

Index

Tables and boxes are indicated by italic page numbers.

- academic research 3–4
- action research 19–20
- actor orientation 8–9, 77, 165
- actors, civil-society, recognition of
 - contributions of 2
- advocacy organizations 35–6
- Afghanistan
 - context, impact of on peacebuilding practice 72
 - peacebuilding practices of international organizations 63–5, 66–7, 69
 - selection of as case study 52
- Agenda for Peace* (Boutros-Ghali) 31
- agrarian conflict in Guatemala
 - and civil society after peace agreement 152–5
 - history and extent of 148–52
 - Pastoral de la Tierra San Marcos 155–61
 - San Luis finca 157–61
- Anderson, B. 100
- applied peace organizations 29
- Asociación Integral de Desarrollo Malacateco (ASIDM) 158–60, 161
- Association Convenance Episcopale D’Afrique Centrale (ACEAC)* 108–10
- assumptions
 - about churches 97–9
 - international organizations in post-conflict situations 162
 - of peacebuilding
 - explicit expression of 187
 - importance of 175
 - resettlement village example 1–2
 - regional approaches of international organizations 119
 - underlying non-governmental organizations (NGOs) 41–2
- Bashingantahe* 127–8, 132–3, 136–7, 141–2
- Biekart, K. 148
- Bosnia-Herzegovina 41
- Burgos-Debray, Elisabeth 2
- Burundi
 - background to research in 124–5
 - Bashingantahe* 127–8, 132–3, 136–7, 141–2
 - conflict resolution
 - Giteranyi 136–7
 - Southern Rumonge 132–3
 - diversity of factors concerning land disputes 137–8
 - framing of land disputes in 123–4, 142–4
 - Giteranyi
 - conflict resolution 136–7
 - land disputes in 134–6
 - returning refugees 133–4
 - women’s vulnerability to land disputes 135, 137
 - interventions by NGOs 127–9
 - land disputes 125–7
 - Giteranyi 134–6
 - Southern Rumonge 129–32
 - local institutions 139–42
 - numbers of refugees 125
 - polygamy 134
 - protection of vulnerable people 141–2
 - responsibilities of local institutions and the state 139–40
 - returning refugees 125–7, 129–30, 133–4

- Southern Rumonge
 - conflict resolution 132–3
 - land disputes 129–32
 - returning refugees 129–32
 - structural nature of land disputes 138–9
 - women's vulnerability to land disputes 135
- capacity building in Southern Sudan 80–2, 92–3
- case studies
 - aim of 17
 - data based on 17
 - selection of 52
 - see also* Burundi; Great Lakes region; Guatemala; Southern Sudan
- catchwords 14
- categorization of contexts by organizations 177
- Catholic Church 108–10, 114, 132, 137, 147, 153, 155–61
- CED-Caritas 96, 124, 127, 129, 138n22, 21
- Chandler, D. 41, 163
- change, theories of, and NGOs 33
- churches
 - ACEAC conference 108–10
 - as alternative discourse 97
 - assumptions about 97–9
 - background to research on 96
 - Catholic Church 108–10, 114, 132, 137, 147, 153, 155–61
 - and civil-society organizations 97
 - in Southern Sudan 79, 81
- citizen diplomacy 30
- civil society
 - in Afghanistan 64–5
 - consequences of global security issues 46–9
 - daily practices of 183–6
 - definition and use of term 27–8
 - development of in Guatemala 147
 - and failing state institutions 184
 - and good governance 38
 - and governments/political movements 114–15
 - in Guatemala after peace agreement 61–3, 152–5, 161–2
 - as heavily affected by conflict 184
 - images of peacemaking by 49–50
 - international organizations' views of 55–7, 185–6
 - need to contextualize 5
 - peacebuilding role 36–9, 183–6, 188
 - and politics 113–14, 116, 173–4
 - and regional approaches 97
 - role in relation to the state 183–4
 - roles in reconciliation 43
 - in Southern Sudan 58–9, 79–80
- Cockburn, Cynthia 88
- Cold War 28–30
- Colebatch, H.K. 14, 15–16, 36, 124
- Comité de Unidad Campesina (CUC) 152
- Commission Nationale des Terres et Autres Biens* (CNTB) 140
- commitment between research partners 21–2
- complexity
 - of conflicts and peacebuilding 11–12, 113, 120, 166, 180, 187
 - of research 18–19
- conflicts
 - actors in resolution of during Cold War 28–30
 - civil society as heavily affected by 184
 - complexity of 11–12
 - continuities with peace 176–7, 188
 - in the Great Lakes region 100–3
 - informalization of 4, 30–1
 - interpretations of 3
 - in Southern Sudan 78
 - see also* post-conflict situations; simplification of conflict/peacekeeping
- constructivism 12
- contexts
 - categorization of by organizations 177
 - impact on peacebuilding practice 72
- CONTIERRA 150, 151, 153, 156, 158, 159, 160, 161
- conventions 15
- Co-operation for Peace and Unity (CPAU) 65
- Coordinadora Nacional Indígena y Campesina* (CONIC) 152, 155

