

Contents

Preface and Acknowledgements	vii
1 Introduction	1
2 Surveillance, Governmentality, Identity and Discourse	11
3 Discourse Theory and Analysis	61
4 Representation of Surveillance Practices	95
5 Subjectivity and Subject Positions in Discourses of Surveillance	127
6 Identity in Discourses of Surveillance	145
7 Conclusions and Implications	165
Bibliography	191
Index	209