Index

Anderson, Laurie
‘Home of the Brave’ 39
as musical cyborg 38–9
Artificial Intelligence, the body in 32

Balsamo, Anne 34, 35, 36, 38
Battersby, Christine 6, 101, 130
Bayton, Mavis 30, 59, 79, 82
Black Box, ‘Ride on Time’ 38
Bladerunner, female cyborg 34 body, the abstraction of 111

in Artificial Intelligence 32 of female instrumentalists 31 of female singers 31–2
as inscriptive surface 37–8
and technology 135
and the voice 32

separation 38

boys
and classical music 91
and classroom culture 82
composition, attitude to 94–5, 96–7 computers, home use 124 deviance, positive view of 93, 98–9, 100–1 essentialized view of 52 music software, use of 81, 133 music technology, use of 1, 2, 43, 53, 54, 55, 56–7, 61
as technological experts 69, 70, 82
Bradby, Barbara vii, 36, 38, Bromley, Hank 2, 8, 28, 73, 109

Cakewalk software 73, 124, 126
Caputo, Virginia 1, 7, 31, 58, 75, 110, 112
Challis, Mike 1, 26, 43, 47, 103
Cher, vocoder use, in ‘Believe’ 35, 36, 37 children, and technology 24 Citron, Marcia 6, 92, 101, 102, 125, 127 classical music, and boys 91 classroom culture 41–62 and boys 82
gender differentiation 69–70 and girls 43, 53, 62
and masculinity, technological 103
and music technology 15, 108 need to examine 131
prevailing 136
role of teachers 60, 61–2
Cockburn, Cynthia 30, 63, 64
Colley, Ann 1, 2, 7, 43, 44, 45, 48, 53, 54, 55, 79, 133
Comber, Chris 1, 2, 7, 43, 45, 53, 54, 55, 57, 77 composers, professional difficulties 86–7 working practices 86
composition
boys’ attitude to 94–5, 96–7 Green on 95
computer-mediated 26–7, 104, 105–6 difficulties 108–9
and creativity 88 criticism, reaction to 88–9 girls’ attitude to 93–4, 96, 97, 137
and identity 136
masculine 81–2
and masculinity 7, 32, 64, 91, 105
and musical ideas 9, 16, 85–92
in National Curriculum 1 and self-expression 87–8, 89–91, 92
and women 30–1, 64, 91–2, 101, 115
see also musical idea/s composition process 105–6 choice, lack of 111–12
flexibility 108
lack of 112, 117
need for 112, 135
from teachers 97, 100
notated 113
piano use 113–15

computers
boys home use of 124
and composition 26–7, 104, 105–6
difficulties 108–9
and ‘geekiness’ 43–4
and gender 2
girls dislike of 106, 110, 121 girls home use of 124
and ‘hard mastery’ 108
home ownership of 21fn2
as male domain 130
and masculinity 53
and musical ideas 44
pupil ownership 21fn2, 42

conductors, male/female, media treatment of 125–6 Cool Edit Pro software 79, 80fn3, 124 creativity
and composition 88
male appropriation of 6, 101, 102
Cubase software 73, 76, 78, 81, 82, 124 cyborg female, in Bladerunner 34 and female identity 33–4, 104, 111, 135 and gendering of body 35 male, in The Terminator 34 musical 35–9, 40, 117

Davis, Kathy 33, 110–11
deviance
boys’, positive view of 93, 98–9, 100–1
gendered responses from teachers 92–3, 95–6 girls’, negative view of 93, 99–100, 101–2
Dickinson, Kay 35, 36–7, 112
‘digital human’ 24
digital technology
asocial characterization of 25 claims 24
in electronic dance culture 25 in National Curriculum for Music 25 dualisms, Western thought 6

