

Contents

Acknowledgements	vii
1	Introducing T. F. Torrance	1
2	T. F. Torrance, Theologian of the Trinity: The Centrality of the Doctrine of the Trinity in Torrance's Theology	31
	The Deposit of Faith	36
	Dualism	39
	Arius/Arianism	44
	Imageless Thinking of God	48
	Homoousion	54
	Onto-relational Understanding of Person	59
	Perichoresis	61
	The Filioque	65
	Torrance's View of the Relationship of the Immanent and Economic Trinity	67
	Conclusion	70
3	God the Father Almighty, Maker of Heaven and Earth	73
	Understanding Creation through the Incarnation	85
	Torrance's New Natural Theology	93
4	Jesus Christ, the Incarnate Word, Homoousion with the Father and with Us in our Humanity	101
	Torrance's Rejection of Ebionite and Docetic Christology	105
	The Incarnation as an Act of Love	111
	The Incarnation as an Act of Life	117
	Jesus' Vicarious Humanity	119
	The Incarnation Means Light, Truth	120
	The Receptacle or Container Concept of Space and Time	124
5	Atonement: Incarnation and Reconciliation Are One in Jesus Christ	137
	Atonement as a Personal Act	142
	Divine Impassibility	147
	Cross, Sin and Evil	159
	Torrance's View of Justification	168
	John Knox and the Scots Confession	174
6	Torrance's Pneumatology	187
	The Interrelationship between Incarnation, Atonement and Pentecost	189
	Torrance's Understanding of Theosis	197

	The Holy Spirit in the Life of the Trinity	201
	The Holy Spirit and God's Self-Communication	206
	The Holy Spirit Who Proceeds from the Father through the Son	209
	The Procession of the Holy Spirit and the Filioque	212
	The Problem with the Cappadocian Solution to the Filioque and Torrance's Solution	214
7	Resurrection and Ascension: Implications for Humanity in Light of Redemption and Eschatology	219
	Resurrection and Faith	221
	Effects of Dualism on Understanding the Resurrection	223
	The Resurrection and the Person of Jesus	226
	Resurrection, Incarnation and Atonement	227
	Passive Obedience	229
	Active Obedience	230
	Resurrection and Virgin Birth	234
	The Nature of the Resurrection	239
	The Ascension and Eschatology	246
	The Nature of the Ascension	250
	God's Time	253
	Christ's Second Coming	259
8	Torrance's Trinitarian Understanding of the Church, Sacraments and Ministry	265
	The Church Grounded in the Trinity and its Existence in Israel	266
	Rejection of Dualism and Legalism	269
	The Spirit and the Church	273
	The Church as a Body of Justified Sinners	275
	The Church as a Community of Reconciliation	279
	Torrance's View of Grace in Relation to the Roman Catholic View	282
	Prophet, Priest and King and the Sacraments of Baptism and the Lord's Supper	287
	Torrance's Understanding of the Sacraments	295
	Baptism	295
	The Lord's Supper	306
9	Considering Some Criticisms of T. F. Torrance's Theology	325
	Conclusion	351
	Selected Bibliography	353
	Name Index	361
	Subject Index	365