- Cordaid
 in Afghanistan 65
 and civil society 66
 comparison of practices to other organizations 70, 71 context, impact of on practice 72 and development of research questions 20
 in Guatemala 62
 and interactive research 18
 mandate compared to other organizations 57
 mandate of 51, 55
 peace as central theme 53
 peacebuilding practices 59, 62, 65, 66
 re-labelling of activities as peacebuilding 68
 in Southern Sudan 59
 views of civil society 55–7
- counter-discourses 10
- Cramer, C. 39
- Crowther, S. 41–2
- decentred, organizations as 90–1, 173
- democracy, promotion of 36
- development
 combined with peacebuilding 80–1 impact of peacebuilding discourses 170
 as peacebuilding 39–40
 rights-based approaches to 47–8 and security 45
- development knowledge 10
- development organizations, peacebuilding roles of 34–5
- discourses defined and types 9–11 different, existing at same time 166 peacebuilding, impact on agencies 72–3 peacebuilding as 168 role in simplifying reality 12–13, 166
- domains of intervention 55, 66–7
 of peacebuilding 5, 32–3, 38, 50, 167, 170, 171, 178
- dominant discourses 9–10
- DPO (Dutch peace organization) 83–5
- Duffield, M. 10, 30, 40–1, 42, 45, 49, 181
- economic reconstruction
 in Afghanistan 63, 64, 65
 funding for 61
 as peacebuilding 32, 39–40, 70, 76
- ethnicity in Great Lakes region 102
- ethnographic methodology 16–17
- finca* San Luis 157–61
- FONTIERRA 150–1, 153, 156, 158, 161
- framing 123–4, 142–4, 175–9
- Galtung, J. 29, 121, 145
- Gauster, S. 151
- gender
Bashingantaha as unfavourable towards women 137, 141 limited role of women 92
 process approach to organizations 88–92
 women in Southern Sudan, contribution of 82–8 women's role in peacebuilding 38–9, 41
 women's vulnerability to land disputes 135
- Giddens, A. 8, 9, 77
- Giteranyi
 conflict resolution 136–7
 land disputes in 134–6
 returning refugees 133–4
- global security
 consequences for civil-society peacebuilding 46–9 emergence of concept 44
 threats to 44–6
- Goodhand, J. 6
- Gore, Al 45
- governance
 and civil society 38
 reform of as peacebuilding 36–7
- Great Lakes Region
 ACEAC conference 108–10
 civil society and governments/political movements 114–15 conflicts in 100–3
 crisis in 104–5, 108

