

Contents

List of Tables and Boxes	vii
Acknowledgements	ix
1
Overcoming Conflict:
The Importance of Civil-Society Peacebuilding	1
Aim of this book	4
Exploring everyday practices of civil-society peacebuilding	8
My experiences with an interactive approach	17
Outline of the book	23
2
Civil Society Building Peace: The Development of an Idea	27
Addressing conflict in the Cold War and the offstage roles of civil society	28
From ending conflict to building peace – civil society moving into the spotlight	30
After 9/11 – from peacebuilding to addressing insecurity	43
Images of civil-society peacebuilding	49
3
Mapping the Peacebuilding Landscape: Policies and Practices of International Development Organizations	51
Peacebuilding in mandates and general policies	53
Practices of peacebuilding	58
Discussion – diverse strategies of civil-society peacebuilding	68
4
Grounding Local Peace Organizations:
A Case Study of Southern Sudan	75
The meaning of organizations	76
Civil society in conflict: The case of southern Sudan	78
(International) organizations strengthening Sudanese civil society	80
The Sudanese Women’s Voice for Peace	82
Women’s Peace Demonstration Centre in Narus	85
A process approach to peace organizations	88
Conclusion	92

5	Imagining the Great Lakes Region: Civil-society Regional Approaches for Peacebuilding in Rwanda, Burundi, and DR Congo	95
	Global discourses of regions and regional peacebuilding	97
	A brief history of regional conflict in the Great Lakes Region	100
	Regional responses to the crisis	104
	Regional approaches for peacebuilding in practice	108
	Conclusion	120
6	Crisis or Continuity? Framing Land Disputes and Local Conflict Resolution in Burundi	123
	Returnees and land disputes in Burundi	125
	Interventions by (inter)national NGOs	127
	Case I – Land disputes and local conflict resolution in Southern Rumonge	129
	Case II – Land disputes and local conflict resolution in Giteranyi	133
	The character of land disputes and implications for intervention	137
	Conclusion	142
7	To Conform or to Confront? Civil Society and Agrarian Conflict in Post-conflict Guatemala	145
	Images of Guatemalan civil society	146
	Conflictividad agraria in Guatemala	148
	Guatemalan civil society addressing agrarian conflict	152
	Pastoral de la Tierra San Marcos and the former labourers of the finca San Luis Malacatán	155
	Conclusion	161
8	Conclusion: Civil-Society Peacebuilding – What Does it Mean in Practice?	165
	What is peacebuilding?	167
	Peacebuilding policies and organizing practices	170
	Framing conflict and peacebuilding interventions	175
	The politics of ordering	179
	Daily practices of civil society	183
	What does this imply for practitioners?	186
	Bibliography	191
	Index	215