

Contents

List of figures	vii
Foreword	xv
Introduction	1
PART I THE ROOTS OF ITALIAN URBAN FORM
1 Rome: The centre of the city as axis mundi	19
2 Christianity: The development of new urban forms	37
3 The Middle Ages: From the city of God to the city of man	53
PART II THE EARLY MODERN CITY
4 Early Renaissance: Perspective, representation and the ideal	75
5 High Renaissance: The modern city all'antica	95
6 Mannerism: The theatre of the city	113
7 Baroque: Scale, form and meaning	133
PART III THE CITY AND NATIONAL CONSCIOUSNESS
8 Neo-Classicism: Style and political ideology	153
9 Risorgimento : The formation of a national urban space	169
10 Fascism: The urban language of authoritarianism	185

PART IV URBAN EXPRESSION IN AN AGE OF UNCERTAINTY

11	Neo-Realism: Urban form and la dolce vita	207
12	Neo-Rationalism: Aldo Rossi and the rediscovery of typology	221
13	Labyrinths: The city of 'the years of lead'	237
14	The piazza and the politics of the present	251
	Bibliography	265
	Index	275