

Contents

Acknowledgements	ix
List of Abbreviations	xi
Introduction	xiii
Louis I. Hamilton
PART I: Social Change and Religious Reform
1 Church Reform and Society in Late Antiquity	3
Robert A. Markus
2 Gaudium et Spes : Ecclesiastical Reformers at the Start of a “New Age”	21
John Howe
PART II: The Ideas of Reform and the Intellectuals
3 Self and Cosmos in Becoming Deiform: Neoplatonic Paradigms for Reform by Self-knowledge from Augustine to Aquinas	39
Wayne J. Hankey
4 The Early Scholastics and the Reform of Doctrine and Practice	61
Marcia L. Colish
5 Fides quaerens et non quaerens intellectum : Reform and the Intellectuals in the Early Modern Period	69
John O’Malley
PART III: Clerical Reform
6 Clerical Hierarchy and Imperial Legislation in Late Antiquity: The Reformed Reformers	87
Rita Lizzi Testa
7 To Consecrate the Church: Ecclesiastical Reform and the Dedication of Churches	105
Louis I. Hamilton

8	The Reform of the Episcopate in the Libellus to Leo X by the Camaldolese Hermits Vincenzo Querini and Tommaso Giustiniani Giuseppe Alberigo	139
PART IV: The Processes of Reform
9	The Church in the Roman Empire: Changes without Reform and Reforms without Change Claire Sotinel	155
10	Text and Authority in the Formation of the Cistercian Order: Re-assessing the Early Cistercian Reform Martha G. Newman	173
11	Compliance and Defiance: The Daughters of Charity and the Council of Trent Susan E. Dinan	199
	Index	219