- defining regions 99–100
- differences between countries 103
- difficulties with regional analysis and programming 110–13, 112n12
- ethnicity as issue 102
- increase in organizations activities 95
- Interhamwe*, presence of 115
- land, scarcity of 102–3
- land-related conflicts 111
- meetings/networks 105, 106
- mineral resources in 102
- national strategies as preference 117–18
- programmes 105, 107, 108
- refugees in 102
- regional approaches to crisis in 104–5, 108
- scarcity of resources in 102–3
- Guatemala
 - agrarian conflict in 148–52
 - civil society after peace agreement 152–5
 - civil society development in 147
 - CONTIERRA 151
 - criticism of peace agreements 145–6
 - difficulties of civil society after peace agreement 147–8
 - failure of peace agreement concerning land 150
 - finca* San Luis 157–61
 - FONTIERRA 150–1
 - juridical system as inadequate 151
 - lack of political will 151–2
 - land reforms 149
 - Pastoral de laTierra San Marcos (PTSM) 155–61
 - peacebuilding practices of international organizations 61–3, 66–7
 - selection of as case study 52
 - state institutions as ineffective 150–1
 - unequal distribution of land 149
- Guttal, S. 47
- Harcourt, W. 47
- Hewitt de Alcantara, C. 183
- Hilhorst, D. 1, 3, 9, 10, 13, 14, 15, 16, 18, 19, 34, 35, 41, 53, 59, 68, 69, 73, 77, 82, 97, 118n17
- Hobart, M. 10
- Howell, J. 147
- human security 44, 47
- humanitarian organizations, peacebuilding roles of 34
- I, Rigoberta Menchú* (Burgos-Debray) 2
- identity, multiple, of organizations 89
- ideology of organizations, impact of 178
- images of peacebuilding 1–2, 175, 187, 188
- informalization of conflicts 4, 30–1
- interactive approach to research 8, 17–23, 21
- interface analysis 17
- intergovernmental organizations, peacebuilding roles of 35
- international organizations
 - assumptions concerning regional approaches 119
 - assumptions for post-conflict situations 162
 - and authorities of rebel movements 81
 - capacity building 80–2
 - combination of development and peacebuilding 80–1
 - comparison of peacebuilding mandates 57–8
 - comparison of peacebuilding practices 69–71
 - concerns over peacebuilding roles 42
 - contribution of 6
 - domains of intervention 55, 66–7
 - ideology and experience of as influence 178
 - impact of peacebuilding discourses 72–3
 - and implementation of promised changes 163
 - knowledge of everyday peacebuilding practices 186–7
 - mandates concerning peacebuilding 51, 53–5
 - as partners in peace 189
 - peacebuilding practices of 3, 24, 58–65, 66–7, 73, 170–1
 - peacebuilding roles taken on 34–6
 - regional analysis by 113

- regional approaches in Great Lakes area 105
- re-labelling of activities as
 - peacebuilding 68
 - selection for case studies 52
 - simplification of situations by 6–7, 166–7, 175, 179, 187
 - views of civil society 55–7, 185–6
- interventionism, new 44–5
- interventions
 - depoliticizing 181–2
 - domains of 55, 66–7
 - domains of for international organizations 55
 - enabling 180
 - legitimizing 179–80
 - as means to political and security ends 46
- Iraq invasion 44–5
- Isakson, S.R. 151
- Islamic terrorism 44
- J&P Commission of the Catholic Church 132, 137
- justice systems, traditional 43, 127–8, 132–3, 136–7, 141–2
- Kaldor, M. 28
- Kane, J. 6
- Kivu provinces 100–3, 108, 110, 111, 112, 115, 116, 118
- Klein, N. 40
- knowledge
 - development 10
 - production of 18–19
- labels 10, 14, 167, 168–9
- labour movements 152, 153, 154
- land
 - background to Burundi research 124–5
 - conflicts over 111
 - disputes (see also agrarian conflict in Guatemala)
 - concerning returning refugees 125–7
 - diversity of factors concerning 137–8
 - framing of in Burundi 123–4, 142–4
 - in Giteranyi 134–6
 - in Southern Rumonge 129–32, 130–2
 - structural nature of 138–9
- interventions by NGOs in Burundi 127–9
- responsibilities of local institutions and the state 139–40
- scarcity of 102–3
- Law, J. 12–13
- Lederach, J.P. 14, 30, 31, 37, 42, 117
- legal reflex 178, 181
- Lemarchand, R. 103
- Lewer, N. 6
- local capacity for peace 34, 53, 76, 92
- Long, N. 8, 9, 15, 16, 17, 73, 77, 165, 166
- Maathai, Wangari 45
- Mamdani, M. 98–9
- mandates of international organizations 53–5
- Menchú Tum, Rigoberta 2–4
- metaphors 14
- methodology for research 16–17
- Miall, H. 29
- mineral resources in the Great Lakes region 102
- Morgan, G. 11–12
- Mosse, D. 15, 16, 166
- multiple identities/realities of organizations 89–90
- narratives 14
- neo-liberal economic reforms 40
- new social movements 28, 147
- New Sudan Council of Churches (NSCC) 79, 91
- non-governmental organizations (NGOs)
 - assumptions underlying 41–2
 - and church-related programmes 81
 - civil society as standing for 28
 - combination of development and peacebuilding 80–1
 - contribution of 6
 - and development as peacebuilding 39

