Cohesion & Race Equality Strategy* (Home Office 2004), 2
- structuration, theory of, 135
- super-diversity, 1, 205–7
- surprise, European, when faced by blackness, 43–4
- Sweden
 categorization - Swedish/immigrant children, 136–8
 cultural blindness in schools, 138, 139 housing for immigrants in, 135–6 schools and teachers researched, 136
 Swedishness seen as norm, 138–40
- Tambiah, S., 196–7
- Tarrow, S., 161, 171
- team control in the Netherlands police, 99–103
- technocratic labour control, 94, 104–5
- television channels in Norway, 274–5
- Tillie, Jean, 163, 164
- tolerance and citizenship, 8
- transnationalism and democracy, 160–2, 171–2

- influences on voting behaviour, 171–2
- trust
  - in networks in Bijlmer, Amsterdam, 211–14
  - political, 164, 164–5
- uncertainty
  - in late modern societies, 2
  - in social relations, 187–8
- United States
  - assimilation theory and migrants to, 78
  - development of multiculturalism, 289
  - diversity, 203
  - history of Iranian immigration to, 76–7
  - Iranian migrants' identity in, 80–1
  - national identity discourse, 78–80
- universalism, 62, 291
- values, sharing of, 70–1
- Vertovec, Steve, 1, 202–3
- Vries, S. de, 93
- Waldinger, R., 162
- Wekker, G., 85
- welfare state
  - development of and migration, 5
  - immigrants as placing strain on, 25–6
- Wikan, U., 27, 145
- Wilders, Geert, 250, 250n10
- Willmott, H., 94
- women
  - in the Netherlands, 247
  - as victims, 224–5, 256–7
  - voting behaviour of Pakistani, 172–3
- work
  - approach to research on discrimination in, 94–6
  - culture change in the province researched, 96–9
  - discrimination in, 92–3
  - performance standards, 93–4, 104–6
  - team control in the Netherlands police, 99–103
- Worley, C., 24
- Young, Iris, 30, 31