expert
male teacher as 65, 66
pupils as 69–73
Facer, Keri 20, 23, 42, 59, 70, 71, 124
Faulkner, Wendy 3, 4, 40, 50, 51, 64, 73, 125, 130
feinbot, musical 37
‘feminine’ labelling, Green on 74
Folkestad, Göran 9, 26, 27, 44, 103, 105
Francis, Becky, 13, 16, 52, 93 on gender difference 4, 5 Fruity Loops software 124
gender
in the classroom 41
and computers 2
difference, Francis on 4, 5 differentiation, classroom culture 69–70
and identity 4
invisibility 132
issues, teacher training 132
and music technology 1–2, 55, 136
in music technology classroom 41–2, 48–52, 118, 130, 132
research 2, 13, 131
scripts 74–5
and technology 3–8, 33, 103, 129, 131, 136
gender awareness, Green’s contribution 132
gendering, music software 63, 73–82, 133, 134
Gill, Rosalind 65, 70, 103
girls
and classroom culture 43, 53, 62
composition, attitude to 93–4, 96, 97, 137
computers
dislike of 106, 110, 121
home use 124
deviance, negative view of 93, 99–100, 101–2
essentialized view of 52
music software, use 48, 121, 123–4, 132–3
music technology
engagement with 43, 54, 55–6, 61, 77, 107, 122–3
home use 123–4, 125, 126–7
as technological experts 71–2, 82
Glover, Jo 27fn, 86
Green, Lucy vii, 5, 6, 31–2, 36, 38, 64, 68, 87, 91, 92, 93, 101, 134 on boys’ view of composition 95 on ‘feminine’ labelling 74 gender awareness, contributions 132 on gendered music discourse 41, 48, 69, 81 Informal learning and the school 6fn5
Grint, Keith 65, 70, 103
Grosz, Elizabeth 32, 37
hackers
and identity 44
long hours culture 72
Halstead, Jill 5, 125
Haraway, Donna 17, 33, 37, 104, 135
Harding, Sandra 59, 61
Hensel, Fanny 127
Hickey, Maud 26, 27fn, 86, 103
Holloway, Sarah L. 17, 21, 28, 42, 43, 57, 124 home, as female domain 127–8 ICT (Information and Communication Technology) 8 and educational policy 20–1, 23 as functional skill 23
and masculine identity 43
uncritical view of 28
identity
and composition 136
construction 5
and femininity, and the cyborg 33–4, 104, 111, 135
and gender 4
and hackers 44
and masculinity
and composition 81–2
and ICT 43
and music technology 80–1
and music software 83
and technical competence 57–8
Impact2 project 23
Internet 22, 23, 71
keyboards, as musical instrument, perception 79 knowledge
gendering of 32
technological, sharing 58–9
Kwami, Robert 1, 26fn8, 55
‘Lara Croft’, as empowered female, image 34–5 learning styles, and music technology 103
Logic Studio software 76fn1, 79, 124
Loza, Susana 37
McCartney, Andra 30–1, 77, 108, 119
McClary, Susan 5, 38, 39
McGregor, Jane 117, 118
machines and gender, Wajcman on 57, 63–4, 78
and masculinity 63, 79, 103
Mackenzie, Donald 29, 129
McLuhan, Marshall 22
male dominance, and technology 58 masculinity
and classroom culture 103
and composition 7, 32, 64, 91, 105
and computers 53
construction of 103
and machines 63, 79, 103 and music composition 7
and technical expertise 53, 64, 72–3, 105
and technology 4, 7, 29–30, 59, 78, 82, 104, 122, 134
and work 63
May, Christopher 22, 110
Mendelssohn, Felix 127
MIDI technology 11, 12, 73, 75, 104
interfaces 27
Moroder, Giorgio 37
music education 1
feminist writing on 5
music composition see composition music discourse, gendered, Green on 41, 48, 69, 81

© Copyrighted Material
Technology and the Gendering of Music Education music industry, women in 30 music software