- direct peace work in Southern Sudan 81
 - expansion of sector 40–1
 - history of, importance of 88–9
 - interventions by in Burundi 127–9
 - land disputes in Burundi 140
 - and political agendas 47
 - roles during Cold War 29
 - roles in peacebuilding 23, 25, 34–5, 42, 46
 - in Southern Sudan 79–80, 81
 - support for local civil society 38
 - tendency to draw parallels 179
- Norwegian Church Aid (NCA)
 - in Afghanistan 65
 - and civil society 66
 - comparison of practices to other organizations 70–1
 - in Guatemala 62–3
 - mandate compared to other organizations 57
 - mandate of 51, 55
 - peace as central theme 53–4
 - peacebuilding practices 59–60, 61, 62–3, 65, 66
 - re-labelling of activities as peacebuilding 68, 69
 - rights-based approach 56, 57, 60–1
 - in Southern Sudan 59–60, 61
 - views of civil society 55, 56–7
- Norwegian People's Aid (NPA)
 - and civil society 66
 - comparison of practices to other organizations 70, 71
 - in Guatemala 63
 - mandate compared to other organizations 57
 - mandate of 51
 - peace as side effect of programmes 54–5
 - peacebuilding practices 60–1, 63, 66
 - rights-based approach 51, 54, 57, 60–1, 70
 - in Southern Sudan 60–1
 - views of civil society 56–7
- ordering, politics of 179–82
- organizations, peacebuilding
 - categorization of contexts by 177
 - as decentred 90–1, 173
 - dynamic approach to 76–77
 - explicit expression of assumptions 187
 - history of, impact of 88–9, 171–2
 - impact of ideology and experiences of 178
 - multiple identities of 89
 - multiple realities of 3, 90
 - organizing practices of 5–7, 166, 170–4, 186, 187, 188
 - and politics 91–2, 173–4
 - process approach to 88–92, 93
 - technical responses, reliance on 177–8
 - tendency to draw parallels 179
 - see also* international organizations
- Paris, R. 40
- participatory research 19–20
- Pastoral de laTierra San Marcos (PTSM) 155–61
- peace
 - assumptions about 33
 - continuities with conflict 176–7, 188
 - strengthening of local capacity for 34, 53, 76, 92
- Peace Demonstration Centres 83, 85–6
- peace organizations, peacebuilding roles taken on 35–6
- peacebuilding
 - civil society's role 36–9
 - as claim-bearing label 68
 - combined with development 80–1
 - comparison of practices in 69–71
 - complexity of 11–12
 - criticisms of organizations' agendas 40–2
 - definitions 31–2
 - development and economic reconstruction as 39–40
 - as a discourse 168
 - diverse definitions of 5
 - domains identified with 32–3, 32–4, 36–7, 39–40, 42–3, 50
 - emergence of 30
 - explicit expression of assumptions 187
 - impact of context on practice 72

- impact of discourses on development
 - 170
 - as a label 168–9
 - mandates of international organizations 53–5
 - as pointing to particular activities 167–8
 - policies and local practice 170–1
 - as political process 188–9
 - practices of international organizations 58–65, 66–7
 - re-labelling of activities as 68–9
 - representation of 3–4
 - restoration of social fabric 42–3
 - strategic and economic interests, influence of 46–7
 - understanding of, influences on 169–70
 - women, role of 38–9, 41
 - see also* simplification of conflict/peacekeeping
- Pearce, J. 147
- Philippines, roots of civil-society organization 41
- Plumb, E. 38
- policies
 - implementation of 15
 - of international organizations 53–5, 57–8, 66–7
 - interpretation and implementation of 73
 - making of 15
 - purpose of 15–16
- politics
 - of ordering 179–82
 - and organizations 91–2
 - and regional civil society 113–14
 - unwillingness to address in regional forums 117, 117n16
- polygamy in Burundi 134
- post-conflict situations
 - agrarian conflict in Guatemala 148–52
 - civil society difficulties in 147–8, 161–2
 - civil society in Guatemala after peace agreement 152–5
 - continuities between conflict and peace 176–7
 - criticism of Guatemala's peace agreements 145–6
 - Pastoral de la Tierra San Marcos (PTSM) 155–61
 - poverty and terrorism 45
 - practices of international organizations in peacebuilding 58–65, 66–7
 - Prendergast, J. 38, 79
 - process approach to organizations 88–92, 93
 - production of knowledge 18–19
 - Putnam, R.D. 38
 - realities of organizations, multiple 90
 - reconciliation 42–3, 170
 - reconstruction
 - in Afghanistan 63, 64, 65
 - funding for 61
 - as peacebuilding 32, 39–40, 70, 76
 - refugees
 - framing land disputes in Burundi 123–4
 - in Great Lakes region 102
 - numbers of Burundian 125
 - returning to Burundi 125–7
 - regional approaches
 - assumptions of international organizations 119
 - civil society and politics 114–15, 116
 - conflict in the Great Lakes region 100–3
 - and crisis in Great Lakes area 104–5, 108
 - defining regions 99–100
 - differences between countries 103
 - difficulties with analysis and programming 110–13, 112n12
 - ethnicity as issue 102
 - increase in organizations activities 95
 - Interhamwe*, presence of 115
 - lack of local motivation for 119–20
 - land, scarcity of 102–3
 - meetings/networks 105, 106
 - mineral resources in the Great Lakes region 102
 - national strategies as preference 117–18
 - politics and civil society 113–14

