

Contents

Notes on Editors and Contributors	vii
Foreword – Archbishop Desmond Tutu	xi
Preface: The Human Face of Indigenous Australia – Jackie Huggins AM	xiii
Acknowledgements	xvii

Introduction

Pathways to Reconciliation: Bringing Diverse Voices into Conversation	1
Paul A. Komesaroff

Part I: The Complex Pathways of Reconciliation

1	Lead Essay: Evaluating Reconciliation	15
	Philipa Rothfield
2	The Task of Justice	29
	David Pettigrew
3	Conflict Resolution and Reconciliation of Peoples	41
	Alphonso Lingis
4	Hegemony, Ethics and Reconciliation	53
	Modjtaba Sadria
5	Telling a Different Story: Hope for Forgiveness and Reconciliation in Northern Ireland	67
	Geraldine Smyth O.P.
6	Truth, Reconciliation and Nation Formation in ‘Our Land’ of Timor-L’Este	79
	Damian Grenfell
7	Testimony, Nation Building and the Ethics of Witnessing: After the Truth and Reconciliation Commission in South Africa	89
	Kay Schaffer
8	Reconciliation with the Dead, and Other Unfamiliar Pathways	103
	Julian Jonker

Part II: Sites of Reconciliation

9	Lead Essay: Reconciliation: From the Usually Unspoken to the Almost Unimaginable Paul James	115
10	Accountability, Remorse and Reconciliation: Lessons from South Africa, Mozambique and Rwanda Helena Cobban	127
11	Community Reconciliation in East Timor: A Personal Perspective Patrick Burgess	139
12	The Role of Economic Development in Reconciliation: An Experience from Bosnia and Herzegovina Vince Gamberale	149
13	Between Denial and Reconciliation: Lessons from South Africa to Israel and Palestine Daphna Golan-Agnon	159
14	The Australian Reconciliation Process: An Analysis Andrew Gunstone	169
15	Stepping Forward: Reconciliation and the Good Relations Agenda in Organizational Practice in Northern Ireland Derick Wilson	179
	Index	191