  boys’ use of 81, 133
gendering 63, 73–82, 133, 134
girls’ use of 48, 121, 123–4, 132–3 home ownership of 121
  and identity 83
  lessons
    introductory 44–8
    notational 77
  single-sex classes on, reservations about 133
music technology
  boys use of 43, 54, 55, 56–7, 61, 77
  and classroom technology 15, 108 as control 112
  criticism of 27, 109, 115
  as enabler 112
  examinations 2–3
  feminizing 75–8
  and gender 1–2, 55, 136
  gendered classroom culture 15
  girls
    engagement with 43, 54, 55–6, 61, 77, 107, 122-3
    home use 123–4, 125, 126–7
    and learning styles 103
    and masculine identity 80–1
    masculinizing 78–82
    simplicity of 77
    universities 118
music technology classroom gender in 41–2, 48–52, 118, 130, 132 as ‘male’ territory 119–20, 125, 133 Music Time Deluxe software 45, 75, 76, 124 musical idea/s 112
  and composition 9, 16, 85-92
  and the computer 44
  concept 85
  educational value of 85–6, 102
gendering 85
  gendered connotations 92, 102 and ideology 87
  and input devices, influence of 27 negative responses to 87-8, 92 and pupils’ autonomy 18 musical instrument, keyboards as 79 musical mastery, versus technical competence 104–10 musical meanings delineated 6
    inherent 6
    intersonic 6fn5
National Curriculum for Music composition in 1
  digital technology in 25
Orr Vered, Karen 43, 119, 124
Paynter, John 85
Pegley, Karen 1, 118
Pitts, Stephanie 1, 26fn8, 55
power relations and address mode 16
  male-female hierarchy 41 male-female pupils 52, 59–60 and social space 118
  and technical expertise 59–60, 65
  and technological spaces 120 ProTools software 26
pupil, as expert 69–73
Reason software 80, 80fn3, 81, 124 recording studio
  gendered behaviour in 59
  as masculine domain 120–1
Savage, Jon 1, 2, 23, 26, 43, 47, 86, 103
SCOT (Social Construction of Technology) 29 self-expression, and composition 87–8, 89–91, 92
  Selwyn, Neil 20, 21, 23fn4, 24, 129
  Sibelius notational software 45, 56, 73, 75–6, 76, 109, 111, 112–13, 114, 124 single-sex classes, music software, reservations about 133 Skelton, Christine 2, 41, 52 spaces
Index

gendered construction of 119, 120–1, 122 in schools 117–18
social, and power relations 118 technological, and power relations 120 spheres, male/female 125
Strauss, Johann, ‘Emperor Waltz’ exercise 69–70
STS (Science and Technology Studies) feminist 5, 6, 30, 63, 129 sociology of 129
Summer, Donna, ‘Love to Love you Baby’ 37

teacher training
ethnicity issues 132
gender issues 132

teachers
classroom culture, role in 60, 61–2, 133–4 female marginalizing of 65–6, 66–7, 67–8 role models 134
gendered responses to deviance 92–3, 95–6 male, as experts 65, 66, 67

technical expertise
and identity 57–8
and masculinity 53, 64, 72-3, 105
and power relations 59–60, 65 versus musical mastery 104–10 technological determinism 22, 39–40

technological experts boys as 69, 70, 82
girls as 71–2, 82
nomination of 69, 70

technological talk, gendered 48–52, 130

technology
and the body 135
and children 24
definitions 7–8
feminizing 74–5
and gender 3–8, 33, 103, 129, 131, 136
and male dominance 58
and masculinity 4, 7, 29–30, 59, 78, 82, 104, 122, 134
social dimensions 28–9, 40, 129 Wajcman on 8
transformative effects 23, 26
and women 29–30, 31, 53, 78
see also digital technology; music technology

The Terminator, male cyborg 34

Turkle, Sherry 3, 51, 53, 65, 72, 75, 108, 110, 130

Valentine, Gill 17, 21, 28, 42, 43, 57, 124

vocoder
in ‘Believe’ (Cher) 35, 36, 37
as human-machine bridge 36 types 35fn10
use, by female pop singers 35–7 voice, the, and the body 32

Wajcman, Judy 20, 35, 53, 65, 129 on gender and machines 57, 63–4, 78 on technology, as socio-technical product 8

Warrington, Molly 2, 132
Web 2.0 technologies, in the classroom 22–3

Williams, Raymond 3, 28, 40, 129
Winner, Langdon 28, 73, 74

women
and composition 30–1, 64, 91–2, 101, 115
in the music industry 30
and technology 29–30, 31, 53, 78

women singers
acceptability 31
body of 31–2
vocoder use 35–7
work, and masculinity 63

Young, Gayle 119
Younger, Mike 2, 132,