- programmes 105, 107, 108
- refugees in Great Lakes region 102
- scarcity of resources in the Great Lakes region 102–3
- sensitivity to instability 114
- unwillingness to address politics 117, 117n16
- religion 60, 79
 - see also* churches
- religious organizations 79, 81
 - see also* churches
- research
 - agreements with partners 21
 - commitment between partners 21–2
 - complexity of 18–19
 - development of questions 20
 - ethnographic methodology 16–17
 - interactive approach 17–23, 21
 - reduction of biases 22–3
 - representation of conflict and peacebuilding 3–4
 - steering committee/groups 19
- Richards, P. 28, 30, 46, 145
- rights-based approaches
 - to development 47–8
 - Norwegian Church Aid (NCA) 56, 57, 60–1
 - Norwegian People's Aid (NPA) 54–5
- Rwanda 39, 41, 43, 90, 98, 114
 - see also* Great Lakes region
- San Luis finca 157–61
- scarcity of resources in the Great Lakes region 102–3
- security 44–6
- Security Council of the UN 28–9
- Seeds for Peace 83–5
- simplification of conflict/peacekeeping
 - discourse, role in 12–13
 - examples of 14–15
 - by international organizations 6–7
 - use of discourses 166
- social fabric, restoration of as peacebuilding 42–3
- social movements, new 28, 147
- society-state relations 36–7, 183–4
- solidarity aid 29
- Southern Rumonge
 - conflict resolution 132–3
 - land disputes in 130–2
 - returning refugees 129–30
- Southern Sudan
 - background to case study 75–6
 - capacity building in 80–2
 - churches in 79
 - civil society in 79–80
 - conflicts in 78
 - context, impact of on peacebuilding practice 72
 - interventions towards peace 78
 - limited role of women 92
 - NGOs in 79–80, 81
 - peacebuilding practices of international organizations 58–61, 66–7
 - process approach to organizations 88–92
 - selection of as case study 52
 - Sudanese Women's Voice for Peace (SWVP) 82–5, 88–92
 - women's contribution to peacebuilding 82–8
- SPLM/A 60
- state-society relations 36–7, 183–4
- steering committee/groups 19
- Stoll, D. 3–4
- Sudan. see Southern Sudan
- Sudanese Women's Voice for Peace (SWVP) 82–5, 88–92
- technical responses, reliance on 177–8
- terrorism 44–5
- theories of change and NGOs 33
- traditional justice systems 43, 127–8, 132–3, 136–7, 141–2
- Tschirgi, N. 99
- United Nations
 - during the Cold War 28–9
 - peacekeeping after the Cold War 29
 - peacekeeping failures 40
 - support for local civil society 38
- United Nations Development Programme (UNDP)
 - in Afghanistan 65
 - and civil society 66

- comparison of practices to other organizations 69–70, 71
- context, impact of on peacebuilding practice 72
- in Guatemala 61–2
- interventions as contributing to peace 54
- mandate compared to other organizations 57–8
- mandate of 51, 55
- peacebuilding practices 58–62, 66, 67
- re-labelling of activities as peacebuilding 68–9
 - in Southern Sudan 58–9, 60, 61
 - views of civil society 56–7
- Uvin, P. 111n9
- women
 - Bashingantahe* as unfavourable towards 137, 141
 - limited role of 92
 - process approach to organizations 88–92
 - role in peacebuilding 38–9, 41
 - in Southern Sudan, contribution of 82–8
 - vulnerability to land disputes 135